

FIERCE FIGHT IN NEW YORK

Negros, Jeering Police, Caused a Riot.

EARLY THIS MORNING

Several People Injured, Including a Policeman With a Battered Skull-- Twenty Arrests Were Made.

New York, July 18.--Negroes precipitated a street conflict with the police early this morning in the San Juan district on the west side and before the rioters were subdued four men were wounded and twenty persons were arrested. More than two hundred shots were fired during the fighting.

MILLIONAIRE WEDS.

G. Phelps Stokes Takes Young Jewess as His Bride. Stamford, Conn., July 18.--The marriage of G. Phelps Stokes to Miss Rele Harriet Pastor, the young heiress, took place at Noroton at noon today.

PROTECTION OF GIRLS.

Twelve European Nations Enter Into a Treaty With This in View.

Berlin, July 18.--The Reichsanzeiger publishes the details of the treaty entered into between twelve European countries, which having been duly ratified, goes into effect today.

SIX LIVES LOST IN A HOTEL FIRE

There May Be Other Bodies in the Ruins of a Wabasha, Minnesota, Building Destroyed This Morning. Wabasha, Minn., July 18.--The Depot hotel was burned this morning, and six persons were burned to death.

TO BRING SCHIDLOFSKA BACK.

Officers Will Be Sent to Colorado to Get Wife-laver. Boston, July 18.--Chief Joseph E. Shaw of the Massachusetts district police yesterday said he had received a telegram from Sheriff Barr, dated at La Junta, Colo., informing him officially that John Schidlofska was arrested by the sheriff.

TURNING CONVICTS LOOSE.

German Paper Says Japanese Are Doing It in Siberia. Berlin, July 18.--Sehische Zeitung says that the Japanese have released all convicts on the island of Saghalien, ordinary criminals being shipped to the mainland, where they were turned loose in Siberia after being provided with provisions.

ICEMEN ON STRIKE.

1,000 Went Out on Hottest Day of the Season. New York, July 18.--A thousand ice haulers employed by the American Ice Co. are on strike today for higher wages and shorter hours.

ELOPEMENT BY AUTOMOBILE.

Bennington Young People Do the Stunt in Up-to-date Way.

Bennington, July 18.--Residents of this place were greatly surprised to learn that Miss Irene Graves, the 18 year old daughter of F. O. Graves, banker, was married Sunday to Forest L. Jepson, who now lives in Schenectady, N. Y., also 18 years of age. Jepson comes of a good family, his father being supervisor of the knitting mill in Schenectady and a former resident here.

M. S. STONE GETS PLACE

State Superintendent of Education.

SUCCEEDS W. E. RANGER AT TWO THIS AFTERNOON. Held the Office Previous to the Appointment of Mr. Ranger, Going to the Philippines for a Time.

W. L. BURNAP'S FUNERAL.

Held This Afternoon in Burlington--Attended by Large Number.

Burlington, July 18.--The funeral of Hon. Wilder L. Burnap was held this afternoon at the College street Congregational church, with an attendance which taxed the capacity of the edifice. The mourners included the members of the Chittenden county bar in a body, members of the Algonquin club, Washington Lodge, F. and A. M., prominent business and professional men, relatives and friends.

W. H. HILLIARD, BROKE THE RECORD

With 60-Horse Power Napier Car Made Ascent This Morning in a Fraction Less Than 21 Minutes.

Mount Washington, White Mountains, July 18.--William H. Hilliard of Boston, in a 60-horse power Napier car, established a new world's record for climbing to the summit of the mountain this morning, making the distance in 20 minutes and 58 and two-fifths seconds. This lowers the record held by Harry Harkness of New York by four minutes.

WE'LL SIZZLE FOR TWO DAYS

Hot Wave Sends Local Thermometers to 92.

Weather Bureau at Washington, D. C., Promises No Relief--At 9 O'clock New York Street Thermometers Registered 90.

DEATHS IN BOSTON.

Heat Wave Is Making Sad Havoc in City.

