PREMISES FOR DUELISTS.

French Establishment Where Differences May Be Settled.

The French are a most ingenious people, but no more extraordinary means of earning a living has ever been proposed than that by the gentleman who dreams of becoming the proprietor of a "duellodrome," or an establishment where fine outing Frenchmen may find every facility for regulating their affairs of honor, says a Paris cable dispatch to the New York American and Journal.

Of recent years one place after another has become the fashion for meetings of this kind—the He de la Grande Jatte, the Longchamp race course, the Saint Owen race course and the cycle track at the Parc des Princes. But these places have none of the conveniences that this ultra modern philanthropist proposes to put at the disposal of his countrymen. The "duellodrome" would supply the most up to date and perfect weapons, firearms and cold steel. There would be rooms for duels with pistols and others for meetings with swords. A doctor would be attached to the establishment and hat and bandages kept on hand.

The proprietor proposes of course to have a gallery running round the fighting rooms for the convenience of friends desirous of acting as spectators of the prowess of the combatants. There are also to be baths and massage rooms, whence the duellists can get their muscular system ready for the demands made on it, or repose after the heats of the combat.

IT IS SERIOUS.

Some Barre People Fall To Realize This Seriousness.

The constant aching of a bad back. The weariness, the tired feeling. The pains and aches of kidney ailments—Are serious—if neglected.

Dangerous urinary troubles follow. A Barre citizen shows you how to avoid them.

C. Milne (retired), address 35 Branch St., says: "When I first noticed a dull aching in the small of my back, about three years ago I did not pay much attention to it, although very often the twinges radiated to the shoulders. But by and by, when I noticed it every morning when getting up after an hour or so, and when in the evening I sat down to read a newspaper I found that the dull chronic aching kept up the aggravation, then I became anxious about my condition, for I knew there was some disturbed action of the kidneys. I was often so nervous from the irksome aching that I was compelled to get up and walk around the rooms so as to keep the twinges radiated under subjection. When suffering very acutely I happened to read about Doan's Kidney Pills and I was induced from the advertisement to go to E. A. Brown's drug store for a box. After a few days' treatment I noticed a decided improvement and a continuation of the use of the pills completely stopped the annoying attack. Since then I have not noticed any symptoms of a recurrence."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
