CONCRETE VS. GRAVEL

Merits of Two for Sidewalks Discussed.

JOHN HENEY NEW FIREMAN

A. M. Smith Resigns Office of School Commissioners—Peddlers Without Licenses to Be Prosecuted—Health Report for August.

Are gravel sidewalks superior to concrete? was a topic that occupied some time of the city council at its monthly meeting last evening. The street committee made a report showing the appropriations of the year to August 1st, and also the expenditures up to that date. These were:

Table with 2 columns: Category, Amount. Streets: Appropriations $7,535.88, Expenditures 6,037.07, Balance August 1st $1,498.81.

Table with 2 columns: Category, Amount. Sewers: Appropriations $2,321.16, Expenditures 1,748.20, Balance August 1st $572.96.

Table with 2 columns: Category, Amount. Sidewalks: Appropriations $1,250.00, Expenditures 1,309.41, Overdrawn to August 1st $149.41.

Table with 2 columns: Category, Amount. Surface Sewers: Appropriations $1,007.25, Expenditures 931.09, Balance August 1st $76.16.

Table with 2 columns: Category, Amount. Bridges and Culverts: Appropriations $575.00, Expenditures 574.06, Balance August 1st $94.

The report further referred to work to be done, mentioning two concrete sidewalks. This caused a discussion between two of the aldermen and the mayor as to which ones had the poorest sidewalk in front of their respective places of residence. Pearl and Dewey street were the two streets on which it was proposed to lay concrete walks, but the mayor did not believe the latter needed the walk.

NOT A COMPLETE REPORT.

Labor Day Address of Rev. F. A. Poole Not Reprinted Verbatim.

Editor of the Times—Dear Sir: Would you do me the favor to state in your paper that the report of my address on Labor Day was only a partial report? I realize the necessity a newspaper has for cutting down the text of speeches and have no complaint on this score. In fact, I do not write in a spirit of complaint. But often, as in this instance, the meaning of the parts which appear is much modified, and in some places destroyed, because of the parts omitted. And on a subject of importance and possible misunderstanding, I dislike to have the public think that the entire address with its continuity of thought has been reported. The verbal mistakes which appear are due, I am sure, not to the errors of the compositor, but to my own execrable penmanship. Thanking you, I am, sincerely yours, FRANCIS A. POOLE.
