

COLLISION KILLS THREE

Excursion Train on Western New York & Pa. Road.

SCORE WERE INJURED

Wreck Occurred Near New Wilmington, Pa., Today, Trainmen Being Killed and Passengers Wounded.

Newcastle, Pa., Sept. 7.—An excursion train, loaded with passengers en route to the fair at Stenoboro, and a regular passenger train collided on the Western New York & Pennsylvania railway, at New Wilmington, ten miles from here today.

STONED IN THE STREET.

Marquis Ito and an American Attacked in Tokio.

Tokio, Sept. 7.—Marquis Ito, Japan's foremost statesman, and Edward Harriman, the American railroad magnate, were stoned in the street here today by a mob, but neither was injured.

ENVOYS WERE CHEERED.

Large Crowds Greeted Them as They Left Boston.

Boston, Sept. 7.—Both the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries together with the members of their respective missions left Boston yesterday in special trains, bound for New York. Crowds of people had assembled at the South station and as the trains passed out that bearing the Russians about one o'clock and that of the Japanese two hours later, enthusiastic demonstrations occurred.

THOUSANDS PRESS NEAR.

Had to Clear Way Through Crowds at New York.

New York, Sept. 7.—Thousands of persons greeted the Russian peace envoys when they arrived at the Grand Central station at 5:35 p. m. yesterday. There was a great demonstration when they left the train and hurried to the St. Regis hotel.

PROSPECT IS GLOOMY.

News from Baku Says Streets Are Not Safe.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 7.—2:50 a. m.—The news from Baku received up to the time of the filing of this dispatch is of the gloomiest character. The Armenian and Tartar warring factions now appear to be entirely beyond control.

BURGLARS DOWN IN MAINE.

Robbed Post Office at Warren Early Today.

Warren, Maine, Sept. 7.—Burglars early today robbed the post office here, blowing open the safe with nitro-glycerine and carrying off $500 in cash and stamps and two United States three per cent unregistered bonds, valued at $500 each.

Whole City Is on Fire.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 7.—The Russian firm here has received a telegram from Baku which says that rioters there have blown up an arsenal. Great havoc was caused by the explosion and many casualties have resulted. Later advices from Baku say that the condition there is helpless as the whole city is now on fire.

RECEIVED OLD RESIDENTS.

Town of Timmouth Had Old Home Celebration Today.

Rutland, Sept. 7.—The town of Timmouth celebrated Old Home Day today by entertaining Gov. C. J. Bell, ex-Gov. W. W. Stickney and many of its former residents. A fine grove of maples near the village was the site of the exercises and here the country folk from miles around as well as many former residents from a distance came to hear the speaking and partake of the generous luncheon provided by the townspeople.

HAVE DISCOVERED AN ANCIENT CITY

Forty Gigantic Skeletons and Many Houses of Singular Architecture Unearthed on a Sicily Estate.

Palermo, Sicily, Sept. 7.—A buried city has been discovered on the estate of Signor Despani at Collesano, twenty-five miles from this city. Many houses of singular architecture, as well as prehistoric tombs containing forty gigantic skeletons, have been unearthed. Students believe it was a town in the ancient Roman colony of Paropo, described in the writings of Pliny and others.

NEW JERSEY TOOK ALL.

Honors at Sea Girt—The Wimbledon Cup—Interstate Match.

Seagirt, N. J., Sept. 7.—The Wimbledon cup match in the National Rifle association tournament yesterday was won by First Lieut. W. A. Tewes of the 1st New Jersey infantry. His score was 84 out of a possible 100. New Jersey captured all the honors yesterday. The interstate regimental match was won by the 1st New Jersey infantry team with 516 out of a possible 600.

MONUMENT FOR HORSE.

