

BITTER DEFEAT FOR HARVARD

Lost to Pennsylvania Saturday By Score of 12 to 6

DARTMOUTH AND AMHERST

Fail to Score Against Each Other—Yale Defeats Brown 11 to 0—Princeton Wins from Cornell.

Fighting doggedly to the last ditch, Harvard's giant eleven went down to a stinging, unexpected defeat before Pennsylvania Saturday afternoon by the score of 12 to 6, on Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Pennsylvania scored her first touchdown two minutes after the first kickoff, getting the ball on Foster's fumble on Harvard's 9-yard line and in four plays sending Lamson crashing over the crimson goal line.

Harvard retaliated five minutes later and then for 50 minutes of actual play—50 minutes of grim, grueling, sensational football—the two teams fought it out bitterly for the deciding score.

Eight minutes before the end of the second half, with the whole Quaker eleven surging like demons in the play, Lamson scored the deciding point. Plunging like a mad bull, thoughts of the slurs which had been slung at him by Harvard undoubtedly surging in his mind, the great tackle started for the crimson line. Squires and Kersberg saw him coming and threw themselves fiercely in his path. The impact was terrific, but Penn had the charge, and with the thunder of 22,000 people crashing on every side the ball was planted safely beyond the crimson line. That ended the game. There was no question of Pennsylvania's superiority. The Harvard coach acknowledged this, though it must be a bitter pill for him to swallow.

Unless Yale had something up her sleeve in her game with Brown (which she won 11 to 0), she is not standing on impregnable ground and both Princeton and Harvard are encouraged from the Eli's showing Saturday. For Yale to have beaten the Providence team by a big score would have surely been discouraging to her Tiger and Crimson rivals.

Dartmouth was not able to score against Amherst, though she kept her opponent in the same boat. Harvard may take courage here, too.

Princeton had her line crossed, but ran up a respectable score against Cornell, winning 16 to 6. At the same time it looks as though the Tigers had their work cut out for them to beat Yale next Saturday.

In the West, Purdue continued to furnish the surprise of the year. She played Chicago a tie, 0 to 0, and her record so far proves her one of the very strongest teams in the country.

Michigan won from Ohio State, 18 to 0, but it is easy to see that Yost has not the team he had in years gone by. Doubtless he is glad he was not able to arrange a date in the East this year.

Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Northwestern defeated four rate teams easily.

Middlebury 6, Norwich 6. Middlebury, Nov. 13.—The second foot ball game of the season between Middlebury college and Norwich university was played Saturday afternoon. Middlebury had won the first game, and it was expected that they would win this game, but the manager and captain of the team went to New York to attend a fraternity meeting, and the best that Middlebury could do was to play a tie game, the score being 6 to 6. The only score made by Norwich was a very doubtful one, as the referee made a very poor decision when the ball was on the line; nevertheless, he gave the decision in favor of Norwich and that aided them to a great extent. Neither team showed good foot ball, and so the game was a rough one.

St. Peter's 5, Brandon H. S. 0. Rutland, Nov. 13.—St. Peter's won from the Brandon H. S. in this city Saturday afternoon, 5 to 0. Morrissey, right half of the local team, made the only touchdown after the first 10 minutes of play. The attempt for a goal failed.

Results of College Games. At Philadelphia, U. of P. 13, Harvard 6. At New Haven, Yale 11, Brown 0. At Princeton, Princeton 16, Cornell 0. At Amherst, Dartmouth 0, Amherst 0. At Middletown, Wesleyan 18, Williams 0. At New Haven, Yale '09 17, Princeton '09 0. At Medford, Tufts 12, University of Maine 0. At Lewiston, Bowdoin 6, Bates 0. At Syracuse, Syracuse 16, Holy Cross 4. At Middlebury, Middlebury 6, Norwich 6. At West Point, Indians 6, West Point 5. At Annapolis, Navy 34, Bucknell 0. At Cambridge, Harvard '09 12, Cushing academy 0. At Springfield, Springfield T. S. 25, Worcester Tech 5.

Bellows Falls H. S. 6, Vermont 0. Bellows Falls, Nov. 13.—The greatest event of the local foot ball season took place Saturday afternoon, when Bellows Falls defeated Vermont by the score of 6 to 0.

A CARD. We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.

REP CROSS PHARMACY, E. A. DROWN, C. R. KENDRICK & CO., D. F. DAVIS, G. A. ATYNSWORTH, J. A. McKEITHEN, W. H. MILLS & CO., McALLISTER BROS., D. C. HOWARD, J. A. CURRING, J. W. FARRINGTON.

