Segels & Brady offer in their children's shoe department about 100 pairs of boys', misses', and children's shoes for school, for play and for dress in a large assortment of styles and leathers, all made up for the fall and winter trade, but as this is a lot that was delayed in transit for about a week, and as we have just received them this week, which we believe is a little late for them now, we offer the same on sale for a Saturday leader, to make a quick disposal of the same, at from 15, 20, 25, and up to 40c discount on a pair from their regular retail price. If you wish to save a little money on shoes for the children, do not fail to see the above goods Saturday before buying elsewhere.

Keith's Theatre.

Every theatre-goer who had the pleasure of witnessing the screamingly funny burlesque sketch "From Zaza to 'Uncle Tom'" which was given its initial production at Keith's Boston Theatre early in the past summer, will welcome the information that a return engagement is to be played by Will H. Murphy and Blandie Nichols, and their supporting company the week of Nov. 14. It is worthy of note, perhaps, that Keith's still continues to be "one of the sights of the city" for visitors to Boston.

Salt Water Cure For St. Vitus Dance.

There is rejoicing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Paul of Honston, Tex., and physicians are marveling over the cure effected in the case of Katie Paul, who had been afflicted with St. Vitus dance, says a Houston dispatch. The child was taken to Galveston and was required to take one bath a day in the gulf, being wheeled into the water in her chair against her will. At the end of a month of daily surf bathing she was brought back to her home completely well.

America is to manufacture typewriters for Syria, the machines being fitted with a new alphabet of fifty characters, which was arranged recently by Selim Haddad, a Syrian artist and inventor. The actual Syrian alphabet contains 430 characters.

A Hint For Health.

Physicians now say that those who sleep with their mouths closed have the best health. If you awake in the night, says the Kansas City Journal, and find your mouth open, get up and close it.

SIRE AND SONS.

Thomas A. Edison is not sociable in his habits, but he likes to entertain scientific men.

Austin K. Jones, the bell ringer at Harvard, is seventy-five years of age and has rung Harvard's bell for forty-seven years.

Dr. Chrysanter, formerly private secretary to the great Blamarch, is a patient in a lunatic asylum at Hamburg. He suffers from fits of nervousness.

Henry W. Chadwick, the "father of baseball," is eighty years old, but his writings would not indicate it. He still is keenly interested in the national game.

The United States senate will have among its members at the next session five former cabinet officers, Senators Knox, Teller, Alger, Proctor and Elikins.

Senator Scott of West Virginia will take part in no more national campaigns. All his old political associates on the Republican national committee are now dead.

William B. Bate, United States senator from Tennessee, is now the ranking Confederate general officer in congress. He is seventy-eight and says that he has never accepted a railroad pass, franked a telegram or asked for a job for a relative.

Colonel "Pick" Jones, who was a roommate of Edgar Allan Poe at West Point, died in Austin, Tex., the other day. He was ninety years old and was an intimate friend of Davy Crockett, General Sam Houston and many other noted men of early days.

Because of a deadly fear of earthquakes Cipriano Castro, the president of Venezuela, lives in a house built entirely of steel. The outside is covered with a kind of soft stone and the inside with lath and plaster, so that the visitor sees nothing unusual.

Henry M. Flagler, the Standard Oil man, although nearly seventy years old, has become a victim of the automobile fever. Until a short time ago he declared that he would not have one of the machines about his place, but now his favorite amusement is to go touring about in a monster red car.

Where Peculation is Etiquette.

Peculation is the etiquette in Russia, says the London Chronicle. They are building just off the Newaki Prospect in St. Petersburg a memorial church on the spot where Alexander II. was assassinated. It cannot get finished. The present writer has seen it at intervals of years, knowing that several hundreds of thousands of rubles are yearly devoted to its completion. No progress is visible. Year after year the scaffolding is as before. On the last occasion he inquired from his companion, a Cossack officer of the guards. The officer smiled and explained that the funds passed through the hands of a grand duke, an uncle of the present czar, who drove down now and then to see how things were going, but—the officer shrugged his shoulders and laughed. Just what a grand duke would do, was the implication.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores Of Barre Readers Are Learning The Duty Of The Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary trouble, diabetes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Barre people endorse our claim.

Veteran Geo. W. Hunt (retired), Miles Block, says: "When I went to E. A. Drown's drug store in the winter of 1897, for Doan's Kidney Pills I had been subject to attacks of dragging, heavy pains in the small of my back, extending downwards. They were particularly in evidence after a hard day's work or if I exerted myself in any way. Many a night Mrs. Hunt has rubbed my back with liniments and applied hot water for the slight ease those makeshifts afforded. I was so pleased at the results I received from the almost constant pain that when Doan's Kidney Pills stopped it I endorsed them publicly. I have had no reason to alter my opinion in the interim. I can add to my own experience that of others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills and are just as enthusiastic about the benefit received as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