Sadie Mac Will Have One Erected Over Her Grave.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 7.—By winning a heat yesterday Angiola captured the Charter Oak trot at Charter Oak Park. Four heats were run Tuesday, Angiola winning the last two. The heat which decided the race yesterday was a good one until the distance pole was reached, when the western mare pulled away from Zephyr, her close rival. The clip was too much for the Goers horse, which took second money from Norman B. Angiola, $5,000; Zephyr, $2,500; Norman B., $1,500; Glenwood M., $1,200.

GOES TO SUPREME COURT.

Case of F. R. Patch Company vs. Protection Lodge.

Rutland, Sept. 7.—Judge John H. Watson in Rutland county court this morning sent to the supreme court the case of F. R. Patch Manufacturing company vs. John Capelless and 22 others, formerly employees of the concern. This case grew out of the strike of 1902. The company got judgment of $2,500 against Protection Lodge, No. 215, I. A. M. The company trustees the wages and attached the real estate of the members.

VIENNA'S TRIBUTE.

Proposed to Name Street in Honor of Theodore Roosevelt.

Vienna, Sept. 7.—The municipal council proposes to perpetuate the memory of President Roosevelt's success in restoring peace by re-naming a street Theodore Roosevelt Strasse and cabling the thanks of the city of Vienna. The proposal has been formally introduced, and is set down for early consideration.

SMALL NUMBER NEW CASES.

No Special Feature in Yellow Fever Situation in New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 7.—Yellow fever report to 6 p. m. last night: New cases, 31; total to date, 2,142; deaths, 4; total to date, 298; new foci, 6; cases under treatment, 317; cases discharged, 1,527. There was no special feature in the fever situation yesterday beyond the small number of cases reported and the few deaths. A heavy rain fell yesterday.

DEAD IN THE STREET.

James Fleming Committed Suicide at Dedham, Mass.

Dedham, Mass., Sept. 7.—The body of James Fleming, aged 27, was found in a yard on Charles street yesterday, with a bullet wound over the heart. Medical Examiner A. H. Horgden, after an autopsy, pronounced death due to suicide by shooting. Fleming was single, and it is thought that trouble with some near relatives led to the act.

DIED AT NORTHFIELD.

Leon A. Hutchins, Whose Home Was at Newport, N. H.

Newport, N. H., Sept. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Hutchins received a message yesterday morning from Northfield, Vt., that their son, Leon A., had died. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins left on the noon train for that place. It came as a sad blow to Mr. Hutchins, as the young man had lived here for the last few years and was the only child. He was married about a year ago.

DESPERATE ENCOUNTER

Pat Crowe Bobs Up Again In Omaha.

HE SHOT A POLICEMAN

Running Fight Last Night After Which Crowe and a Horse Thief Companion Escaped to the Thicket.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 7.—Pat Crowe, supposed to be the kidnapper of Eddie Cudady, the son of the millionaire packer, had a desperate battle with Omaha policemen last night and is thought to be severely wounded and to have taken refuge in a block of high woods. Crowe was assisted in his flight by a comrade who is thought to be a horse thief named Johnson, of Missouri. Policeman Jackson met Crowe, whom he knew, and shadowed him until help could be sent for. Upon the arrival of seven policemen Crowe discovered that a trap had been laid for him and opened fire. Crowe was then joined by his companion, who exchanged shots with the policemen, and the two desperate men escaped in the tall weeds. Crowe fired at Jackson, wounding him at the first shot. But the policeman returned shot for shot, while lying on the sidewalk, until he fainted.

MOROCCO BACKS DOWN BEFORE THE FRENCH

Agrees to Satisfy Demands in Full for the Arrest of the Algerian—The Threatened Crisis Is Thus Avoided.

Paris, Sept. 7.—The French envoy at Fez reports that the sultan of Morocco has agreed to fully satisfy the demands made by France in connection with the arrest of the Algerian, Bouzain. A threatened crisis between France and Morocco, brought about by the demands made by France which practically amounted to an ultimatum, has therefore been avoided.

15,000 VETERANS MARCHED.

Took Parade Three Hours and 25 Minutes to Pass.

