The good ship Vermont takes her initial dip in the brine a week from today. May she be equal to the hopes and expectations of the state, whose name she bears.

COMPETITION MAKES TEMPERANCE CRUSADE.

"A growing understanding of the dangers of even moderate indulgence in 'hard' liquor and an increasing tendency on the part of employers to demand practical abstinence from drink among their employees," is the reason advanced by the New York Sun for the decrease in the consumption of distilled spirits and the increase of the consumption of beer. The Sun goes on in its explanation as follows, and with correctness: "A very large number of the wage earners in America by the terms of their contracts with their employers are bound to abstain from intoxicants, keep out of saloons and lead lives of temperance and sobriety. This number is increasing annually as corporations realize the danger involved in committing important tasks to men with fuddled minds. Competition carries on a crusade of its own, for the drinking man learns that he is not as valuable to his employer as his non-drinking shopmate. When the time comes to lay off a portion of the working force, the total abstainer is not the first to go. His work may be done no better than that of the others, but he is more dependable and thus more valuable to his employer."

A VACATION ON FOOT.

Walking as a vacation does not appeal very strongly to many people, so the information that four persons—one man and three women—are traversing a hundred miles or so through Vermont just for recreation, will be put down as a crazy fad by most people. Yet these people, two of whom are residents of the state, are most enthusiastic over their trip, and state that they intend to pass many more vacations in the same unique manner. They have recently made the ascent of Mount Mansfield and Camel's Hump and have now arrived in Rutland, after an overland trip. Before they get back to the world of stuffy railway cars and equally stuffy people, these pedestrians intend to visit the mountain peaks in the southern part of the state. Strange as this form of vacation may appear to most people, it is yet one of the delightful, as well as one of the most beneficial. The pedestrians have an opportunity of viewing the real beauties of Vermont in the best possible light, while they are at the same time invigorating themselves by a splendid form of exercise. No doubt that the four persons alluded to will finish their month's trip in the best of health and return to their homes refreshed and strengthened. Were more to take the same kind of a vacation there would be more firm converts to pedestrianism as a means of pleasure and physical well-being. There is an exhilaration in walking properly that drives care away and brings health.

HELD FOR ASSAULT.

Clarence Tacy Under $800 Bonds in Montpelier.

Montpelier, Aug. 24.—Clarence Tacy, a granite polisher, aged 40 years, is held under $800 bail for grand jury charged with assault with felonious intent upon his 13 year old niece, Josephine Antonette. The case is one of the most contemptible that has been had tried in this vicinity for some time.

The man was arrested Wednesday evening by Sheriff Tracy. The hearing was in city court this afternoon, Grand Juror Gates prosecuting and J. W. Wing appearing for the state. Bail was fixed at $800 which was not given.

HOW TO DRESS CHILDREN.

This Is No Simple Matter for Persons Whose Purses Are Not Long.

Mothers of large families are among the most frequent contributors to the Household Department of the Boston Daily Globe. Skillful managers, they have some time left from housework, which they generously devote to answering questions sent in by less experienced sisters. Among the subjects they will tell you how to dress your children and save money. Ask them any question you wish.

FIELD DAY OF KNIGHTS.

Uniform Rank Drilled at Burlington Today—A Great Success.

Burlington, Aug. 24.—The annual field day of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, Domain of Vermont, was held in this city today. The occasion was a success from every standpoint and the several drills and the parade participated by the Regiment reflects great credit on this semi-military organization. There are ten companies in the regiment and the organization is patterned closely after the regular army. The uniforms are pretty and the drills were markedly well carried out under the direction of Col. C. M. Brownell of this city and his several aides. The roster of the officers commanding the regiment is as follows: Col. C. M. Brownell, commanding; H. W. Golden, St. Johnsbury, Lieut. Co.; G. W. Grandy, Burlington Adji.; W. P. Conger, Burlington, quartermaster; Rev. S. G. Lewis, Barton Landing, chaplain; Maj. George A. Lepper, commanding First Battalion; Maj. C. M. Willey, Barre Second Battalion; H. W. Wells, Captain company, St. Johnsbury; G. D. Bailey, Captain company, Hardwick; W. L. Davis, Captain company, Rutland; J. G. Hoyt, Captain company, St. Albans; A. H. Bartley, Champlain company, Burlington; N. B. Ballard, Captain company, Barre; H. L. Johnson, Captain company, Bellows Falls; George Knox, Captain company, Groton; F. D. Clement, Captain company, Barton Landing; A. H. Kig, Captain company, Richford. The parade was headed by the 15th cavalry band of Fort Ethan Allen.

The supreme chancellor of the order, Charles E. Chiveley, left for his home in Indiana last night, thoroughly pleased with his reception in Vermont and praising Burlington enthusiastically. Both the Grand Lodge and Uniform Rank meetings have been the most successful of any held in many years. The gain in membership was 192 instead of 92 as reported yesterday.

Election of Officers

The election of officers resulted as follows:

Grand Chancellor, J. T. Remington of Bennington. Grand Vice-Chancellor, Guy W. Bailey of Essex Junction. Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, C. F. O. Tinker of St. Johnsbury. Grand Prelate, R. S. Mitchell of Rutland.

Grand Master of Exchequer, F. W. Booth of Essex Junction. Grand Inner Guard, F. C. Shonyo of Lyndonville. Grand Outer Guard, C. P. Ewins of North Troy.

E. C. Pitkin of Marshfield was elected Grand Trustee for three years.

H. L. Stillson of Bennington was appointed Grand Tribune, to succeed himself and the appointment was confirmed by the grand lodge assembled.

The banquet was held last evening at the Van Ness house, 52 covers being laid.

THREE TIMES AND NOT OUT.

"Happy Jack" Harty's Third Buck Against a Train.

Bellows Falls, August 24.—John Harty of Walpole, N. H., was seriously injured here yesterday noon. He was somewhat under the influence of liquor and mistaking his train boarded the Rutland mail. The train was under full headway when he discovered his error and jumping from the car fell with his left foot on the rail. Three cars passed over it, cutting off the greater portion.

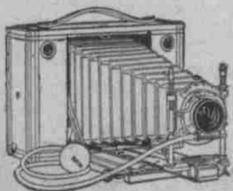

Harty is a well known Walpole character, known as "Happy Jack," and has had a unique railroad experience. Besides being slightly injured by the trains several times, a year ago while walking on the railroad track he was struck by an approaching freight train. The engine hurled him through the air and when picked up he was found to have escaped without the slightest bruise and coolly inquired as to the cause of the trouble.

An Immune.

"Mr. Cadsby never pays the slightest attention to flattery."

"No," answered Miss Cayenne. "It would be impossible to devise any form of flattery that would correspond to his good opinion of himself."—Washington Star.

Have you ever considered the fact that all your food is prepared in the kitchen and that the utensils in which it is prepared depend on the sanitary equipment of the kitchen for their cleanliness? This fact alone should warrant the installation of a thoroughly sanitary kitchen sink. Let us examine the plumbing in your kitchen and if it is defective, tell you the cost of putting in a 'Standard' Porcelain Enameled Sink—the most sanitary fixture made." C. W.
