A LONG-FELT WANT.

It is supplied at last in Barre. Good-natured people are often irritable. If you know the reason, you would not be surprised. Ever have itching piles? Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content. The constant itching sensation. Hard to bear, harder to get relief. Spills your temper, nearly drives you crazy. Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want? You can have relief and cure if you will follow the advice of a local citizen.

F. S. Sandler (farmer) of West Topsham, says: "I was subject to itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, for a number of years despite the use of innumerable ointments and ointments brought to my notice by friends and acquaintances and through the Barre newspapers and other sources of information. The malady, disease or complaint, term it what you will, was often bad enough in the winter, but in hot weather the itching and annoyance was unendurable. I heard of Doan's Ointment and got a box at E. A. Drown's drug store in Barre. When it effectually stopped such an old and chronic case as mine, which had resisted every effort on my part to check it, let alone cure, I have often wondered what this remedy would do in the incipient stages of that far too common annoyance, piles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

CURRENT COMMENT.

China is at heart about as neutral as a chained bull terrier with two strangers in the front yard.—Washington Star.

From the number of men ordered to the front it is evident that the English are determined to dictate terms in Lassa itself.—Boston Herald.

The English papers call Travis' victory at golf another Bunker Hill. Golf experts will recognize this as a British joke.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Every such incident as that of Raisell and Perdicaris serves to hasten perceptibly the coming of the day when Mulai and his court will be permanently retired and the Morocco anarchy will be brought to an end.—Chicago Record-Herald.

It is said that Wall street is complaining of a lamb famine. The tender young ones are getting few and far between, and the others are getting a bit too sheepish. Consequently the fleeing firms are finding it hard work keeping the wolf at the door.—Baltimore American.

SAGE AND VACATIONS.

Russell Sage inveighs against the "vacation habit." But how railroad and steamship stocks would go down if no one had contracted it!—New York World.

Mr. Sage's advice as to the best means of investing $1,000,000, which most of us haven't got, may be worth heeding, but his opinion that the vacation habit is harmful will fall on deaf ears.—Syracuse Herald.

If everybody took Uncle Russell Sage's advice about not taking vacations the summer resort keeper would soon be flocking into town to do business in Mr. Sage's money lending department.—New York Press.

If Russell Sage had had his way in arranging mundane affairs there would have been no rest every seventh day, there would have been no sickness, simply because both of these mean lost time—that is, lost money.—Chicago Post.

Iron Cage Cells.

The iron cage as a prison cell was invented in France by the bishop of Verdun, in the time of Louis IX., and the bishop himself was the first prisoner to occupy it.
