THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1906.

Weather Prediction.

Fair, with slowly rising temperature tonight and Sunday; light winds, variable.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Local Happenings Tensely Told for Busy Readers.

Notice Fitts' "ad"? White wash shirt waists at Abbott's. Ladies' fur-lined coats regardless of cost at Fitts'.

Holler-skating at the Pavilion every day this week.

The Ladies of Clan Gordon will hold their regular meeting February 20 at 6.45 instead of 7 o'clock.

There will be a public dance in Miles' hall Tuesday evening. Gilbertson's orchestra will furnish music.

An illustrated lecture will be given in the Universalist church Sunday evening on George Washington.

Mrs. Annie Carroll returned last night from Burlington where she has been working for the past few months.

George Nicholson of Limerick, P. O., is visiting his sister, Mrs. D. W. McDonald of Perry street, and his brother, Dan Nicholson of Elm street.

The ladies have met with good success in selling tickets for the Federation Musical, however, the harvest time is just here. Be sure and sell one more ticket.

Regular meeting of Junior Court Barre, No. 1, F. of A., will be held in Foresters' hall, Monday evening, Feb. 19, at 7 o'clock. Let all members be present.

Automobile promises to take a spurt in Montpelier the coming season. Among the purchasers of cars are E. P. Squin, who buys a 22-horse power Buick, J. S. Viles a Stevens-Duryea and J. M. Boutwell a new Packard.

The members of the Mandolin club, who played at the entertainment in the Universalist church last evening were invited to Campbell's restaurant for supper last evening after the play by Mr. and Mrs. Fayette Cutler.

The Junior class of Spaulding High school went on a sleigh ride to East Montpelier last evening where they had an appetizing supper and played games at the hall there. There were twenty-two in the party and they were conveyed in Cassie's big team.

The Central Vermont train due in this city at 6.40 last evening did not arrive until a few minutes of nine o'clock on account of one of the cylinders bursting on the engine when the main life train was a few miles out of Essex Junction. The engine was disabled so that it could not pull the train and the conductor had to walk about two miles to Williston for another engine.

At the final presentation of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" at the Universalist church last evening there was a very large attendance, the vestry being crowded with people who were loud in their praises of the excellent work of those who took part in the play. Miss Blanche Tilden as Mrs. Wiggs was especially good in her part and the other characters were very well represented, making a very successful and pleasing entertainment.

The Ladies' Union of the Universalist church want to express their gratitude through your columns for all those who took part in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," also to those of the musical program, the readers, Mrs. Averill and Mrs. Dix, and especially the mandolin club for it was an effort for them to be present. It was also inconvenient for some of them and the ladies are more than grateful and hope to assist them whenever assistance may be accepted. We want to thank those who assisted in arranging the vestry, also those who lent a helping hand in any way. It was through their efforts that our entertainment was made a grand success.

CHELSEA.

Miss Laura Dearborn of West Fairlee was a recent guest of Mrs. Aivah Little.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Bowen, who live on the west hill, Tuesday, the 13th inst.

The ladies of the Congregational society will serve a dinner in the church vestry town meeting day, March 6th. Schools-in district No. 11, taught by Miss Eunice D. Moulton, in No. 1, taught by Martha L. Noyes, and in No. 7, taught by Lillian Bateholder, are closed.

The twins recently born to Mr. and Mrs. John Burbank have been given the names of their grandparents, the girl Mary Ann and the boy Lyman Azerbaijan.

Albert G. Bradshaw and Miss Emma M. Flint were married at the Bradshaw homestead on the west hill by the Rev. L. N. Moody, Sunday afternoon, February 11.

Miss Marion Camp, who for several weeks has assisted Mrs. A. E. Goswami about her household duties, finished her work the first of the week and returned to her home in the southeast part of the town.

Miss Blanche Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Townsend, and who is a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory, and now on the staff of the Ridpath Entertainment Bureau of Boston, has gone for a tour through the leading cities of Pennsylvania and Ohio with the Temple Quartette, assisting them as a reader and whistler.

Holton S. Annis of the west hill was called to Manchester, N. H., Monday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Alfred S. Lamb, who died Saturday, the 10th inst., at the age of 65 years. She is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Lura Annis, whose early home was on the west hill. Besides her brother, Holton Annis, a sister, Mrs. Manuel Rowe of Laconia, N. H., survives her.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Abbott enjoyed the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Monday, Feb. 12th, in the handsome and substantial remembrance by their children of $42 in gold, besides other valuable and useful presents. Mrs. Abbott's feeble health prevented a public celebration of the event. Mr. Abbott, who is hale and hearty, is a veteran of the late Civil war, having been a volunteer in Co. C, 9th Vermont regiment.