Denver, Sept. 7.—The main event of the Grand Army encampment, speaking from the viewpoint of the rank and file, was the grand parade which occurred yesterday. Many who marched two miles were exhausted when the end was reached and many others weakened by age fell out of line, leaving before the journey was completed. It took the parade three hours and five minutes to pass the grandstand in front of which was the reviewing stand. On the latter stood the national officers of the Grand Army, and distinguished guests and in the grandstand sat thousands of spectators. It was estimated that 15,000 members of the Grand Army participated in the parade.

MAIL DRIVERS STRIKE.

New York Postoffice Authorities Will Use Horseless Wagons.

New York, Sept. 7.—The drivers of the United States mail wagons in this city went on strike at 10:30 last night. A score of them jumped off their wagons when they drove to the Mail street end of the post office. The strike is an echo of the trouble over wages some weeks ago. The leaders of the men say that the agreement the bosses made with them has not been lived up to. They also demand an increase of wages.

BECAUSE LADDER BROKE.

Louis Hart of South Shaftsbury Claims $4,000 Damages.

Bennington, Sept. 7.—A negligence suit has been brought against the Eagle Square Mfg. Co. of South Shaftsbury by Louis Hart, of that town for $4,000 damages. Hart was seriously injured February last while in the employ of that company by the breaking of a ladder on which he was working. He claims the ladder was defective. The case will probably be tried at the December term of Bennington County court.

DEAD IN THE STREET.

James Fleming Committed Suicide at Dedham, Mass.

Dedham, Mass., Sept. 7.—The body of James Fleming, aged 27, was found in a yard on Charles street yesterday, with a bullet wound over the heart. Medical Examiner A. H. Horgden, after an autopsy, pronounced death due to suicide by shooting. Fleming was single, and it is thought that trouble with some near relatives led to the act.

DIED AT NORTHFIELD.

Leon A. Hutchins, Whose Home Was at Newport, N. H.

Newport, N. H., Sept. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Hutchins received a message yesterday morning from Northfield, Vt., that their son, Leon A., had died. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins left on the noon train for that place. It came as a sad blow to Mr. Hutchins, as the young man had lived here for the last few years and was the only child. He was married about a year ago.

DR. MERROW IN TROUBLE

Former Barre Man Charged With Malpractice.

SPENT NIGHT IN JAIL

Was Unable to Get $50,000 Bail Fixed Yesterday—Husband of Woman Brought Suit to Recover Half a Hundred Thousand.

Burlington, Sept. 7.—Charged with causing the death of Mrs. Ida A. Kimball of New York by alleged malpractice, Dr. J. W. Merrow, known throughout Vermont by his extensive advertisement for curing disease, was arrested yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Thomas Reeves and passed last night in jail because he could not furnish the $50,000 bail that was required. The circumstances, as alleged, are that Mrs. Kimball came to New York a year ago and learned of cures performed by Dr. Merrow. She was suffering with a cancer, and came to Burlington to see Dr. Merrow. She explained her condition to him and it is alleged that he guaranteed to cure her by the absorption method. It is claimed that she placed herself under his care and took his medicine as directed. This occurred in September. Instead of growing better, it is claimed that she grew worse and that finally she underwent two operations in a New York hospital, but it was too late and she died February 2 last. It is alleged that had she not followed Dr. Merrow's advice she could have been cured.

COURT TAKES ADJOURNMENT.

To Allow Members of Bar to Attend Funeral of Mrs. J. H. Senter.

Montpelier, Sept. 7.—When Washington county court reconvened this morning at 9 o'clock, the term having opened yesterday, Judge Powers ordered an adjournment until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, because of the funeral of Mrs. Addie G. Senter, wife of Attorney John H. Senter, and mother of Attorney Charles H. Senter. The funeral was held this afternoon at two o'clock. When court comes in tomorrow morning the case of Caroline Glynn vs. the Capital City Gas company, for damages for alleged personal injuries, will be taken up. The case of Maggiani for shooting Conductor William Perkins of the Barre and Montpelier electric railway will be taken up soon.

