ANOTHER GREAT SHOW.

The "Maude Hillman Co." again proved their reputation of being the best repertoire company on the road. Their performance of "The Buffalo Tragedy" last night was a decided success; seldom have we the chance of witnessing entirely new plays by such artists as every member of the Hillman company are. The scenery is the best we have ever had in our town, and the specialties are of the best.

Tonight "A Spy of Port Arthur" will be the bill; this play is the latest war drama dealing with the present trouble between Japan and Russia, and contains many melo-dramatic situations. An entire new change of specialties.

FRANCE AND THE POPE.

Delcasse Serves Ultimatum in Bishops' Resignation Matter.

Paris, July 21.—The text of Foreign Minister Delcasse's note addressed to the Vatican has been communicated to the council of ministers. It creates a decisive issue, asking for the withdrawal of the letters by which the Vatican called for the resignations of Bishops Geay of Laval and Nordes of Dijon. Otherwise all relations between France and the Vatican will be broken off.

A similar notification was communicated to the papal nunciature here. The Vatican's answer has not yet been received. It is expected that the question will be maturely considered before an answer is given. Therefore the council does not anticipate a determination of the issue before August. The officials incline to the belief that a rupture is inevitable, as unofficial advices from Rome indicate that the Vatican does not intend to comply with the request to withdraw the letters calling for the resignations of the bishops.

DOWN, DOWN THE SHUTE

Intercity Gave Rutlands a Shove

BOB DRESSER ATE 'EM UP

Marble Pounders Got Only Four Safe Hits—Locals Hit Coakley for Seven—Score 5 to 2.

"Faddy" Duff's warriors from Rutland were given another shove down the toboggan chute by the Barre-Montpelier combination yesterday afternoon, in one of the best exhibitions of baseball that the home team has given. The score was five to two, and Rutland may count herself lucky in getting those two. With the single exception of the opening game, the largest crowd of the season was present, the enlarged grand stand and the bleachers being packed and the late comers occupying standing room wherever they could find it. The game was easily the property of the home team, although the visitors did try to snatch it away in the last inning. The nine men on the team played a magnificent game, in the field, at the bat and on the bases. There were only two misplays in the whole game by Barre-Montpelier, and both those were perfectly excusable. In the ninth Stewart dropped a fly after a long run and in the third Poland failed to field a single which McMahon landed in his territory allowing McMahon to roam on third. But Poland was not responsible as the ball took an ugly bound just as it got to him and went to one side, rolling into the row of teams. Both Stewart and Poland made up for it, however, by making star catches.

Dorman, the stocky short stop, featured himself with a handsome catch off Kennedy in the second inning. Kennedy knocked a fly into left that was apparently safe. Dorman was after it like a flash, though, and the ball landed on the tips of his fingers and stuck there. The catch was little short of phenomenal, and Dorman got the applause that was given him. Nash behind the bat put up his best game of the season, and made rings all around "Faddy" Duff, Rutland's catcher. Nash gobbled up three high fouls that most catchers would have dropped, and it was in large measure due to him that "Bobby" Dresser pitched so remarkable a game.

But four of the visitors connected with the bat for safe ones. Four of them ranned the air and not one was given a free pass to first on balls. Dresser hit one better. He fielded his position perfectly, with four clean assists and one put out, and put the finishing touches on a splendid record by whacking out a single in the eighth, scoring McEnaney. Throughout the game he held Rutland safe.

His opponent in the box, Coakley of Holy Cross, pitched a creditable game, but was found for seven hits, two of which were contributed by Poland, a two-bagger and a single. Coakley was not so steady as Dresser, giving three bases on balls. He also lost his temper badly at the umpire. Coakley's support was wretched on the part of Saunders at short. Kennedy and Saunders exchanged places and the former also made one misplay in the position. Capt. Duff contributed a passed ball also. Brown at third put up a star game.

