Wise Puma! President Roosevelt's declaration that "the puma is a coward" was doubtless based on the president's personal experience. SOUTH RYEGATE.

Fred Thorp of Lisbon, N. H., was in town last Friday in the interest of Parker & Young Co.

Chas. Mills and wife, and child of Boston were guests in town the past week, visiting his mother.

Robert Farquharson is in New York city, a delegate to Royal Clan convention from Clan Farquharson, No. 8, of this place.

Will Terry struck out Monday for a flying trip to the mountains to see a few of his old customers and friends and tell them of the best kind of stoves, ranges, and sewing machines in the market.

The Parker & Young Co. of Lisbon, N. H., have sent their contractor and his help up to the Lane Kiln district in Newbury to commence operations on their three or four timber lots. A Mr. Philbrook has the job of saving and piling all the lumber on these lots which are located on the places formerly owned by Thos. Kason, David Lumsden, the Lyman-Bateleider lot and some recently bought of Horace E. Brown. Mr. Philbrook seems to be a hustler and has a good clean looking crew of men and we expect before snow flies he will have a million of timber stacked up. This lumber will all be shipped from this station to Lisbon and other points as ordered by the Parker & Young Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Berlin are visiting Mrs. S. Mills, Jr.; Smith of Hartford, Conn., at Wm. Terry's, also Mrs. Emma Richards of Hartford, Conn.; at Arel Anderson's, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Salesten and two children of Quincy, Mass.; at Albert Wrights, Mr. and Mrs. Sommers, wife and child of Peacham; at H. Samuelson's, Mrs. Johnson and three children of Quincy, Mass.; at Chas. Eliason's, Mrs. Eliason's sister and five children of Quincy, Mass.; at John A. Fraser's, Mrs. James Fraser of Concord, N. H.; at Mr. E. G. Lind's, a lady from New York; at C. M. Libby's, Miss Goodale of Cabot; at F. J. Tewksbury's, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tewksbury and son of Kansas; at Robert Farquharson's, Mrs. Kerr and four sons from Boston; at John Morrison's, Ernest McCall of New York City.

Hall's pond is the one place above all others in Newbury for summer outings and reunions. On Wednesday of last week your correspondent was privileged to visit this place and found about 150 people there enjoying life. Among others there we found very nicely situated a reunion of the Rollins family. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rollins of Newbury having hired the Wheelock cottage for ten days they were entertaining all of their children and grand children that could possibly get there, and to say the least they were a hearty, jolly, good looking crowd. They represented various states in the Union and in the party were: Mrs. Mary Cobb and son of Woodsville, N. H., Mrs. Arthur Sinclair of Montpelier, Mrs. L. C. Renfrew and three daughters, Littleton, N. H., Mrs. Bacon of Kansas City, the above ladies being daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Rollins; Miss Gladie Darling, Woodsville, N. H., a grand daughter; Mrs. Emma Richards, Hartford, Conn., niece; Mrs. H. E. Wilkins, Tilton, N. H., a niece, and Mrs. William Terry, South Ryegate, a niece. E. A. Rollins, a son, and family of Manchester, Conn., were expected to be present on Thursday. Henry Rollins is a native of Newbury and is the only living member of his father's nine children, and is doing all he can to make things bright and cheerful for the rising generation of Rollins and their descendants. Such gatherings as these are always productive of much good and should be oftener called together.

The Boy's Predicament. One of our readers whose veracity is above question, tell us the following: The terrible news comes from the western part of the Cherokee nation that a boy climbed a cornstalk to see how the corn was getting along, and now the stalk is growing up faster than the boy can climb down. The boy is clear out of sight. Three men have undertaken to cut the stalk down with axes and save the boy from starvation, but it grows so fast that they can't hack twice in the same place. The boy is living on nothing but raw corn, and already has thrown down four bushels of cobs.—Checotah (I. T.) Times.

WORTH A THOUGHT.

This Statement Will Interest Scores of Barre Readers.

The facts given below are worth a perusal by all who are anxious about their physical condition or are similarly situated to this resident of Orange. It is a local occurrence and can be thoroughly investigated.

Mrs. A. M. Andrews (A. M. Andrews, farmer), residence, Orange, says: "Some two years ago I first noticed pain in my back and hips and as the weeks and months went by it became more severe and were of much longer duration. Finally too frequent action of the kidney secretions was added to the backache, and as they were often distressing and annoying health ran down and I was unable to do the slightest household work with any degree of pleasure. If I was on my feet for any length of time I was taken with dizziness and blurring before my eyes and I often became so weak and nervous that I almost fell. A lady friend in Barre recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and my husband went to E. A. Drown's for the first box. I cannot positively state that the remedy has actually rid me of the cause of the backache and other complications due to kidney complaint, but I must conscientiously say that from the benefit received I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and believe that what is said about them is not misrepresentation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBurg Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

"Mark Twain" Was Responsive. A friend wrote to "Mark Twain" asking his opinion on a certain matter, and received no reply. He waited a few days, and wrote again. His second letter was also ignored. Then he sent a third note, enclosing a sheet of paper and a 2-cent stamp.

By return mail he received a postal card on which was the following: "Paper and stamp received. Please send envelope."—Boston Herald.