WHO GETS THE PENNANT?

Barre and Montpelier Base Ball Stockholders to Fight It Out.

At a meeting of the directors of the Intercity Base Ball association last evening, the Montpelier directors in behalf of the Capital City stockholders, challenged the Barre stockholders to a championship game. The Barre directors were not slow in accepting the challenge, and the game will be played Saturday, September 16. The winners are to take home the pennant and have possession of the hard-won Northern league trophy, but the flag is still to be owned by the Intercity association. Charles Wislart will probably be captain of the Barre pennant aspirants, and Lester Greene of the Montpelier branch. The directors looked over the bills of the association, but will not be in position to make statement until later. However, the gate receipts this year were $7,425.35, about $900 less than last year. The salaries of the team aggregate about the same as a year ago. The traveling expenses, according to the statement of 1904, were about $400 less this year, the amount being $1,000. The directors report that if they can collect the unpaid stock the association will come out even with the game.

IN THE HOLE.

Rutland Base Ball Association Ends the Season a Little Below Par.

The financial standing of the Rutland base ball association of the Northern league is a little in the hole. One of the board of managers said concerning this: "We will undoubtedly be a little behind on the money end of the deal. But considering the money we had to start with and the article of ball played, I think we have done well to finish as well as we have. We are not as bad off this year as last year at this time."

Series Dance Tonight.

There will be a series dance at Hale's Pavilion tonight. Gilbertson's orchestra.

FALLING DERRICK STRUCK OLD MAN

Alvin Chapin, Aged 83 Killed at North Montpelier Yesterday Afternoon—Was Watching Operation of Derrick.

DIED AWAY FROM HOME.

J. Fred Austin Was Attending Fairs in Northern Vermont.

North Montpelier, Sept. 7.—Alvin Chapin, aged 83 years, was struck on the head by the boom of a derrick and instantly killed in this village at half-past two yesterday afternoon. Frank Jackson is putting in a foundation for a new store and Mr. Chapin was standing near watching the operation of the derrick as it slowly moved a stone into place. Suddenly a chain on the derrick broke, and the boom fell, striking Chapin on the head and killing him instantly. Mr. Chapin is survived by four sons and a daughter.

COURT TAKES ADJOURNMENT.

To Allow Members of Bar to Attend Funeral of Mrs. J. H. Senter.

Montpelier, Sept. 7.—When Washington county court reconvened this morning at 9 o'clock, the term having opened yesterday, Judge Powers ordered an adjournment until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, because of the funeral of Mrs. Addie G. Senter, wife of Attorney John H. Senter, and mother of Attorney Charles H. Senter. The funeral was held this afternoon at two o'clock. When court comes in tomorrow morning the case of Caroline Glynn vs. the Capital City Gas company, for damages for alleged personal injuries, will be taken up. The case of Maggiani for shooting Conductor William Perkins of the Barre and Montpelier electric railway will be taken up soon.

WHO GETS THE PENNANT?

Barre and Montpelier Base Ball Stockholders to Fight It Out.

At a meeting of the directors of the Intercity Base Ball association last evening, the Montpelier directors in behalf of the Capital City stockholders, challenged the Barre stockholders to a championship game. The Barre directors were not slow in accepting the challenge, and the game will be played Saturday, September 16. The winners are to take home the pennant and have possession of the hard-won Northern league trophy, but the flag is still to be owned by the Intercity association. Charles Wislart will probably be captain of the Barre pennant aspirants, and Lester Greene of the Montpelier branch. The directors looked over the bills of the association, but will not be in position to make statement until later. However, the gate receipts this year were $7,425.35, about $900 less than last year. The salaries of the team aggregate about the same as a year ago. The traveling expenses, according to the statement of 1904, were about $400 less this year, the amount being $1,000. The directors report that if they can collect the unpaid stock the association will come out even with the game.

IN THE HOLE.

Rutland Base Ball Association Ends the Season a Little Below Par.

The financial standing of the Rutland base ball association of the Northern league is a little in the hole. One of the board of managers said concerning this: "We will undoubtedly be a little behind on the money end of the deal. But considering the money we had to start with and the article of ball played, I think we have done well to finish as well as we have. We are not as bad off this year as last year at this time."

Series Dance Tonight.

There will be a series dance at Hale's Pavilion tonight. Gilbertson's orchestra.

SELL QUARRY TO B. M. & V. CO.

Marr & Gordon Dispose of Famous "Black Knot."

THE PRICE NOT GIVEN.

All But Two of Dark Quarries Now Under One Ownership and One Management—Company Employs Nearly 300 Men.

The dark quarry of Marr & Gordon, located at the upper end of Grantville, has been sold to the Boutwell, Milne & Varnum Co., the trade being completed last evening. The price paid is not stated. This quarry has been known for years as the "Black Knot" and has been operated by Marr & Gordon since it was opened in 1883. It contains eight acres and adjoins the Milne quarry. By the sale of this quarry to the Boutwell, Milne & Varnum Co., all the dark quarries but two on the hill are united under one ownership and management, and it is the firm's purpose to give their customers the stones they order and when they want them. The combined quarries employ approximately 300 men. For the accommodation of customers the company has leased a large lot of land at the corner of Main and Berlin streets 150 by 150 feet, and this is to be used as a yard, where a large supply of stock will be kept to fill rush orders. The old brick house is to be made over October 1st into an office for the company, where all business will be transacted.

RETIRE FROM GRANITE FIRM.

T. B. Cannon of Northfield Sells to His Partners.

T. B. Cannon has retired from the granite cutting firm of Cannon & Slack company of Northfield, having sold his interest to his partners, F. A. Phillips and H. H. Slack, the new firm to be known as Phillips & Slack. The actual transfer will not be made until next week. The firm of Cannon & Slack was started six years ago, and three years later Mr. Phillips was taken into the firm. The business has grown and the plant is now well equipped. It is not known what Mr. Cannon intends to do.

A FAMILY REUNION.

Spooner Family Had Pleasant Time at T. D. Spooner's Yesterday.

The Spooner family had a pleasant reunion yesterday at the home of T. D. Spooner on Perrin Hill, it being the occasion of Mrs. Spooner's 49th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Spooner and two children of Brookfield, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Pitman and two children of Barnstead, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spooner and four children of Barre town, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Morehouse and two children of Barre town, Bessie, Oliver, Raymond, Daisy and A. Devey Spooner, who live at home with their parents, and Mrs. Arthur Fielders and son of Franklin, N. H. A photograph was taken of the group by Henry Hay of this city. During the evening the company were entertained by the phonograph, operated by Erroll Lawrence. A dinner set of dishes was presented to Mrs. T. D. Spooner by G. W. Morehouse, in behalf of the children. A very pleasant time was enjoyed, all wishing the hostess many more birthdays.

BARRE TELEGRAM BANKRUPT.

Petition Filed Yesterday—Small Assets to Cover Indebtedness.

Burlington, Sept. 7.—A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday by the Telegram Publishing Co., which formerly published the Daily Telegram at Barre. The concern ceased to publish the paper several weeks ago. There is a long list of creditors but none of them have large amounts against the concern. The total liabilities of the company are set up as $2,605.49, with assets of $6.5. Included in the petition are the individual schedules of W. G. Bradford and A. Q. Miller, the proprietors. The liabilities of each are set up as $3,605.49, with no assets. The petition will be referred to E. H. Deavitt of Montpelier, referee in bankruptcy. A petition was also filed yesterday by Joseph Guyette, a farmer of Franklin. He has liabilities of $728 and assets of $300, of which $200 are claimed exempt.