Ready to Grant All Demands of Raisuli, the Bandit.

PERDICARIS' RELEASE SURE.

Friend of Brigand Chief to Be Made Governor of Tangier—Captives Reported Ill—Chadwick Asks Permission to Send Doctor.

Tangier, Morocco, June 9.—The sultan's letter in reply to the diplomatic representations made in regard to the kidnaping of Messrs. Perdicaris and Varley arrived here this afternoon.

It is said by a person in the sultan's confidence that the sultan has given orders to grant all of the conditions demanded by Raisuli, the bandit leader, in order to expedite the release of the captives.

The sultan in his letter appoints Herid el Barrada to be governor of CROMWELL VARLEY.

Tangier, which step was included among Raisuli's demands.

Barrada was a member of the council of Mohammed el Torres, the representative of the sultan here, and formerly was governor of Mazagan.

The authorities assert that the raid made on Tuesday by armed Anjara tribesmen on the home of an Englishman here, during which they obtained several rifles, was only a common robbery and had no political significance.

Rear Admirals Jewell and Chadwick visited the British battleship Prince of Wales and received the customary salutes.

Perdicaris and Varley Ill.

Washington, June 9.—The navy department has received a cablegram from Rear Admiral Chadwick, at Tangier, to the effect that he has been informed that Perdicaris and his stepson Varley are in need of medical assistance and that the consul general has sent to Raisuli to inquire whether a surgeon will be given safe conduct. The admiral says that if so one will be sent in company with the sheriff of Wenzel. Raisuli's reply is expected June 10.

British Open Golf Tournament.

London, June 9.—The contest for the open golf championship was started at Sandwich in blustering weather. Owing to the heavy entry only one round was played. Walter J. Travis, the American champion, started steadily and went out in 39, but he did not show up to good advantage in returning. His score for the full round was 83, which is poor. Travis drove farther than during the amateur championship contest, but his putting was inferior. This for Thomson, a professional, leads with a score of 75.

LIBERTY BELL AT FAIR.

St. Louis Welcomes Symbol of Freedom With Great Ceremony.

St. Louis, June 9.—The historic Liberty bell has arrived from Philadelphia in response to the petition of 90,000 school children of this city and will remain in the Pennsylvania building until the close of the world's fair.

Mayor John Weaver of Philadelphia and other city officials who accompanied the bell were escorted to their hotel, where they were called on by Mayor Wells, President Francis of the exposition and other city and exposition officials.

The entire party then proceeded to the Union station, where the bell had been placed on a specially prepared float, and accompanied by a squad of mounted police and a long line of military organizations, the famous old bell was taken to the exposition, where formal exercises were carried out.

It is estimated that more than 50,000 school children formed a portion of the immense throngs that greeted the bell when it entered the grounds. The ceremonies were held in the Plaza of St. Louis. A chorus of 1,000 high school pupils sang "Concord" after which Chairman Henry Clay of the Joint special committee of councils of Philadelphia presented Liberty bell to the exposition. Brief speeches were made by President Francis, Governor Dockery of Missouri, Mayor Weaver of Philadelphia and Mayor Wells of St. Louis.

The origin of the day, "Liberty Bell," delivered by President George McCurdy of the common council of Philadelphia, concluded the exercises.

Followed by thousands, the bell was taken to the Pennsylvania building, situated near the southern border of the Plateau of States, where it was installed, to remain throughout the exposition.

UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Feller County, Colo., Declared to Be In State of Rebellion.

GENERAL BELL IN COMMAND

More Local Officials Forced to Resign and Many Miners Arrested—Presence of Soldiers at Victor Prevents Further Bloodshed There.

Victor, Colo., June 9.—Martial law has been declared in the Cripple Creek district by the posting of Acting Governor Hargott's proclamation at a number of places. The posting was done under the direction of Adjutant General Bell, who had arrived at Victor from Denver. This action was taken at the request of Sheriff Bell of Teller county, who asked the executive for troops. Conditions in the camp are quiet, according to all accounts. General Bell has assumed command of the military and control of the district and has called a council of the officers of the local military companies. He has ordered Colonel Verdeckberg, who had charge of affairs in the district when martial law ended there several months ago, to return here.

General Bell and the mine operators, led by Charles M. MacNeal and C. C. Hamlin, have been making a secret trip down the short line railway, their destination being unknown, every member of the party taking the greatest pains to conceal the purpose of the trip.

Sheriff Bell in an interview concerning the independence station tragedy said: "I will get the murderer sure. The criminal who set that infernal death trap and killed fourteen men will be caught. I have a number of clues that are valuable, but will not divulge them at this time. I don't believe that the murderer is in the state at this time, but I can and will get him. I have no doubt but what he is a member of the miners' union."

Declaration of military rule has already had a salutary effect. All factions in the camp are tired of the long drawn out controversy and are planning a settlement. That the union miners who went on strike Aug. 10, 1903, would be glad to bury the hatchet is shown by the publication of a two column editorial in the Victor Record, the multipiece of the Western Federation of Miners, urging that the strike be called off.

