Great Wall Paper Sale!

Not going out of business, but to greatly reduce our large stock of Paper Hangings, to make room for a line of Carpets, Matings, Window Shades, etc., which we shall put in stock as soon as possible, we shall begin at this date to offer our immense line of Wall Paper Hangings, etc., at factory wholesale prices. All borders (except Ingrain and Tile) at same price as side-wall and ceiling. This stock of Paper Hangings was bought for the 1904 trade direct from several of the largest factories and is strictly new and up to date.

Bear in mind that this will be an opportunity of a lifetime to buy Paper, and you cannot afford to miss it. (Send for Samples.) Thirty thousand feet of Room Moulding just in and for sale at half price.

ITALIAN COTTON GROWERS.

Mississippi Man Tells of Their Superiority to Negroes.

Le Roy Percy of Greenville, Miss., who is a lawyer, banker and farmer, has been experimenting with an Italian colony on what is known as the Austin Corbin planting property in Arkansas, of which more than 4,000 acres are in cultivation, Italians working more than half that acreage, says the Manufacturers' Record. Some of these Italians have been upon the property for years and are so well satisfied that they are constantly bringing over relatives and friends from Italy.

Mr. Percy finds that as growers of cotton the Italians are in every way superior to the negro, that they are industrious and thrifty and are inclined to no race antagonism and to no race mixture. He recognizes that there is an undoubted scarcity of labor in his part of the south, with one class of negroes in demand in sawmills, oil mills and similar enterprises and with another class scattering through the United States, but he looks to immigration to supply the deficiency and is convinced by experience that if Italians from the northern agricultural districts of Italy are encouraged to come to the south they will gradually take the places of the negroes without there being any such violent change as to paralyze for a generation the prosperity of the country.
