TALK OF THE TOWN.

Winter hosiery at Vaughan's. Read The Vaughan Store adv. Grand Masonic fair, Nov. 6th to 11th. A. C. Moore is ill and confined to the house. The best undershirt in the city for $1.19 at Abbott's. Hughes' Livery, Merchant street, near Summer. Phone 116-21. Sweaters, mufflers, golf gloves, etc., at McWhorter's. Erwin S. Whitcomb spent Sunday at his home in Randolph. E. V. Willey of Websterville spent Sunday with R. L. Hayward. George Emerson of Northfield spent Sunday visiting friends in town. Thomas Cave, Jr. went to Boston Saturday night on a business trip. Miss Julia Hays of Waterbury was in town Saturday visiting Miss Alice Haley. Miss Nona Hays of Northfield spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Bancroft. There will be a meeting of the Masonic fair committee this evening at 7.30 in Masonic hall. Miss Annie Derrag of Burlington visited over Sunday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Barrows. Miss Myrtle Richardson went to Boston this morning to work at the home of Eli Densmore. Rev. Loughlin Beaton of Montreal is conducting special services at the Graniteville Presbyterian church. Gale Bennett and Frank Burgess left in the former's automobile on a deer hunting trip this morning. Miss Marion Redmond, who has been visiting Miss Nellie Sadlier, returned to her home in Burlington last evening. Mrs. W. R. Guthrie, who has been visiting friends in town for a few days, returned to her home in Boston this morning. Ladies' fur coats at McWhorter's. Australian calf at $20.00, $25.00 and $27.50. Eskimo dog at $22.50 and $27.50. Coon at $42.50. Blended rat at $50.00. At the close of the morning service at the Congregational church yesterday, the pastor, Rev. F. A. Poole, announced he had received from an unknown source a gift of $50 with which to purchase an individual communion service. Manager Lapoint will present on Tuesday evening at Hales' theatre "Why Get Leave Home," which was one of the pronounced successes of last season. The play is one that goes with a ring and a swing that makes the auditorium resound with laughter and applause, yet at times it causes a nerve racking. The story, one of frailty of the weaker sex and a man's perfidy, is told according to the adage that "truth is stranger than fiction." The author has drawn from the facts of one of the most sensational tragedies in recent years, in which a brother was accused of killing a sister because of her wilfulness. It is told with remarkable fidelity to details and incidents, in a plain, everyday manner, devoid of claptrap, mawkish sentiment, or morbid sensationalism. A man from Bradford has purchased from George Dunbar, of Lyme, N. H., his farm and timber lots, comprising about 250 acres, for $3,000. Frank A. Parker has sold 200,000 feet of pine lumber to B. Babcock, of North Thetford, who is to put a mill upon the lot and mill it.
