"USE HYOMEL AT OUR RISK."

Rickett & Wells Pay For HYOMEL Treatment if It Fails to Cure Catarrh.

So pronounced has been the relief and cures following the use of Hyomel in catarrhal troubles that in nearly every city and village all over this country the leading druggists have advertised that they would pay for Hyomel themselves if it did not affect a cure. In this city Rickett & Wells have publicly announced in the Times and other papers, "Use Hyomel at our risk." The result has been an enormous demand for the Hyomel outfits, and many unusual cures have been made.

The fact that Hyomel is so convenient and complete and that it cures by merely breathing and not by drugging the stomach, no doubt has had considerable influence in creating confidence in the treatment. When Hyomel is used, every particle of air that enters the head and throat and goes to the lungs is charged with healing balsams that kill the germs of catarrh and soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane.

Rickett & Wells urge all who are subject to catarrh or catarrhal colds to get a Hyomel outfit from them and use it at their risk. No matter how skeptical you may be, you cannot dispute the fairness of this offer. Use Hyomel for a month. If, at the end of thirty days, you can say to Rickett & Wells, "It did not help," they will refund your money without question or argument. This is their way of removing all doubts as to the power of Hyomel to cure catarrhal troubles. They believe it to be the strongest evidence that can be offered to the curative powers of Hyomel.
