The Daylight Store

ARE YOU INTERESTED

In one of the largest lines of Dry Goods in Vermont? We do not make this statement in a way of bragging. We wish to call your attention to the fact. You can very soon satisfy yourself as to our authority. There are no distributors of reliable Dry Goods in the state that do business on a smaller margin. It's the volume of our business that makes it pay to do it so close.

For Graduating Costumes.

We are at this time interesting ourselves about what will be the correct ideas for these garments.

Champagne Silk Flossed Lace Striped Batiste for 50c per yard.

Crepe de Paris. This is a thin Crepe with silk dots, a new cloth, for 50c per yard.

Foulard Silks in small figures, new and great sellers in larger cities. These are one-dollar values. Here, 75c per yard.

Silk and Wool Crepe de Chines in white and colors. This is a $1.25 cloth for $1.00 per yard.

Twenty-seven-inch White Peau de Soie in a beautiful quality. Here at $1.00. (Note the width.)

William Reed's Lansdown. If you read magazines you are well acquainted with this silk and wool material in all colors. Here at $1.25 per yard.

If a White Muslin is wanted, ask to see our French Muslins at 58c and 75c per yard. They are newer and more satisfactory than Organdies or Batistes.

Mouline de Soie and Chiffons make beautiful dresses. A nice quality will cost 75c.

Braids, Buttons, Ribbons and Trimmings in the latest to go with the above goods—in fact we ought to sell you Trimmings if nothing else in our store. Our line is new and tasty. It's up to the best.

Garment Dept.

As warmer days come you will begin to think about your Spring Suit. Would it not be well to get first choice of the largest line of new garments in this part of the state while the assortment is at its best?

Ask to see our special values at $12.50, $15.00 and $25.00. If you do not care to go all through the line these values will interest you, as they are far ahead of last season's values.

We are going to double our garment business and we expect real values to do it.

Are you interested in the finest line of Silk Waists that ever came into Barre? These Waists are sold only in New York's best stores. We give the prices. We ask you to see the Waists at $2.98, $3.98, $4.98, $5.75 and $7.50 each and the Waists at $8.50, $9.50, $12.50, $19.50 and $25.00 each, made of silk embroidery and all lace edge and alovers. They are ripe beauties.
