THE ECLIPSES.

Photographs of the lunar eclipse taken at the Harvard observatory confirmed the existence of a satellite of the moon, a small body only a few hundred yards in diameter, revolving around the moon. This object was first observed in 1888.

Two German scientists who observed the recent solar eclipse from Monte Rosa, in Pennine Alps, state that at the culminating point of the obscuration the glaciers and snow fields became suffused with a wonderful azure light, while the shadows of the mountains produced most weird effects.

EASY FOR CO. F.

Was Basket Ball Game With White River Junction.

Northfield, Dec. 11.—In the first home game this season, Co. F easily defeated the White River Junction team at basket ball in the armory here Saturday night, by a score of 51 to 21. The game was well played and was clean, fast and exciting, but the visitors were no match for the home team, which was much more skillful in their passing. Co. F had a slight advantage in weight, but the Junction team put up a hard fight to the very last minute of play. During the intermission Co. F 2nd and the Northfield high school team played a good exhibition game, the high school winning by a score of 17 to 8. After the game a social dance was held until twelve, and it was largely attended.

The line up: CO. F WHITE RIVER JCT. Hayes, I. I. r. f., Syron McCarty, r. f. l. f., Almed Kittridge, c. c., Sanborn Dumas (capt), lg, rg, Flanders, (capt) Kelly, r. g. l. g., Munsell Summary: Goals from the floor, Hayes 8, McCarty 4, Kittridge 2, Kelly 5, Dumas 5, Flanders 7, Munsell, Sanborn, Syron; goals from fouls, Kittridge, Flanders; referee, Moore; time-keeper, Arthur McCarty; time, 20-minute halves.
