

EVERY VITAL ENERGY

Of this concern is now directed toward clearance efforts, which means house-cleaning with us. It is the time when we begin to overhaul stocks and drag out every dollar's worth of merchandise that should be sold. No matter what sacrifices, we will not carry goods over from one season to another. You know what this means on prices.

Wash Goods

Here we find we have too many, although the season is hardly begun.

At 8c—Twenty-five pieces Muslins in pretty flowered designs, just the right fabric for the hot summer afternoons. The usual price of these is 12 1-2c. They are 29 inches wide.

At 9c—Twelve pieces Arnold Taffeta, one of the favorites in wash goods this season. 27 inches wide. Usual price, 15c a yard.

At 9c—Twelve pieces of plain and flowered designs. These are Arnold's goods and sold for 12 1-2 a yard, but we want their room, so in they go at 9c a yard.

At 18c—Eight pieces of Agate Cloth, Luster Cloth and Cotton Poplin, usually selling for 25c a yard, go into this sale at 18c a yard.

At 12 1-2c—Arnold's Beige Suiting, 34 inches wide, the best imitation of the Wool Beige that has been brought out. The usual price is 18c a yard.

At 16c—Two pieces of Arnold Voil in a pretty shade of green and one white. Usual price, 25c a yard.

Muslin Underwear

The fact that we have sold almost as much Underwear this season as usually in two seasons doesn't interest you, but it shows to us we have the right goods.

Every garment of good material, extra full sizes, and the most beautifully trimmed garments brought out. Specials:

One lot of Skirts for $2.19, usual price $3.00
One lot of Skirts for 1.00, good at 1.50

Wrappers

At 69c—One special lot of Wrappers, including some that sold for $1.00 each. There are only about thirty Wrappers in the lot. If you are so fortunate as to get one of these you'll appreciate the bargain.

Corsets

At 69c—About eight dozen of these in sizes from 18 to 30, except 20. They are the regular $1.00 grades.

On Wednesday evening, June 27, at 8 p. m., Major Dunham of Albany, N. Y., will conduct a service in the Salvation Army hall on Main street, after which ice cream and cake will be served. Major Dunham has spent something like twenty years in the work of the Salvation Army and is a good musician, also a very interesting speaker. He is the divisional officer for the eastern New York and Vermont division. Since his visit here last April the people of Barre have been anxiously waiting his return.

The doors will be opened at 7.30 o'clock allowing those who wish to come early to get a seat. The hall will no doubt be filled as it generally is on an occasion of this kind. Everybody is cordially invited.

A preliminary hearing is being given Samuel A. Caldwell the electric railroad conductor who was arrested on suspicion in connection with the car barn robbery a few weeks ago. The hearing was started before Judge Harvey of the Montpelier city court yesterday afternoon and was resumed this morning there being about thirty witnesses to be heard. One of the strong points brought out by the prosecution was Caldwell's statement, according to the testimony of Supt. Andrus, that he (Caldwell) thought he knew who the robbers were and that if given a few days he could round them up. Therefore he was given $5 and allowed to go to Burlington to hunt them up, being arrested in that city. A number of witnesses from Burlington were among those summoned, some being officers. W. A. Lord appears for Caldwell and Grand Juror Gates for the state, while Richard A. Hear represents the electric railroad.

LOWER WESTERVILLE.

The following is a record of attendance of some of the pupils in the primary grade for the past two years: Adolph Lantz has been in full attendance and without a mark six terms; Joe Mayo, five terms with the exception of one day and a half at the time of his mother's death; Cecelia O'Herin, Gladys Rayerall, Agnes Donald, Carl Johnson, Florence McKane and Rose Dubie four terms; Mildred O'Herin, Jennie McKenzie, Peter Jondro three terms. I wish to thank the parents and children for the beautiful gifts which I received, also for the aid given me in my work by their industry, perseverance and punctuality. Emma L. Taplin, teacher.