A dispute has arisen over the inquest on the bodies of the victims of the independence explosion. Captain James Dorn, who resigned under pressure brought to bear by the Citizens' alliance (the pressure being a noose around his neck, according to his statement, now says that his resignation does not stand and that he will hold the independence inquest. He has impeached a jury for that purpose, George Hall, the new coroner appointed as Dorn's successor, is also proceeding to conduct an inquest.

Three more Victor city officials have been forced to resign. They are Justice of the Peace J. D. Thomas and Aldermen J. W. Murphy and J. J. Tobin. Police Magistrate Michael Gibbons, who refused to resign, was made a prisoner at the Victor military army, where many union miners are also confined.

Frank J. Hantz, leading attorney of the Western Federation of Miners here, has been warned to leave the district.

In all about 200 union men and sympathizers have been arrested by the sheriff and military since Monday. Twenty-eight of these have already been deported. The remainder are imprisoned in the jail, Victor armory and the Cripple Creek Mining Exchange hall under military guard.

EXILES IN DENVER.

Twenty-four Miners Deported From Cripple Creek District.

Denver, June 9.—The twenty-four deported union miners from the Cripple Creek district, exiled since the serious riots in that section, arrived at Denver on a special train over the Denver and Rio Grande. In the rear of the car stood nine guards armed with shotguns and army rifles, who had been deputized to conduct the exiles to Denver. The miners were unarmed, and nearly all were penniless. They were met by about forty delegates to the convention of the Western Federation of Miners and were taken to a restaurant. The miners say that the Cripple

Creek district is no longer under martial law. "Any one who has an opinion," said one, "had better get out, because it is impossible for him to be protected there now." The miners assert that when arrested they were searched by guards of the military and Citizens' alliance and their money and valuables taken. They also declare that before they were placed on the train they were lined up by armed members of the Citizens' alliance and their federation cards taken from them. They were told that they could stay in Cripple Creek if they would take out cards in the Citizens' alliance. One of the deported miners said: "I don't know why I was arrested nor why I was sent away from Victor and the Cripple Creek country. I have violated no law, destroyed no property, injured no man. So far as I know, every one of the men driven with me from home is equally innocent with myself."

The guards who accompanied the exiled men from Cripple Creek have returned to the district.

Reports that an armed mob was gathering at the Union depot to meet the train bringing the deported unionists caused Chief of Police Delaney to order a detail of police to the station. On their arrival they found everything quiet.

LEWIS ETZEL BURIED.

Inquest Proves Chinese Soldiers Killed Correspondent.

Newchwang, June 9.—The funeral of Lewis Etzel, correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph, has taken place here. He was killed ten miles out at sea by some Chinese soldiers who were searching for pirates. Immediately after realizing the mistake they had made these men put out to sea and have not been seen since. United States Consul General Miller held an inquest at Shwantsitz, at which the Chinese General Lu acknowledged that Etzel was killed by his soldiers.

Ernest Brindle of the London Daily Mail, who was along with Etzel when he was shot, testified that their junk was not challenged by the soldiers and was fired upon in spite of the fact that the two foreigners were plainly visible at a distance of less than 100 yards. At least 150 shots were fired at the correspondents' junk, which did not reply.

Consul General Miller will forward his report to United States Minister Conger at Peking, showing gross carelessness upon the part of the soldiers to say the least. While Brindle is uncommunicative regarding the plans which took himself and Etzel on the sea voyage, it is learned that they were attempting to reach Port Arthur. The Russian authorities are doing all in their power to assist the American officials in the matter. General Kondratovich placed a steam launch with twenty-five soldiers under the orders of Consul General Miller, and otherwise rendered great aid in recovering the body of Etzel. Consul General Miller has replied to General Kondratovich thanking him heartily for his kindness on behalf of the United States government.

PENNSYLVANIA SENATORSHIP

Question of Calling Extra Session Still Undetermined.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 9.—The question as to whether the senatorial vacancy created by the death of Senator Quay shall be filled by appointment or by an extra session of the legislature is still undetermined. The whole subject was gone over between Governor Pennypacker, Insurance Commissioner Durham and Senator Penrose at a conference at the executive mansion. The governor's visitors said before returning to Philadelphia that no conclusion was reached and no formal action would be taken for several days. While in Harrisburg Mr. Penrose and Mr. Durham also conferred with other officials and members of the Republican state committee and party leaders in this locality.

The opinion prevails here that the governor will not call an extra session of the legislature if he is convinced the vacancy can be filled by appointment. The party leaders do not want an extra session if it can be avoided and hope the governor can see his way clear to make an appointment. It is believed here that there would have been no doubt of the election of George T. Oliver of Pittsburg if he had consented to accept and that the senator would come from Allegheny county, former State Senator Flinn of Pittsburg being the first choice of many leaders.

