The Daylight Store

Prepare Now For the Bright Spring Days.

Thinking of buying flower seeds now, so as to have your garden blooming when the warm days come? Have you thought of buying Wash Goods, to have your child or yourself ready with a new dress when nature smiles again? We have all of the latest creations in Wash Goods—many kinds that are not to be found elsewhere.

WASH GOODS.

For three seasons we have made our Wash Goods Department one of the largest in the state.

We have been having a run on Gingham that will last another week.

Ginghams that were 9c and 10c, in fancy plaids, now 7c per yard. Just the price of apron Ginghams.

Ginghams that equal the best 12 1/2c Ginghams, in new and very select designs, now 10c per yard.

WASH GOODS.

New 36 inch Percalines in dark or light colors, for children's waists, dresses and ladies' aprons—cheaper, width considered, than common print—now 8c per yard.

Very best 36-inch Windsor Percalines in all of the new designs, also the fast selling Polka Dots and Stripes, now 12 1/2c per yard.

Satines were never in such demand. Ours are the Mercerized Satines. Now 15c per yard.

WASH GOODS.

In White Wash Goods is where you get deceived. It's hard for you to tell the difference of two or three cents. It's here that we take the best of care to give you what you pay for.

Indian Linons are of the Organdy family, being a little closer in weave, making them more suitable for dresses that require lots of washing. Prices, 8c, 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c and 35c. (Prices below 12 1/2c are not desirable cloths. For 12 1/2c we are selling the 15c grade.)

The Latest is the Pino Crepe Cloth, the Prettiest Shown So Far, at 35c Per Yard.
