

GAME ENDS IN DISPUTE

Burlington Awarded Game by Umpire McCloud.

RUTLAND WOULDN'T PLAY

After Dyer Had Been Put Out of the Game After Posturing Against Aligned Interference by Pitcher Wiggs.

Burlington, August 25.—The game between Burlington and Rutland progressed up to and including part of the fourth inning when Umpire McCloud awarded the game to the home team, 9 to 0, because the Rutland team refused to continue the game after McCloud had ordered Dyer from the game and later from the field. Burlington had scored three times, to once for Rutland. There were 1,100 spectators, many of them from Rutland, and the big crowd was naturally perturbed because they were robbed of seeing a game.

The incident happened in the last of the fourth inning. Simon got a base on balls from Ferry and went to second on Page's sacrifice. Wiggs was at the bat, and the Rutland claim is that Wiggs interfered with Kretschel when he attempted to throw to catch Simon who had taken advantage of the fact that the catcher had dropped the ball. Anyway, Kretschel's throw was too late to catch Simon. Dyer, as field captain, immediately ran in and entered a protest against allowing Simon the base. McCloud would not change his decision, and then Dyer became abusive. He was ordered to the bench and then followed a lot more back talk on his part. Umpire McCloud ordered him off the grounds and called for a policeman to put him off, but no policeman responded.

With their field captain out of the game, and believing that they had been robbed, the Rutlanders refused to play. McCloud pulled his watch on them, and as they did not take their places he awarded the game to Burlington, 9 to 0.

Burlington scored three in the second on a pass, an error, a wild pitch, a sacrifice and two hits, with a steal mixed in. Rutland scored once in the third on a single by Carroll and a triple by O'Hara. The score is as follows:

A VOICE FROM THE DEPTHS.

Burlington Newspaper Asks By What, Etc., Etc., Etc.

The race for the Northern league pennant seems hotter than ever, and the pennant winners will probably come out ahead only by a narrow margin. Now suppose that Rutland and Burlington are tied for first place according to the way they are figuring the averages in the marble and capital cities, that is, with two of Burlington's victories lopped off, in such an event Burlington would claim the pennant and justly she would have won two more games than her nearest rival.

WONDERFUL GAME BY ED RUELBACH

Ruelbach pitched a remarkable game for the Chicago Nationals against Philadelphia, at the latter's grounds yesterday afternoon, in a twenty-inning battle with Sparks. Neither team scored until the thirteenth inning when Chicago got one on a triple by Chance and a single by Schulte. For Philadelphia, Thomas singled and went to third when Tinker failed to hold Maloney's throw after a great running catch of a foul by the Chicago right fielder. Then Bransfield singled, and the score came in. During the remainder of the game Ruelbach held them safe. In the twentieth McCarthy singled for Chicago and went to second on Casey's sacrifice and scored on Chance's single.

Ruelbach allowed thirteen hits in the 20 innings, to 19 off Sparks. Yesterday's American League Scores. At Cleveland—1st game, Boston 5, Cleveland 0; 2nd game, Boston 5, Cleveland 6. At St. Louis—St. Louis 2, New York 1. At Detroit—Washington 3, Detroit 0.

F. A. Howland and L. J. Bailey Tied For First Place

IN GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Championship, Which Will Be Played On Tomorrow, Lies Between E. D. Field, C. A. Dodge, L. J. Bailey and Richard Davie.

The annual handicap golf tournament of the Barre Golf club was completed yesterday afternoon, resulting in a tie between Fred A. Howland of Montpelier and L. J. Bailey of this city, and the qualifying and first rounds for the championship of the club were also played off. The lowest gross score of the day was that of Howland who had an 81 for the eighteen holes, thereby entitling him to the trophy offered for the best score card of the day. He played from scratch and Bailey who will play off with him for the handicap cup had a card of 85, four handicap, 81.

First Round for Championship.

In the first round for the championship, L. J. Bailey defeated John Mercer, three up and one to play; C. A. Dodge defeated T. C. Peters, two up and one to play; Richard Davie defeated G. N. Tilden, two up; E. D. Field defeated F. A. Howland, five up and three to play, leaving Bailey, Dodge, Davie and Field for the semi-finals, which will be played Saturday.

The drawing for opponents resulted in Bailey and Field being paired, and Davie and Dodge. The winners of the two matches will meet the same day for the championship round.

WEAVER IS TO RUN?

Boom for Governorship Meets Roosevelt's Approval.

Philadelphia, Aug. 25.—Mayor Weaver's boom for Governor of Pennsylvania is assuming serious proportions. He is considering the question, and it is said has been promised national support.

The mayor's assurances of Washington sympathy came during his trip to Wilkesbarre, where he made a speech against partisanship. During a drive Senator Knox made the suggestion that his honor run for Governor on the regular Republican ticket. Weaver said he doubted if he could be placed, because of the control the old ring still exercises over the convention machinery.

Threat of a Military Demonstration if Sultan Does Not Comply—Cabinet Decides to Break Off Diplomatic Relations With Morocco.

Paris, Aug. 25.—Premier Rouvier has instructed M. Taillandier, the French Minister at Fez, to demand the immediate release of the merchant Bouzian, a French Algerian subject, who was arrested at Gharb, a town in Morocco, on the Algerian frontier, about a week ago. The Minister is instructed to inform the Sultan of Morocco that unless the demand is complied with France will make a military demonstration. The Cabinet has also decided that if the French demands are not complied with the entire French Legation will be withdrawn from Morocco.

Estimates on New York City's Population.

New York, Aug. 25.—The population of New York city will aggregate nearly 4,000,000 according to estimates that have been made from reports of the recent State enumeration taken in that city. Computations on the same basis place the population of the entire State at 7,800,000. The total population of New York city in 1900, when the last Federal census was taken was 3,437,202, and that of the entire State 7,268,915.

FUSION IN NEW YORK.

Republicans Likely to Join the Citizens' Union.

New York, Aug. 25.—Fusion between the Republicans and the Citizens' Union is said by William Halpin, the president of the Republican County Committee, to be probable. Mr. Halpin was asked if he thought there was a likelihood of the Republicans and Citizens' Union getting together on the city and county tickets. He replied: "Why not? Mr. Cutting wants Tammany to be defeated, and so do we. Having a common purpose, I think we ought to be able to arrive at an amicable understanding."
