

ALTON B. PARKER STANDARD BEARER FOR DEMOCRACY.

New Yorker Nominated on First Ballot at St. Louis After All-Night Session.

BRYAN COULD NOT STOP IT.

Platform Adopted as Prepared and Presented by Committee--Adjournment Till 2.

JUDGE ALTON BROOKS PARKER.

St. Louis, July 9.—After an all-night session of the Democratic national convention, Judge Alton B. Parker of New York was this morning at 5 o'clock nominated for president on the first ballot.

All night long thousands of spectators had sat patiently and watched the waging of the most extraordinary battle Bryan was waging to prevent the nomination of Parker, and to do it he rallied all the favorite sons and anti-Parker forces.

Bryan, in a fiery speech, seconded the nomination of all the candidates except Parker; that is, he named each and said that upon the new platform of the party, each might stand united, if only the man "worthy of the people's trust could be named for president."

Eight years ago the Democratic party placed our banner in my hands. Four years later my commission was renewed. I now return the standard and take my place in the party ranks.

The speech threw the convention into an uproar, but when the confusion had subsided the roll call began. Parker lacked just nine votes when the first roll call ended at 5.45, but before the vote was announced Idaho changed its six votes to Parker and Nevada followed with two.

A motion to adjourn was greeted with howls of affirmation and the 11,000 spectators and a thousand delegates made a break for the exits after a session lasting nearly ten hours.

PLATFORM ADOPTED.

Adopted Without Discussion Last Evening.

St. Louis, July 9.—As soon as the convention met last evening and had been called to order Chairman Clark announced that the report of the committee on resolutions was ready.

COMMITTEE'S HARD WORK.

In Continuous Session for 18 Hours and Without Food.

St. Louis, July 9.—The platform committee had a hard time of it. The members were in continuous session from 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon until 11.30 yesterday forenoon, more than 18 hours, and with nothing to eat since Thursday evening.

HILL AND BRYAN

Express Their Views on the Platform Which They Made.

St. Louis, July 9.—Concerning the platform, Mr. Bryan said yesterday to a Publishers Press reporter: "The platform is not what anyone of us wanted, but it is such we all can stand on it."

BOY ROBS STORE.

Only 13, But He Secures Cash From Burlington Grocer.

Burlington, July 9.—A youth of only 13 years, Wilbur Blair by name, made a record for himself yesterday by committing a burglary in Burlington which would have done credit to a professional. He secured a lot of money, attired himself in finery and was starting for Montreal when the law put a check to his further proceedings.

Wilbur Blair came to Burlington from Montreal about two weeks ago and has since been stopping with his sister here. Late yesterday afternoon, with thoughts of a return trip to his home, he entered the back door of the grocery store of John Symond, a Syrian, on lower Cherry street, while Mrs. Symond was sitting outside on the sidewalk.

Chief Russell telegraphed to Deputy J. H. Allen at Essex Junction to look out for the boy. This latter, as it happened, had ridden up in the same train and caught the lad in the depot. The boy said his name was Charlie Johnson, and that he came from Rutland. Later when brought into the presence of Chief Russell he acknowledged his crime. He had $9.20 left.

SUICIDE AT WILLISTON.

Carl Yantz, Farmer, Ill and Despondent.

Williston, July 8.—Carl Yantz, a well-to-do farmer with a wife and seven children, committed suicide by shooting about 9 o'clock last evening.

He was recovering from a long illness and was despondent and it is thought his mind was affected. The family retired at the usual hour, but about 9 o'clock Mr. Yantz arose and going into another room picked up a loaded shot gun, placed the muzzle in his mouth and pulled the trigger.

Mr. Yantz was about 50 years of age and for a number of years had carried on the H. S. Johnson farm here, coming to Williston from Hinesburg. He had been successful and was considered an honest, temperate man. The funeral will be held at the late home Saturday at 2 o'clock.

RUTLAND'S FIRST DEFEAT

Capt. Daley's Men Administer It

RUTLAND'S GAME IN 8TH

But Barre-Montpelier Team Pulled Out Two Runs in Ninth and Won.

Rutland, July 8.—The Barre-Montpelier base ball team arrived in town today and downed the heretofore unbeatable together with their supporters by a score of 11 to 10.

The crowd which could seemingly not stand a defeat did things which would be a disgrace to any crowd, even to crowding onto out field and blocking the visiting fielders. Polard, Bowcock and Dresser did the star work for the inter-city team. Polard pounded out three base hits, and one two base hit.

To give proper credit to the visitors let it be said that the reports about their speed has not been exaggerated for theirs is one of the fastest teams seen here this season. They outfielded, outbatted and outgeneraled the homers at every stage of the game.

Dresser pitched gilt-edged ball while Coakley was knocked out of the box and had to give way to O'Brien in the eighth. It was a miserable game from the standpoint of clean base ball and it would be too painful to go into details.

Summary:

Score by innings: Rutland 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10-10. Mont-Barre 0 2 0 1 4 0 2 2-11.

Earned runs, Montpelier-Barre 1; first base on errors, Rutland 5; three-base hits, Polard 2; two-base hits, Duff, Nash, Polard; stolen bases, Nash 2, Burke 2, Stewart, Brown, McMahon. O'Hara struck out by Coakley 2, by Dresser 4, by O'Brien 2; bases on balls, of Dresser 2, of O'Brien 2, double plays, Saunders to Robertson, Stewart to Morgan; sacrifice hits, Cotter, Saunders, Morgan; Dresser; left on bases, Rutland 7, Montpelier-Barre 10; hit by pitcher, 2, Coakley 1; time of game, 2 hrs.; umpire, Heckman; attendance, 1,500.

BURLINGTON 3, ST. ALBANS 2.

Burlington Team Won Exhibition Game in Close Contest.

Burlington, July 9.—Burlington won the exhibition game with St. Albans yesterday afternoon at Athletic Park by the close score of 3 to 2. The game was not of the snappy kind and did not arouse much enthusiasm except in the seventh when Burlington made the two runs which decided the contest.

Burlington 3, St. Albans 2. Bases on balls; of Campbell 2; of Williams 1. Struck out; by Campbell 4; by Williams 2. Umpire Courtney.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Hyphens are at the head today.

To think that the wonderful Coakley was batted out of the box.

It was loose ball at times on both sides yesterday but the B-M's fifteen hits is what brought victory.

The Barre-Montpelier team plays at Burlington today and Plattsburgh at St. Albans.

Rutland will not receive the treatment at the hands of the crowd when she comes here July 30 that the inter-city team received there yesterday. We like clean ball too well.

Northern League Standing.

Table with columns: Team, Won, Lost, Pct.

Auction sale both afternoon and evening today. City Auction Rooms, Pearl St.

A "Y" ORGANIZED.

Starts With Fifteen Members. A President and Secretary Elected.

The reception given by the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. F. D. Buckley on Park street last evening to Miss Alice Moore of Rockland, Me., was attended by about 50 young people who were especially invited to hear Miss Moore speak on the work of the Y of the W. C. T. U.

The reception committee was composed of Miss Allie Trow, Miss Eula McWhorter and Miss Bessie Whitecomb. Misses Eula and Anna Averill had charge of the refreshments.

At the conclusion of Miss Moore's address a "Y" was formed with fifteen young lady members. Miss Mae Heath was elected president and Miss Inez Vaughan corresponding secretary. The remaining officers will be elected at the first meeting which will be held with Miss Edith Barnes next Wednesday evening.

FOR WHICH PARTY?

Is Anti-Saloon League Working

AND COLLECTING MONEY?

Correspondent Wants to Know Certain Things From League Superintendent Tomorrow.

Editor Daily Times: At the outset in printed matter, sent by mail to citizens, advertising the Anti-Saloon League meetings in the churches tomorrow it is vaguely intimated that there is a right way to vote meaning, we understand, in the coming election.

The league in this printed matter claims to represent the various churches as their political agent, on an anti-partisan basis. It also proposes to ask the several churches for all the money they will contribute. As the superintendent was an active party prohibitionist when elected superintendent but deserted the party so far as the party has been able to discover and got ahead of the Republican convention two years ago in advocating the referendum which gave us the licensed saloon of which he now so bitterly complains, his anti-partisan experience doubtless having made the right way to vote clear, the church voters have a right to expect before the collection is taken that the league speakers tomorrow in the several churches give the league's anti-partisan opinion which anti-partisan state ticket should be supported in September. There are three—two for license and one for prohibition.

Omnipartisan voting would be to vote for all of them but the law limits the voters to one. The superintendent being a preacher and a moral leader of courses stands for principle, not mere policy, and will advise those church voters for whom his league claims to be political agent whether gospel principles require a Christian voter to vote for a license or a prohibition party. As a church voter who intends to attend one of the churches Sunday, the writer asks for definite advice based on the principles of the Bible. He has been led to believe from the teachings of his church that no political party has a right to expect or should receive the aid of Christian men unless it places itself on record in an attitude of open hostility to the saloon. Also that "no party will do right if you give it your vote when it does wrong," and again "what is morally wrong cannot be politically right."

But if there is any plan of anti-partisan politico-moral gymnastics by which those fundamental principles can be circumvented it doubtless will be a great relief to many voters who pose as prohibition men in the churches. Now let us have definite advice which party to vote for. Church Voter.

Notice to Prohibitionists.

The members of the Prohibition are reminded that the Prohibition committee needs every dollar the man can spare for temperance work. To carry on urgent necessary work the party and that the so-called anti-partisan organization clamoring so loudly for money in all the churches has not a favorable way to our party, the leading member was once one of us. It is simply a suggestion to our members to think carefully before they give a penny to assist one who has no right to it. R. L. Bellnap, Vice Prohibitionist.

Union Painters, Attention.

All members of Local, No. 10, Painters' Union, are earnestly requested to be present at the regular meeting Tuesday evening, July 9, at 8 o'clock, as business of great importance will be transacted. HARRY CO.