The first hit of the game came in the second when Dorman walked to the plate after making his great catch and slammed the ball into right field for a single. There was nothing doing, however, as McEnaney, the new man, struck out and Burke grounded to first. The unfortunate play of Poland's landed McMahon on third in the next inning. Saunders was out on a grounder to Burke, and then the crowd howled over McMahon's being run down between third and home when he tried to score on Coakley's grounder to "Jimmie" Morgan. While McMahon was being put out, Coakley took second and scored soon on O'Hara's single. Cotter was hit with the ball, but the home team squeezed out of a hole when McEnaney retired Brown, an assist to Burke.

Although Poland doubled in the third, the home team went not score. In the fifth Rutland went into the air and Barre-Montpelier crossed the plate four times. Saunders fumbled Dresser's grounder, and the runner took second on "Faddy's" passed ball. Saunders lost Poland's grounder, and with two on bases Stewart dropped a safe but just over the pitcher's head. Dresser chased himself in. Nash was declared out at first on an extremely doubtful decision by the umpire, Poland and Dresser advancing. Apperions hit to Kennedy who decided to take Saunders' position, and Poland was out on his dash for the plate. "Jimmie" Morgan planted the ball between Robertson and Saunders, and these two worthies watched the ball scoot through. Stewart and Apperions didn't wait for formalities but went home. While Robertson and Saunders looked foolish at each other, Morgan went to second. Dorman sent one careening down the third base line and "Jimmie" tallied. There were four scores and enough to win the game.

Add one more score to the home team's credit, and that was the end for them. It was made in the eighth. Coakley issued a pass to McEnaney and Burke advanced him on a pretty sacrifice. Dresser sent a liner past first, and the new man scored. Rutland made a brave but futile attempt to ward off defeat in the last inning. Cotter knocked a high one to center field and Stewart dropped it after a hard try. "Bobby" Brown struck out. Duff, who hadn't been doing anything with the willow, came up looking desperate. Two strikes went by and "Faddy" stabbed at the third. It was a good stab. The ball went hurtling to right field like a shot. No one could have stopped it. Cotter scored. "Faddy" stopped at the second station and there he stuck. Kennedy pounded one to Burke and was a sure out. Robertson made an easy assist for McEnaney and died on first, making the third out and the end of the game. The score:

Barre-Montpelier. Poland, r. f. 2, Stewart c. f. 1, Nash p. 1, Apperions 1 f. 4, Morgan 3b. 4, Dorman s. s. 4, McEnaney 2b. 2, Burke 1b. 4, Urasser p. 4. Total 26. Barre-Montpelier. PLATTSBURG'S POOR FINISH.

St. Albans Won Game in the Ninth Inning.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 21.—St. Albans defeated Plattsburg in the last inning yesterday when the home team apparently had a sure victory. With the score 5 to 3 against them, the St. Albans stickers went in and bunched two singles and a double, while Plattsburg contributed an error. Scanlon pitched well for six innings and then weakened, the visitors getting ten hits in three innings.

Score by innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9. St. Albans 0 0 0 0 0 2 1 3—6. Plattsburg 0 0 2 1 0 0 2 0—5.

Carved Over the Plate.

Heard from the grand stand, "Isn't 'Bobby' Dresser just a dear?"

Cannell, formerly with Nashua, is playing with New Haven in the Connecticut league.

The new second baseman, McEnaney, had little work out for him, but he showed up well in what he did have.

Nash found himself and put up a fine exhibition behind the bat. He was all over the lot after fouls, and he got them, too.

"If you don't shut up, you'll take the bench," said Umpire Shea to Mr. Kennedy, Rutland's second baseman. Kennedy shut up.

Some mighty close and interesting games are being played in the Northern league this season, probably the best ever seen in the state.

The Intercity's next league game is with Plattsburg at that place, and an attempt will be made to square that fifteen-inning tie with the tail-enders.

Rutland's loss of yesterday's game and St. Albans victory over Plattsburg sent the Marble City team to third place, while St. Albans takes her place.

The enlarged grandstand might be enlarged again and still not accommodate all the crowd. It was packed to the limit, while the bleachers were a sea of faces. A big overflow had to stand up.

The Dusky Giants go up against the Intercity combination on the home grounds this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon, and there promises to be sport a-plenty. The Giants can play ball and their coaching is inimitable.