Barrett Cases Nolle Prossed.

Washington, June 9.—The government has nolle prossed the two remaining indictments against Harrison J. Barrett, former law clerk of the post-office department, growing out of the postal investigation. The action was taken by United States District Attorney Beach before Judge Gould of the District criminal court. The indictments charged Barrett with bribery in accepting an $800 fee as the attorney of an Alabama bond investment company while he was a government employee.

M'DONNELL NOTED

Man Shot in Albany Once Tried For Murder in New York.

New York, June 9.—Miles B. McDonnell, who was shot and killed in the Ten Eyck hotel in Albany by R. E. Preusser, was the central figure in one of the most sensational shooting affairs at ever occurred in this city. On Dec. 28, 1900, in the course of a fierce pistol battle, in which half a score of men were engaged, he shot and killed George Price in the Onawa cafe, West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street.

Price and McDonnell were gamblers and a bitter feud had grown up between them. It was commonly known that each had sworn to do violence to the other when they met. In the Price clique there were several men, of whom the leader was Tom Kennedy, prominently known in sporting circles.

McDonnell was drinking with a party of friends in the Onawa cafe. Kennedy entered with George Price and Edward Courtney. As soon as they saw McDonnell there was a heated argument. Kennedy pulled a revolver and shot at McDonnell twice without effect, and McDonnell returned the fire through the smoke from Kennedy's weapon. When the smoke cleared away, Price lay dead and Courtney was dangerously wounded. Two other men received flesh wounds.

When McDonnell was tried, the gamblers who were subpoenaed to testify against him were not communicative, and then McDonnell himself went on the stand in his own defense. He contended the jury that he had acted only in self defense, because, after being out only eighteen minutes, the jury acquitted McDonnell on the charge of murder for killing Price. In May, 1903, the charge against McDonnell for shooting Courtney was dismissed by Judge Newburger.

At that time it was announced that McDonnell had quit gambling and had become a stockbroker, having become a member of the Boston Stock Exchange. While here McDonnell lived with his wife and three children at City Island.

Prusser McDonnell's Close Friend.

Boston, June 9.—Persons associated with Miles McDonnell, the victim of the shooting at Albany, N. Y., in the management of the Metropolitan Stock Exchange here, learned with the greatest surprise of the murder of McDonnell. Having known R. E. Preusser, who is alleged to have killed McDonnell, as the man's intimate friend, they could attribute the shooting only to intoxication or insanity. McDonnell's home was in Jamaica Plain, where he had a wife and three children. He had been connected with the Boston Metropolitan Stock Exchange for three years.

Baked Potatoes.

Baked potatoes are much lighter if broken with a fork rather than a knife and pricked with a fork before baking.

BOLD COLORADO BANDITS.

They Hold Up a Train and Shoot a Brakeman.

Salt Lake City, June 9.—Denver and Rio Grande passenger train No. 5, westbound, was held up near Pullsade, Colo., a station just east of Grand Junction. Brakeman Shellenberger was seriously wounded by a bullet from the gun of one of the two holdups, and the conductor had his lantern shot from his hand.

The robbers flagged the train about two miles from the station, and when the trainmen went forward they were confronted with revolvers by two masked men. Marching the conductor back to the train, the bandits detached the engine and express car from the coaches and blew open the safe after running the locomotive and car some distance up the track. The express of ficials at this hour are unable to say what amount was obtained, but claim it was small.

Sheriff W. G. Struthers and Deputy Sheriff D. M. Hardy of Grand Junction are now on the trail of the robbers with a posse of farmers and ranchers quickly summoned from the vicinity of Grand Junction.

Sheriff Frank Adams and another posse from Glenwood Springs are also scouring the surrounding country.

Diamonds Found in Garbage Dump.

Chicago, June 9.—Diamond rings valued at $2,339 have been found in the toe of a slipper that had been thrown with other discarded footwear on a garbage dump. The jewels were the property of Mrs. George Frank, who had hidden them in the slipper. Her daughter, ignorant of its valuable contents, gave the slipper with its mate to the elevator boy of their apartments building to throw away. The police were notified when the loss was discovered. The elevator boy said he remembered taking old shoes from Mrs. Frank's apartments Saturday and throwing them in the garbage can.

Dastardly Outrage in Lockport.

Buffalo, June 9.—A special to the News from Lockport says William Smith, an insurer, has been arrested on suspicion of having entered the home of George Diel and assaulted Mrs. Diel and her fourteen-year-old daughter while Mr. Diel was at work at the Lockport paper mill. Mrs. Diel is vomiting blood and may die. The daughter's condition is not serious. The woman and child were beaten with a stove, the former being left in an unconscious condition.

Big Coal Breaker Burned.

Hazleton, Pa., June 9.—The No. 4 breaker of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company at Amdurled has been completely destroyed. Eight hundred men and boys are thrown out of employment. The loss will amount to $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire was caused by the explosion of a can of oil while repairs were being made to machinery.
