Furious Fighting. "For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman of Harper, Wash. "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and cured my disease by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, at the Barre Drug Store and Red Cross Pharmacy at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

Fresh Eggs in Winter. The poultryman who can supply fresh eggs in winter, when prices are high, has a tremendous advantage over the one who through ignorance or neglect has to wait till summer, when the supply is large. Not every one can do this, and no one can do it unless he takes proper care of his fowls and gives them food containing the essential egg-producing ingredients which, when running at large, they can supply themselves to a large extent in summer. There is no better substitute for winter use than "Page's Perfect Poultry Food." H. E. Hathaway of Farnham, Que., has used it. Read what he says: "I have tried 'Page's Perfect Poultry Food' and think it is the best I have ever seen."

Any one sending his address on a postal card to C. S. Page, Hydo Park, Vt., and mentioning this paper, will receive by mail, free, postpaid, a sample package of "Page's Perfect Poultry Food."

Dr. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY. Pleasant to take, Powerful in Cure, And Welcome in every Home. KIDNEY and LIVER cure.

Has Found a Real Gold Mine. A gold mine operated by a stock company may soon become one of the industries of this state, according to the plans of Aldos Vondette, of Rutland, who recently discovered a vein of the metal in a mountain below Bennington, and who has had specimens examined by experts in Montreal. Vondette, who has maintained the utmost secrecy as to the location of his find, announced its whereabouts at West Rutland where he stayed Friday night. The vein, he said, is on Woodford mountain. Assayed in Montreal, the ore yielded $27 gold and $16 silver a ton. It was discovered in the rock after digging through about thirty-five feet of sand.

Vondette says he has been approached by several men, who, after examining his specimens, offered to furnish funds to work the vein, or buy out its holdings. He has decided, however, to start in himself, and will employ about six men at first. These, he says, can easily take out two tons of ore a day. Later, if the find proves as rich as the assay would indicate, he will form a stock company and erect a smelter. Vondette will return to his home in Rutland and prepare to start the work. According to Vondette, it will be easy to travel to and from the scene of his proposed operations. The vein on the east side of the opening which he has made and is about eighteen inches wide. The man has done considerable prospecting in this state and is confident that his latest undertaking will prove a success.

Train of Thought in an Open Switch. Acts that have become habitual are performed without effort. But if in the midst of a series of habitual acts one is called upon to do something slightly out of the beaten path it will throw the cog chain out of gear seemingly, interrupting the habitual processes and making it hard to "get going again."

A street car conductor can collect fares, examine passes, issue transfers, give directions, ring up fares and call streets, at the same time giving the motorman his signals regularly, no matter how confusing the jumbled crowd may be. These acts have become second nature to him and require little effort of the conscious mind.

The other day in a crowded car a young man opened his passbook, held out a five-cent piece and asked for a transfer. This was unusual, and the conductor's subconsciousness was not equal to it. He stood bewildered, unable to do anything.

"Aren't you the conductor?" asked the young man. "Yes."

"Well, this pass is for me, the nickel is for this young lady, for whom I want the transfer."

At once the conductor "woke up" and began performing his "functions" again. "I thought," said the young man, "when you failed to act that maybe you were a policeman, instead of a conductor."—Kansas City Times.

Wiser Counsel. "What's that sign you're making there?" asked the grocer. "Fresh eggs," replied the new clerk.

"Make it 'fresh-laid eggs.'"

"Why—everybody knows the eggs were fresh when they were laid."

"Exactly, and that's all that's safe for use to say about them."—Philadelphia Press.

GERMS CAUSE DYSPEPSIA

IF YOU DON'T KILL THE DISEASE GERMS THEY WILL KILL YOU. PEPSOIDS DRIVE THE GERMS OUT OF THE STOMACH AND REBUILDS IT. WRITE FOR A FULL SIZED BOTTLE—FREE.

A noted physician of Pittsburg, Pa., in a recent letter to Dr. Oldman says: "In your prescription known as Pepsoids you have given the medical world the greatest and most valued discovery in medicine of the present century. You have at last solved the problem that has baffled the skill of the best physicians of recent times, how to cure permanently all Acute or Chronic Stomach Disorders known as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Catarrh of the Stomach and Digestive Weakness. I have used your Pepsoids in hundreds of cases without a single failure. I attribute the success of your treatment mainly to the fact that the disease germs of the stomach, cannot resist Pepsoids. Your theory that most Stomach Disorders are brought about by multitudes of deleterious disease-breeding germs must be correct, judging from the remarkable results obtained from the use of your Pepsoids. I consider Pepsoids the best and most valuable remedy yet discovered, for the treatment of all Stomach ailments."

Pepsoids cure Dyspepsia and all Stomach Disorders, in a new way, by repairing the worn-out lining of the Stomach and at the same time, destroy all disease-breeding germs. Dyspepsia and the worst forms of Stomach Disorders once cured in this way never return.

Pepsoids are sold at drug stores at 50c a bottle on an absolute guarantee or money refunded. If you have not used Pepsoids before, we will send you a 50-cent bottle FREE. Send us your name and address and you will receive promptly a full sized bottle. You do not obligate yourself to pay a cent. All we ask, after Pepsoids have cured or greatly benefited you, is that you recommend Pepsoids to your friends. Try Pepsoids today—they will cure you. The Vio Chemical Co., Chicago, Ill.

MUST BELIEVE IT

When Well-Known Barre People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Barre the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

C. A. Churchill, contractor and builder, residence 40 Merchant street, says: "I gave an endorsement for publication in our Barre papers in the winter of 1897, which stated that Dean's Kidney Pills, sold at E. A. Drown's drug store, had acted with me as represented, and I recommended them to any resident needing a remedy for his kidneys. Since that time I have had no reason to change my opinion and you are welcome to again use my original endorsement so that others may know what to do if annoyed with a steady pain across the back like I had for two years—one that prevented me from remaining in any position for any length of time, which was always noticeable in the morning and caused me annoyance to dress myself, for which I used physicians' treatments and a great many medicines, but never received any permanent benefit. I cannot remember whether I took two or three boxes, but this I know, I have never had occasion to use the preparation since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name, Dean's, and take no other.

No Spelling for Him. "No, I shan't be looking for any spelling schools this winter," replied the drummer with a shake of the head.

"Last winter, as I was loafing around a country town on my route, an acquaintance informed me that an old-fashioned spelling school was to be held that night at a country schoolhouse, and I was invited to go with a crowd. Boys and girls piled into a large sleigh filled with straw, and I naturally tried to make myself agreeable. Before we had gone a mile, one young fellow said that if I didn't quit grinning at his girl he'd punch my head, and when we got to the schoolhouse another put his fist under my nose and called me too fresh.

"On top of that I was ass enough to go in and spell the whole crowd down, and I had to make my escape from the building by a window and walk four miles through the snow by my lonesome."

"I used to be fond of old-fashioned things and the spelling school headed the list, but I guess I shall have to cut it out and be satisfied with mince pie and popcorn."—Chicago News.

Where Garrison Used to Work. The centennial anniversary of the birth of William Lloyd Garrison, the famous abolitionist, was observed in Bennington Sunday night.

Saturday a flag was placed on the spot at Bennington Center where stood the office of The Journal of the Times when Garrison edited it. The following inscription marks the site: "On this spot William Lloyd Garrison edited The Journal of the Times, October 3, 1828, March 27, 1829, his subject being 'Ordering Life to the Glory of God, and William Lloyd Garrison.'"
