DEMAND BY SAGE HEIR.

Nephew Declares He is Going to Get What's Coming to Him or Know Why.

Troy, N. Y., Aug. 1.—James H. Sage, a nephew of the late Russell Sage, is authorized for the statement that the will of the deceased millionaire will be contested. Yesterday morning he made the following statement:

"I have made up my mind to get that which is a blood relative of Russell Sage, I am entitled and I don't get it, it will be because there is no legal way of doing so. There is no truth in the report that a test case will be instituted by one of the heirs, and that in case of failure the remaining heirs will make up the loss which would necessarily ensue in accordance with that clause of the will which directs that in case of contest the party concerned shall forfeit his or her bequest. Such a course would be illegal, and there is no desire on the part of any of the heirs to gain anything by trickery.

"I am of the opinion that during Russell Sage's last few years there was undue influence brought to bear upon him, which caused him to leave the bulk of his fortune to his wife. If Russell had left any children and the money had been bequeathed to them none of the heirs would have even thought of getting more than the $25,000, but as it is I for one shall make an attempt to get what I ought to have, and I don't intend to be beaten out of it, either.

"I do not know what the other heirs intend doing, nor do I care, I understand, however, that Mrs. Elizabeth Deer of New York will also contest the will, but I think she would be satisfied with a lesser amount than would have fallen to her had Russell died intestate. A hundred thousand would probably do. All she wants is a fair deal.

"My case is in the hands of the Hon. Edgar T. Brackett of Saratoga and any further information as to what will be done must come from him."

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Rutland Girl Falls From Horse and Breaks Her Leg.

Rutland, Aug. 1.—Lillian, nine years old daughter of Major and Mrs. H. Edward Dyer of Mill village, was seriously injured yesterday at 9 o'clock near her home while riding horseback. The little girl was in company with her sister, Dorothy, Sidney Butterfield and John Green. All were riding horseback, when suddenly the horse on which young Butterfield was riding wheeled, kicking his heels in the air, one of the flying hoofs struck Lillian Dyer, knocking her from her horse. Her right leg was fractured, but whether the injury was caused by a blow from the hoof or in falling is not known.

The fracture affects both bones and is unusually severe. The child was taken to her home and later to the Rutland city hospital, where Dr. R. H. Miner, Dr. W. G. Hodson and D. E. M. Pond treated her.

GREAT BATTING AT BOSTON

Tenney's Men Make Five Successive Hits

AND SCORE FOUR RUNS

Cincinnati Made Three Hits and Scored Three Runs—Boston Americans Lost a Close Game at St. Louis.

Boston, Aug. 1.—A peculiar ball game was played at the South End grounds yesterday afternoon, in which each side hammered the ball with a vengeance and then subsided. Boston hammered a little harder in its try than did Cincinnati and made one more tally, the score being 4 to 3 in favor of the home team.

Fraser faced his old team mates, while Pfeiffer was on the slab for the home bunch. The locals went after Chick in the very first inning. