

NOTABLE SALE OF FINE MUSLINS

Through the failure of a big manufacturing concern we were able to secure a part of a big lot of Muslins that had to be sold at once. These are 27 inches wide and come in nearly every shading and combination.

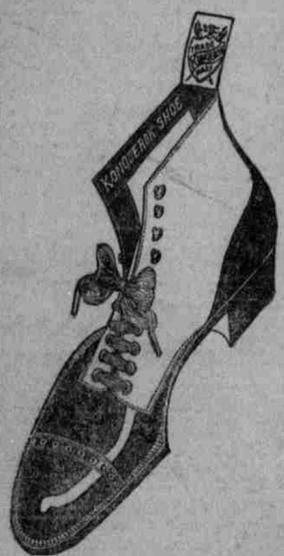

These include many dainty effects, choice for afternoon and evening gowns and for the children. It is a special gratification to offer such a desirable lot of seasonable Wash Fabrics just at the opening of the season. While it is of little profit to us the intrinsic value will be to much advantage to our customers.

None of these were ever expected to retail below 25c per yard. Our price will be 17c Per Yard.

Wherever this advertisement reaches you have the advantage from it by writing for samples. Kindly note these goods are three-quarters of a yard wide and twelve yards will make a dress pattern.

Clara Turner in Cozy Corners.

The "Democrat" of Dover, has the following words of praise regarding the attraction which shall appear for a week's engagement at the Barre opera house beginning tonight.

"Wise and Clara Turner and her excellent company, under the direction of Ira W. Jackson, presented 'At Cozy Corners' at the opera house last evening to a large audience. It was the verdict of those who witnessed the performance that it was the best repertoire company that has appeared here this season. It was in 'Cozy Corners' that Adelaide Thurston scored a big success, but her success was no greater than was Miss Turner's last evening. The little actress was at her best and she made a great hit with her careful conception of the character of Avis Merrill, the young violinist. Every detail was carried out to perfection and the stage setting was fine. The supporting company is a good one, all deserve mention, but particular was Gilmore Hammond as Clyde Hollister, and Walter Downs as Deacon Pettibone, Manry Gower as the minister's servant. She was it about all the time and kept her audience in a merry mood. The specialties between the acts are of a high class.

Miss Turner is surrounded by the best acting company that has been seen here for a long time.

Cozy Corners will be presented tonight as the opening bill.
