The Times' Daily Short Story.

A CASE IN DUPLICATE.

(Original.)
Henry and Howard Corwith loved each other devotedly. Henry was four years older than Howard, but looked younger. He had been injured when a child, and this had retarded his development. When he was seven years old a cyclone passed over the town where they lived, leaving the swath of a gigantic scythe behind it. The brothers had been left alone in the house, Henry in charge of it and of his little brother Howard. At the time of the passage of the whirlwind Howard was asleep. Feeling the house crashing down upon them, Henry planted himself above his younger brother to protect him. When several hours later they were taken out from under the fallen timbers, Howard was found to be unhurt, but Henry had received severe injuries.

$100—REWARD—$100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BIG STRIKE GROWING

St. Petersburg Workmen Are Growing Bolder.

SITUATION NOW MENACING

More Organizations Join General Tie-up
—Strikers Make Defiant Reply to Count Witte's Appeal—Agrarian
Disorders Unchecked.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 18.—The outlook for an early collapse of the strike is more gloomy. Indeed, the situation is distinctly more menacing.

The council of workmen's delegates, or strike committee, is manifestly encouraged by the extension of the strike in St. Petersburg, various organizations, including the bank clerks, telephone girls, and some of the professional leagues. Moreover, it is certain that the workmen's council has received mysterious supplies of funds. Consequently they present a bolder front.

Practically all the pretenses based on economic demands have been abandoned, although the eight-hour day figures in the oratory at meetings in order to hold the workmen, who have no thought except improvement in their material condition.

Scornful Reply to Witte.

The workmen's council has returned a scornful reply to Count Witte's personal appeal to his "brother workmen," ridiculing the government's profession of solicitude for the workmen and renewing their demands for the immediate abolition of martial law in Poland, etc. The text of the reply is as follows:

"The council of workmen's delegates expresses astonishment at the emperor's favorite, who permits himself to call the workmen of St. Petersburg his brethren. The proletariat is not related to him in any way.

"Count Witte appeals to us to be compassionate of our wives and children. The council in reply invites the workmen to count the widows and orphans who have been added to the ranks of the workmen since the day Count Witte assumed power.

"Count Witte reveals the benevolent intentions of the emperor toward the working classes. The council reminds the proletariat of Bloody Sunday.

"Count Witte begs us to give the government time, and promises to do all possible for the workmen. The council knows Count Witte has already found time to give Poland into the hands of the military executioners. The council does not doubt Count Witte will do all possible to strangle the revolutionary proletariat.

"Count Witte calls himself a man who is benevolent toward us and wishes our good. The council has been receiving notices in the event of their being condemned to death. But the leaders refused to compromise. 'All or nothing' was their response.

Although the imperial ukase on the land question, issued yesterday, wipes out about $40,000,000 of the peasant's arrearages of debt, and might, under ordinary circumstances, have been received with joy, it has proved another disappointment. The promises of additional lands are too vague to calm the agitated, starving peasants, who, in the valleys of the Don and the Volga, are again marching, pillaging, burning and murdering. No confirmation has been obtained of Thursday's report of a false emperor leading the peasants of Penza. The mill and factory owners at a meeting just held, while offering to make some concessions in the matter of hours of labor, generally to ten hours, took a final decision that unless the men resumed work Monday they must close down indefinitely. Should the men be locked out in the face of winter, it would only make the situation more desperate.

The news from the provinces shows that practically no movement has been started there in support of the general strike, but there is a deep suspicion that this may simply be the lull of preparation.

Keeping Their Plans Dark.

The Social Democrats and the Revolutionists are keeping their plans dark. Their organizations have ramifications throughout the country and at a signal they might again be able to bring the industries of the country to a standstill.

The manager of the local branch of the Credit Lyonnais denies the report that the bank is refusing to accept Russian securities as collateral. On account of the unsettled condition and the heavy fall in prices on the Bourse, however, the banks insist upon larger margins.

The following formal statement on the subject was made by the bank: "The Credit Lyonnais is continuing making advances on stocks, but owing to the fall in state funds and industrials and the narrow market of the St. Petersburg Bourse, it requires larger margins than formerly."

Other banks are also adopting the same course, and there is a noticeable disposition on the part of all the financiers to reduce their commitments.

Odessa, Russia, Nov. 18.—According to reports received here from Sebastopol, the situation among the warships in the harbor there is extremely perilous.

There are 15,000 sailors at Sebastopol and they are now threatening a general mutiny. Admiral Chukin, commander of the Black Sea fleet, has requested that 3,000 additional troops be sent to there and preserve order.

TO ARREST GEN. BRUGERE

Decision of French Council of Ministers.

BOLD MOVE AGAINST HIM

He Made Public Certain Details of a Conference — A Controversy Between Him and Gen. Percin.

Paris, Nov. 18.—The council of ministers at a meeting yesterday decided to inflict fifteen days' arrest on General Brugere, commander of the army, for making public details of a conference which he had with the minister of war relative to the controversy between General Brugere and General Percin, who was chief of staff under General Andre, the former minister of war. The general recently met in the Bois de Boulogne on horseback, and General Brugere refused to acknowledge the salute of General Percin, which it was said at the time would lead to a duel. Explanations before the war minister led to an adjustment of the incident. General Brugere then gave out a statement, saying that he had refused the war minister's request to shake hands with General Percin. The decision of the council of ministers to cause General Brugere's arrest followed. The measure is one of extraordinary severity against the head of the army.

BULL TOSSES HIS FOES.

Sickening Sights in Mexican Arena; the Americans Leave.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—A despatch to the Tribune from El Paso, Tex., says: At the bull fight at Ciudad Juarez, Thursday, given for the American ministers convention, there was a panic when Felix Robert, the French matador, who claims to be the only matador of the nation, was tossed in the air and carried from the arena bruised and bleeding.

Later the same bull, a ferocious beast from the ranch of Gen. Leon Terraz, governor of Chihuahua, plunged its long, sharp horns through Matador Francisco Alonso Piquero, tossing him into the air first, then dragging him about the ring, blood streaming from the wounds in the man's body.

The spectators sickened at the sight, and women fainted and screamed to be carried out. The arena was packed with Americans from every section of the United States, few of whom had ever seen a bull fight, and for a time the situation was serious. Many rushed away in horror.

Order was finally restored, but most of the Americans left, deciding that they had already seen enough of the Mexican and Spanish national sport, although this was only the second bull up for slaughter out of four marked for the matador's swords.

SLURS "LEAD, KINDLY LIGHT."

Minister Declares Martyred President's Hymn Unfit Song of Praise.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—"Lead, Kindly Light," one of the late President McKinley's favorite hymns, was declared to be unfit as a song of praise and worship by the Rev. W. A. Patterson of Princeton, Ind., an "Well Met" on the United Presbyterian Psalmody convention. The Rev. Patterson offered as a substitute the forty-third Psalm.

"The song, 'Lead, Kindly Light,'" he said, "may mean anything that any man may choose to make it mean, be he Christian, atheist or Buddhist."

"Just as I am," "Well Met on That Beautiful Shore," and other hymns of a like nature were looked upon with disfavor by several speakers, but no substitutes were offered.