Boston, July 18.--After two days of welcomed respite from excessive summer weather, Boston yesterday was again attacked by a heated wave and several persons succumbed to the power of the direct rays of the sun.

ARE INVESTIGATING WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Edward J. Camorell of Fletcher Died Under Rather Peculiar Circumstances Short Time Ago.

St. Albans, July 18.--State's Attorney W. R. Austin is investigating the death of Mrs. Edward J. Camorell, who died at Fletcher suddenly on July 6. The woman was buried the following day hurriedly, and it is said that the husband objected to the holding of an autopsy. Citizens of Fletcher looked into the case, and finally brought it to the attention of the state's attorney.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

William Gabriel, Randolph Man, Is at St. Albans Hospital.

St. Albans, July 18.--William Gabriel of Randolph, a travelling salesman, was stricken with apoplexy at the Park View hotel this morning, and was taken to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. His wife is with him. Mr. Gabriel travels for a Boston firm, and has been on the road for the past 25 years.

W. L. BURNAP'S FUNERAL.

Held This Afternoon in Burlington--Attended by Large Number.

Burlington, July 18.--The funeral of Hon. Wilder L. Burnap was held this afternoon at the College street Congregational church, with an attendance which taxed the capacity of the edifice. The mourners included the members of the Chittenden county bar in a body, members of the Algonquin club, Washington Lodge, F. and A. M., prominent business and professional men, relatives and friends.

DR. E. A. SMITH DEAD.

Once a Well Known Physician--A Large Property Owner in Brandon.

Brandon, July 18.--Dr. Ezra A. Smith, a prominent citizen of this town, died yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at his home on Carver street, after a long and painful illness from a complication of diseases. Dr. Smith was 66 years of age and for several years had a large practice in this and other states.

PLUCKY WOMAN FIRED.

When Burglar Demanded Her Watch and Money.

Bellows Falls, July 18.--A bullet fired from a revolver by Miss Abby Whitcomb came near ending the career of an unknown man, who entered her room in Saxton's River Sunday night. Miss Whitcomb, who was alone in the house, was awakened about midnight by a sound in the room. Opening her eyes, a man stood by the bedside, who roughly demanded her watch and money.

MAN JUMPED FROM TRAIN.

Did Not Want to Enter Northfield--No Trace of Him Found.

Northfield, July 18.--The people of this town are mystified over the disappearance of a man who jumped from the Central Vermont train from the north on Sunday night about a half a mile from the town toward Gouldsville. The conductor of the train says the man was sleeping in the smoker and got up suddenly and rushed out, jumping off the train. When the train arrived in Northfield he gave the alarm, and Chief of Police Hutchinson with a party of fifteen or twenty, went in search of the man, but could find no trace of him anywhere.

NO PROSPECT OF RELIEF.

Weather Bureau Says It Will Be Hot for Several Days.

Washington, July 18.--The weather bureau last night announced that there was no prospect for several days at least of a letup of the extreme heat, which has extended over the country for the last few days. The entire country, from the Mississippi valley eastward to southern New England and the Florida coast, is in the midst of a well marked midsummer hot spell.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

ARE INVESTIGATING WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Edward J. Camorell of Fletcher Died Under Rather Peculiar Circumstances Short Time Ago.

St. Albans, July 18.--State's Attorney W. R. Austin is investigating the death of Mrs. Edward J. Camorell, who died at Fletcher suddenly on July 6. The woman was buried the following day hurriedly, and it is said that the husband objected to the holding of an autopsy. Citizens of Fletcher looked into the case, and finally brought it to the attention of the state's attorney.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

William Gabriel, Randolph Man, Is at St. Albans Hospital.

St. Albans, July 18.--William Gabriel of Randolph, a travelling salesman, was stricken with apoplexy at the Park View hotel this morning, and was taken to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. His wife is with him. Mr. Gabriel travels for a Boston firm, and has been on the road for the past 25 years.

W. L. BURNAP'S FUNERAL.

Held This Afternoon in Burlington--Attended by Large Number.