Cataracts Give instant relief in case of Catarrh—Ally inflammation, soothe and heal mucous membrane, relieve the throat. Best gargle for sore throat. Druggists or mail. DYSPEPTICS Quickly relieve flatulence, heartburn, nausea, all forms of indigestion and dyspepsia. Sugar-coated tablets. 12¢ per box. H. H. Lowell, Mass. It Made by Hood It's Good.

Falls H. S. and Vermont academy met in their annual game. Bellows Falls won, 6 to 0. Bellows Falls won by steady rushes. Pierce was the hero of the day, making the only touchdown at the close of the first half on a long end run. Howard did some effective hurdling.

PACING RECORD BROKEN.

Dan Patch Does an Exhibition in 1:58 at Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 12.—Dan Patch, champion pacer, in an exhibition mile, yesterday on the track of the Memphis Trotting Association, lowered the world's pacing record without a wind shield, by 1/4 second, covering the mile in 1:58.

The former record of 1:59 1/4 was made by Star Pointer.

Time by quarters: 30, 59, 1:28, 1:58. Weather and track conditions were ideal for the attempt. Hearsey, the driver, sent the black pacer away at the first attempt. The runner accompanied the pacer, which was apparently tired at the finish.

The rules of the National Trotting Board were observed, and it was asserted that the record will be allowed, although the attempt was not made at a race meeting.

TO MARK THREE-MILE LIMIT.

A Buoy Will Be Moored Off the Bay of Islands.

St. John's, N. F., Nov. 13.—The American fishery cruiser Grampus, supposed to be acting under orders from Washington, proposes to moor a buoy three miles off the mouth of Bay of Islands, to mark the point outside which American fishing vessels can engage men to increase their crews and purchase necessary fishery equipment.

GIRL SPURNS U. S. JOB; $12 A YEAR

Salary Twelve Times Bigger Than the Revenue of the Office—Succeeded Her Brother, Who Died.

Bangor, Me., Nov. 13.—Miss Adeline Marshall of York Harbor is probably the only person in the country who has a government job and doesn't want it. She is paid a salary of $12 a year as collector of the port, which is virtually twelve times greater than the entire revenues of her office. And still she doesn't want the place, and only waits the expiration of her term of office to retire from the position that she was forced to take by the sickness and then the death of her brother, whose successor she has just been made by government appointment.

A Guaranteed Cure for Piles. Itching, Blind, Bleeding, Protruding Piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

THE GENTLER SEX.

"The most important phase of the twentieth century is the unification of women," said Mrs. Beatrice Larned Whitney of Detroit, last evening, before the state convention of the King's Daughters and Sons in Tremont Street Methodist Episcopal church. "It is no longer rich for poor, high for low, but woman for woman."

She is paid a salary of $12 a year as collector of the port, which is virtually twelve times greater than the entire revenues of her office. And still she doesn't want the place, and only waits the expiration of her term of office to retire from the position that she was forced to take by the sickness and then the death of her brother, whose successor she has just been made by government appointment.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

FIND LOST SECURITIES.

Package Containing Certificates for $100,000 Picked Up in Street.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13.—The package of foreign exchange certificates for $100,000 which was lost on Wednesday while in transit from the office of C. Schumacher & Co. of New York to the Tradesmen's National Bank of this city, has been found in the street and was Saturday delivered intact to the local bank.

WAS IT "TAFT OR GRAFT?"

This the Issue That Defeated Herrick in Ohio.

DID NOT DARE TAKE SIDES

Taft Made Stronger Also in Other States—Many Think Him Quite Up to Presidential Size.

Washington, Nov. 13.—It is gradually coming to light in the reports of returning Ohioans that Secretary Taft's Akron speech of Oct. 21, shaped the contest in Ohio, and in large degree accounts for the outcome with results that greatly affect, if they do not control, the presidential situation. The administration decided to keep out of all state and local contests. Secretary Taft representing it, however, made one speech in Ohio at the psychological moment when the anti-saloon league's issue was losing force, but opposition to the bosses as a part of the wave sweeping over the nation was about to occupy first place in public attention. Taft came along, saying that he supported Herrick, who had not been controlled by the bosses, but that were he in Cincinnati on election day he should vote against the Cox machine. The Democrats promptly turned around, and demanded of Herrick that he should say whether he was for "Taft or Graft," whether he was for or against the Cox machine. They insisted that Taft had been in the Philippines and did not know the extent to which Herrick was controlled by Cox, but that the people at home in Ohio did, and poor Herrick, when the choice was pushed upon him by the opposition did not dare to take either side. He would probably had come out letter had he declared for Cox or against him. Remaining silent, he went down with Cox under the charges which Taft with the seeming backing of the administration had leveled against the Cincinnati machine.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