Three carloads of enthusiasts took the electric cars for the grounds, got as far as Dodge's and the "juice" gave out. The gang hiked for the M. & W. train which was just going down, with maledictions on the electric railroad.

Dorman's catch of that fly was sensational to say the least, and it was fortunate that Dorman was on the spot, as Apperions lost the ball in the sun. When Dorman came to the bat next he was given the glad hand, he responding with a corking single.

Capt. "Jimmie" Morgan held down third base in his usual excellent manner in spite of an injured right hand. The hand was poisoned in some way while he was at Burlington Tuesday. Morgan smashed out a pretty single in the fifth, which brought in two scores.

The visitors' playing was marred by their incessant kicking; they have Plattsburg done to a brown in that department. "Faddy" Duff didn't put up so big a howl, but Coakley was positively fierce. He went at Umpire Shea as if he was going to hit him up, but Shea stood his ground and never wavered in his decisions. Both sides got roared.

Northern League Standing. Barre-Montpelier 10, St. Albans 8, Rutland 6, Burlington 6, Plattsburg 2. Won, Lost, Pct.

BEEF STRIKE AT AN END

Packers and Employes Agree to Arbitration

OPERATIONS RESUMED

The Allied Trades Union is Responsible For the Satisfactory Conclusion of Trouble.

Chicago, July 21.—The strike of the packing house employes, begun nine days ago and which has demoralized the packing industry throughout the country, was settled here last night at a conference between representatives of the packers, the officials of the Meat Cutters' Union and representatives of all the allied trades employed at the stock yards. The whole controversy will be submitted to a board of arbitrators, both sides agreeing to abide by whatever decision this board may reach.

Pending the decision of the arbitration board, the men will be taken back to work as rapidly as possible by the packers, and it is agreed by the packers that all the old employes are to be reinstated within 45 days from the date work is resumed. If any of the former employes are unemployed at the expiration of that time such persons are to have the privilege of submitting their cases to the arbitration board for settlement.

The strikers will return to work as soon as they can be notified of the possible adjustment of the trouble and it is expected that by Friday morning everything will be in normal shape at all the plants in the different cities where the employes were on strike. Half an hour after the decision to arbitrate had been reached to-night, M. J. Donnelly, the strike leader, had secured communication by long distance telephone with the leaders of the strikers in outside cities and had notified them that a satisfactory settlement had been reached and directed the strikers to return to work as soon as possible.

The settlement of the difficulty by arbitration was brought about by the allied crafts at the stockyards who would have become involved in the controversy had it continued much longer.

CLOSE CALL FOR BARRE PEOPLE.

Sailing Party at Old Orchard Beach Went on Some Rocks.

A sailing party of seventeen people in which Mrs. Emory Smith and W. E. Hawkins of this city were members, with several from Morrisville and others from Massachusetts, had a narrow escape from drowning at Old Orchard Beach Monday, and all who were concerned, including the crew of the boat, are congratulating themselves. The boat was a two-master and run by Capt. Atwood. Everything went well until the return trip when the boat went on the rocks off Monument Island. The boat keeled over on her side and the passengers were hurled into the side of the boat. They were clinging for their lives when the boat lurched the other way and threw them against the other side. An unsuccessful attempt was made to get the boat off the rocks and then it was found that she was leaking. Everyone on board "expected to go down to a watery grave" as one of the participants said afterwards. There was but one thing left to do and that was to land the passengers two at a time on Monument Island, by means of a small row boat. On the first trip the little boat was nearly capsized and was then dashed on a rock. The boat finally landed and the women and children were put on the island, then the men.

When the passengers were taken off the boat floated off the rocks but began to fill with water. The crew bailed her out enough so that she was pulled up to the beach. The only inhabitant of Monument Island, a fisherman, rowed the party across the channel to Biddeford Pool. Then they walked a distance of a mile and a half to Hill Beach where they took ferry to Camp Ellis and back to Old Orchard by rail. The party got home after being away eleven hours.

The captain sent word to the ladies that he was proud of them and that they were the bravest crew he had ever had out. He also said that it was by all means his worst experience.

C. L. Gates of Morrisville, who was one of the party, is a cousin of Charles H. Campbell of this city.