Burlington, July 18.--The funeral of Hon. Wilder L. Burnap was held this afternoon at the College street Congregational church, with an attendance which taxed the capacity of the edifice. The mourners included the members of the Chittenden county bar in a body, members of the Algonquin club, Washington Lodge, F. and A. M., prominent business and professional men, relatives and friends.

DR. E. A. SMITH DEAD.

Once a Well Known Physician--A Large Property Owner in Brandon.

Brandon, July 18.--Dr. Ezra A. Smith, a prominent citizen of this town, died yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at his home on Carver street, after a long and painful illness from a complication of diseases. Dr. Smith was 66 years of age and for several years had a large practice in this and other states.

PLUCKY WOMAN FIRED.

When Burglar Demanded Her Watch and Money.

Bellows Falls, July 18.--A bullet fired from a revolver by Miss Abby Whitcomb came near ending the career of an unknown man, who entered her room in Saxton's River Sunday night. Miss Whitcomb, who was alone in the house, was awakened about midnight by a sound in the room. Opening her eyes, a man stood by the bedside, who roughly demanded her watch and money.

MAN JUMPED FROM TRAIN.

Did Not Want to Enter Northfield--No Trace of Him Found.

Northfield, July 18.--The people of this town are mystified over the disappearance of a man who jumped from the Central Vermont train from the north on Sunday night about a half a mile from the town toward Gouldsville. The conductor of the train says the man was sleeping in the smoker and got up suddenly and rushed out, jumping off the train. When the train arrived in Northfield he gave the alarm, and Chief of Police Hutchinson with a party of fifteen or twenty, went in search of the man, but could find no trace of him anywhere.

NO PROSPECT OF RELIEF.

Weather Bureau Says It Will Be Hot for Several Days.

Washington, July 18.--The weather bureau last night announced that there was no prospect for several days at least of a letup of the extreme heat, which has extended over the country for the last few days. The entire country, from the Mississippi valley eastward to southern New England and the Florida coast, is in the midst of a well marked midsummer hot spell.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

ARE INVESTIGATING WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Edward J. Camorell of Fletcher Died Under Rather Peculiar Circumstances Short Time Ago.

St. Albans, July 18.--State's Attorney W. R. Austin is investigating the death of Mrs. Edward J. Camorell, who died at Fletcher suddenly on July 6. The woman was buried the following day hurriedly, and it is said that the husband objected to the holding of an autopsy. Citizens of Fletcher looked into the case, and finally brought it to the attention of the state's attorney.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

William Gabriel, Randolph Man, Is at St. Albans Hospital.

St. Albans, July 18.--William Gabriel of Randolph, a travelling salesman, was stricken with apoplexy at the Park View hotel this morning, and was taken to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. His wife is with him. Mr. Gabriel travels for a Boston firm, and has been on the road for the past 25 years.

W. L. BURNAP'S FUNERAL.

Held This Afternoon in Burlington--Attended by Large Number.

Burlington, July 18.--The funeral of Hon. Wilder L. Burnap was held this afternoon at the College street Congregational church, with an attendance which taxed the capacity of the edifice. The mourners included the members of the Chittenden county bar in a body, members of the Algonquin club, Washington Lodge, F. and A. M., prominent business and professional men, relatives and friends.

DR. E. A. SMITH DEAD.

Once a Well Known Physician--A Large Property Owner in Brandon.

Brandon, July 18.--Dr. Ezra A. Smith, a prominent citizen of this town, died yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at his home on Carver street, after a long and painful illness from a complication of diseases. Dr. Smith was 66 years of age and for several years had a large practice in this and other states.

PLUCKY WOMAN FIRED.

When Burglar Demanded Her Watch and Money.

Bellows Falls, July 18.--A bullet fired from a revolver by Miss Abby Whitcomb came near ending the career of an unknown man, who entered her room in Saxton's River Sunday night. Miss Whitcomb, who was alone in the house, was awakened about midnight by a sound in the room. Opening her eyes, a man stood by the bedside, who roughly demanded her watch and money.

MAN JUMPED FROM TRAIN.

Did Not Want to Enter Northfield--No Trace of Him Found.

Northfield, July 18.--The people of this town are mystified over the disappearance of a man who jumped from the Central Vermont train from the north on Sunday night about a half a mile from the town toward Gouldsville. The conductor of the train says the man was sleeping in the smoker and got up suddenly and rushed out, jumping off the train. When the train arrived in Northfield he gave the alarm, and Chief of Police Hutchinson with a party of fifteen or twenty, went in search of the man, but could find no trace of him anywhere.

NO PROSPECT OF RELIEF.

Weather Bureau Says It Will Be Hot for Several Days.

Washington, July 18.--The weather bureau last night announced that there was no prospect for several days at least of a letup of the extreme heat, which has extended over the country for the last few days. The entire country, from the Mississippi valley eastward to southern New England and the Florida coast, is in the midst of a well marked midsummer hot spell.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

ARE INVESTIGATING WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Edward J. Camorell of Fletcher Died Under Rather Peculiar Circumstances Short Time Ago.

St. Albans, July 18.--State's Attorney W. R. Austin is investigating the death of Mrs. Edward J. Camorell, who died at Fletcher suddenly on July 6. The woman was buried the following day hurriedly, and it is said that the husband objected to the holding of an autopsy. Citizens of Fletcher looked into the case, and finally brought it to the attention of the state's attorney.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

William Gabriel, Randolph Man, Is at St. Albans Hospital.

St. Albans, July 18.--William Gabriel of Randolph, a travelling salesman, was stricken with apoplexy at the Park View hotel this morning, and was taken to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. His wife is with him. Mr. Gabriel travels for a Boston firm, and has been on the road for the past 25 years.

W. L. BURNAP'S FUNERAL.

Held This Afternoon in Burlington--Attended by Large Number.

Burlington, July 18.--The funeral of Hon. Wilder L. Burnap was held this afternoon at the College street Congregational church, with an attendance which taxed the capacity of the edifice. The mourners included the members of the Chittenden county bar in a body, members of the Algonquin club, Washington Lodge, F. and A. M., prominent business and professional men, relatives and friends.

DR. E. A. SMITH DEAD.

Once a Well Known Physician--A Large Property Owner in Brandon.

Brandon, July 18.--Dr. Ezra A. Smith, a prominent citizen of this town, died yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at his home on Carver street, after a long and painful illness from a complication of diseases. Dr. Smith was 66 years of age and for several years had a large practice in this and other states.

PLUCKY WOMAN FIRED.

When Burglar Demanded Her Watch and Money.

Bellows Falls, July 18.--A bullet fired from a revolver by Miss Abby Whitcomb came near ending the career of an unknown man, who entered her room in Saxton's River Sunday night. Miss Whitcomb, who was alone in the house, was awakened about midnight by a sound in the room. Opening her eyes, a man stood by the bedside, who roughly demanded her watch and money.

MAN JUMPED FROM TRAIN.

Did Not Want to Enter Northfield--No Trace of Him Found.

Northfield, July 18.--The people of this town are mystified over the disappearance of a man who jumped from the Central Vermont train from the north on Sunday night about a half a mile from the town toward Gouldsville. The conductor of the train says the man was sleeping in the smoker and got up suddenly and rushed out, jumping off the train. When the train arrived in Northfield he gave the alarm, and Chief of Police Hutchinson with a party of fifteen or twenty, went in search of the man, but could find no trace of him anywhere.

NO PROSPECT OF RELIEF.

Weather Bureau Says It Will Be Hot for Several Days.

Washington, July 18.--The weather bureau last night announced that there was no prospect for several days at least of a letup of the extreme heat, which has extended over the country for the last few days. The entire country, from the Mississippi valley eastward to southern New England and the Florida coast, is in the midst of a well marked midsummer hot spell.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

ARE INVESTIGATING WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Edward J. Camorell of Fletcher Died Under Rather Peculiar Circumstances Short Time Ago.

