"The Village Green" held forth at the Strong theatre Saturday afternoon and evening, says the Burlington News. The play is the work of William W. Lapoint of Barre. It is a melodrama written along conventional lines and contains the many characters familiar to theatre goers. Villainy triumphs at first, but virtue gets its reward, the heavy man receiving all that is coming to him, and the hero gets the heroine. It is full of thrills and heroics. Two fair sized audiences witnessed the production.

The musical association is making a great effort to wipe out its debt, which is at the low point of $40. The public have been long-suffering and kind. We ask the liberal patronage of its music lovers to one more entertainment which the management feels sure will please the most critical. That is the recital given by Dr. Ion Jackson, tenor, and Dion Kennedy, pianist, of New York City. Dr. Jackson has been here on three different occasions and needs no further comment. Tickets 35, 50 cents. May 26th.

We're Expecting You IN FOR A LOOK.

MR. MAN:—You must be nearly pestered to death with the flaring newspaper "ads" urging you to go to one place or another to spend your Clothes money. We want you, too, but are not going to shriek in your ear that we are the "one and only." All this "ad" is for is to let you know that we're after your trade. You're foxy enough to buy of the store that will do the best for you. We want a chance to show you and will leave the rest to you. After you've been here, you'll be glad you came. Come and see—that's the test.