Organization Republicans of Ohio are naturally much displeased by Taft's action, but they cannot take any steps to punish Taft without making him the anti-boss candidate for president of the United States—the successor of the Roosevelt policies. Taft and Foraker are already at loggerheads over the railroad rate question. It is surmised that many votes went to Patton because the Democratic platform squarely endorsed the Roosevelt rate policy, while upon its essentials the Republican platform was silent. Ohio voters have been hypnotized by President Roosevelt and his word, wherever they know it, is law. If it becomes apparent, as the next presidential campaign draws near that Taft is the logical successor of Roosevelt, the organization in the state would not be able to stand against the popular demand that its delegates be instructed for him. The Akron speech will help Taft in other states. It follows a long line of courageous utterances, notably his decision to buy Panama Canal supplies at export rates in the present temper of the American people, who are growing tolerant of too much "stand-patism" and too much boss rule. Taft is about what they want for the presidential nomination.

STUCK TO THEIR POSTS.

Both Motormen Did Their Best to Lessen Force of Collision.

Boston, Nov. 13.—Several passengers were injured, none of them seriously, however, and one of the motormen sustained a fractured knee-cap and other injuries in a head-on collision of electric cars on the Boston & Northern line at Swampscott, at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

The cars that collided were large vestibule ones, and both of them contained many passengers. One was bound to Lynn from Marshfield, and the other bound for Roberts' tunnel, not far from what is known as the Second beach, near which the collision took place. The cars came together with terrific force, and both vestibules were smashed, all of the glass being shattered into small pieces, and some of the windows in the cars were smashed.

The passengers in both cars became panic stricken, before the collision took place, for they realized, as did the motormen, who were doing their utmost to prevent it, that a collision was inevitable.

Both motormen stood at their posts and did what they could to lessen the force of the collision, for they knew that it was absolutely impossible to avert it entirely. Almost before they were aware of it, both cars came together with terrific force. There was a sound of breaking glass, the passengers in both cars were hurled from side to side and end to end of the car, and the greatest excitement prevailed for a time. The screams of the women quickly brought nearby residents to the scene.

Both motormen stood at their posts and did what they could to lessen the force of the collision, for they knew that it was absolutely impossible to avert it entirely. Almost before they were aware of it, both cars came together with terrific force. There was a sound of breaking glass, the passengers in both cars were hurled from side to side and end to end of the car, and the greatest excitement prevailed for a time. The screams of the women quickly brought nearby residents to the scene.

Both motormen stood at their posts and did what they could to lessen the force of the collision, for they knew that it was absolutely impossible to avert it entirely. Almost before they were aware of it, both cars came together with terrific force. There was a sound of breaking glass, the passengers in both cars were hurled from side to side and end to end of the car, and the greatest excitement prevailed for a time. The screams of the women quickly brought nearby residents to the scene.

Both motormen stood at their posts and did what they could to lessen the force of the collision, for they knew that it was absolutely impossible to avert it entirely. Almost before they were aware of it, both cars came together with terrific force. There was a sound of breaking glass, the passengers in both cars were hurled from side to side and end to end of the car, and the greatest excitement prevailed for a time. The screams of the women quickly brought nearby residents to the scene.

OUTLAW RING LOSTS AT LAST.

"Bloody Breathitt" District in Kentucky Yields to Wave of Reform.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 13.—The Hargraves, who, led by Judge James H. Hargis, for 10 years or more have led the Democratic families of Breathitt so that the county has become known throughout Kentucky as "Bloody Breathitt," went down to defeat Tuesday before the better element of the community, banded as fusionists, who won by majorities ranging from 105 to 500 and killed ring rule in Breathitt.

Nearly 10 years ago James H. Hargis was elected judge of the County Court. Immediately following his induction into office there was instituted a reign of terror without parallel in the history of the mountains.

Men were murdered and men disappeared, and in nearly every instance the assassins went scot free. In the last 10 years there have perhaps been 75 cold-blooded murders in Breathitt, with no more than five or six convictions.

Three years ago James R. Marcum was killed, supposedly by the Hargis gang. No less than 10 murders followed this. Mrs. Marcum instituted suit