St. Albans, July 18.--State's Attorney W. R. Austin is investigating the death of Mrs. Edward J. Camorell, who died at Fletcher suddenly on July 6. The woman was buried the following day hurriedly, and it is said that the husband objected to the holding of an autopsy. Citizens of Fletcher looked into the case, and finally brought it to the attention of the state's attorney.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

William Gabriel, Randolph Man, Is at St. Albans Hospital.

St. Albans, July 18.--William Gabriel of Randolph, a travelling salesman, was stricken with apoplexy at the Park View hotel this morning, and was taken to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. His wife is with him. Mr. Gabriel travels for a Boston firm, and has been on the road for the past 25 years.

EDDIE BURNS IN HOSPITAL

Popular Intercity Base Ball Pitcher Ill.

TYPHOID FEVER FEARED

Was Taken Suddenly Ill at Rutland Yesterday But Insisted on Coming Home With the Team.

Eddie Burns, the Intercity base ball pitcher, is in the Heaton hospital at Montpelier threatened with typhoid fever, although the physicians hope to ward off the disease. Burns played with the team at Rutland yesterday afternoon, being in right field. After the game he was taken suddenly ill, and was examined by a Rutland physician, who found that he stood in the way of having a run of fever.

DR. E. A. SMITH DEAD.

Once a Well Known Physician--A Large Property Owner in Brandon.

Brandon, July 18.--Dr. Ezra A. Smith, a prominent citizen of this town, died yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at his home on Carver street, after a long and painful illness from a complication of diseases. Dr. Smith was 66 years of age and for several years had a large practice in this and other states.

PLUCKY WOMAN FIRED.

When Burglar Demanded Her Watch and Money.

Bellows Falls, July 18.--A bullet fired from a revolver by Miss Abby Whitcomb came near ending the career of an unknown man, who entered her room in Saxton's River Sunday night. Miss Whitcomb, who was alone in the house, was awakened about midnight by a sound in the room. Opening her eyes, a man stood by the bedside, who roughly demanded her watch and money.

MAN JUMPED FROM TRAIN.

Did Not Want to Enter Northfield--No Trace of Him Found.

Northfield, July 18.--The people of this town are mystified over the disappearance of a man who jumped from the Central Vermont train from the north on Sunday night about a half a mile from the town toward Gouldsville. The conductor of the train says the man was sleeping in the smoker and got up suddenly and rushed out, jumping off the train. When the train arrived in Northfield he gave the alarm, and Chief of Police Hutchinson with a party of fifteen or twenty, went in search of the man, but could find no trace of him anywhere.

NO PROSPECT OF RELIEF.

Weather Bureau Says It Will Be Hot for Several Days.

Washington, July 18.--The weather bureau last night announced that there was no prospect for several days at least of a letup of the extreme heat, which has extended over the country for the last few days. The entire country, from the Mississippi valley eastward to southern New England and the Florida coast, is in the midst of a well marked midsummer hot spell.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

ARE INVESTIGATING WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Edward J. Camorell of Fletcher Died Under Rather Peculiar Circumstances Short Time Ago.

St. Albans, July 18.--State's Attorney W. R. Austin is investigating the death of Mrs. Edward J. Camorell, who died at Fletcher suddenly on July 6. The woman was buried the following day hurriedly, and it is said that the husband objected to the holding of an autopsy. Citizens of Fletcher looked into the case, and finally brought it to the attention of the state's attorney.

ASSAULTED KEEPER.

Desperate Act of Connecticut Convict Sentenced for Manslaughter.

Hartford, Conn., July 18.--George Clumbo, a life convict in the state prison at Weathersfield, committed a desperate assault yesterday afternoon on a keeper, Walter Carter, with a knife which he had secured in the workshop. Clumbo attacked the keeper just as Carter was locking a door behind the prisoners after dinner was over.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

William Gabriel, Randolph Man, Is at St. Albans Hospital.

St. Albans, July 18.--William Gabriel of Randolph, a travelling salesman, was stricken with apoplexy at the Park View hotel this morning, and was taken to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. His wife is with him. Mr. Gabriel travels for a Boston firm, and has been on the road for the past 25 years.

GETTING ALONG WELL.