PASTOR COMPOSED HYMN.

Rev. F. A. Poole Wrote One Suited to His Sunday Evening Theme.

At the Congregational church Sunday evening the pastor, the Rev. Francis A. Poole preached a sermon on "Do Unto Others as You Would That They Should Do Unto You." Not being able to find a hymn which was just suited to the theme of his discourse, the Rev. Mr. Poole wrote the following, which was sung by the choir to the tune of "Just As I Am, Without One Plea."

MY FELLOW MAN.

When I survey my fellow man,
The brother who is dear to God,
My thought shall be to raise the ban
Which keeps him down in sin's dark ward.

Be it not mine to criticize;
No censure may I meanly speak;
But point him on where virtue lies—
Glad of the chance to serve the weak.

Not by reproach will he leave the path
Which for the child of God is wrong;
Courage he needs, not threats of wrath;
Some one to teach him faith's sweet song.

Mine be to cheer, and not reprove!
Mine to inspire and sympathize!
He that gives hope, a friend will prove;
Not blame, but help, is nobly wise.

As unto us we like men do,
So unto them our actions be;
It was the Lord who counselled so;
His Golden Rule the law for me!

"FOUND"

Odd Notice in Prominent Southern Paper of Interest to Barre Residents.

One of the best known newspapers in the South is the "Guide" of Dunn, N. C. Its publisher, J. P. Pitman, sends us the following clipping, with request to publish:

"Found.—By the editor of the 'Guide,' a bottle of Hyomei, the wonderful treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing. We can speak in highest praise of its remarkable power to cure and relieve catarrh of the head and throat. This mention is made not as an advertisement, but in the interest of those who suffer the torture of that terrible disease, catarrh."

In sending the clipping, Mr. Pitman wrote the following letter:

"I enclose a little piece from my paper, issued today. You will see from this that I desire to push the selling of Hyomei as far as possible. I am using it in my own family, and find that it gives the desired relief, so that I take pleasure in spreading far and near the knowledge of this sure relief for catarrh."

The Red Cross Pharmacy, in preparation for the catarrhal troubles of this season of the year, have ordered a large stock of Hyomei, and sell it under guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. The complete outfit costs but $1, and extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents. Ask Rickert & Wells to show you the strong guarantee under which they sell it. This remarkable remedy medicates the air you breathe, soothing and healing the mucous membrane of the air passages and making a complete cure of the worst case of catarrh.
