

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY SALE

Yesterday Was a Gala Day With Us.

We extended an invitation to visit this store to help us observe the twentieth anniversary of its inauguration. Frankly, we expected it would be accepted, that we would greet many old friends, and some new ones.

We didn't, however, expect the happy, interested throng which kept the doors swinging from opening time until the hour when they were to be closed and locked, which filled the store from counter to counter, from department to department.

The sale and occasion continues. Below we suggest a few of the many opportunities for saving. As yet stocks are unbroken. We advise, however, that if you come here tomorrow you make your visit an early one.

We shall be glad to see you—whether you come to buy or simply to spend a pleasant hour or two.
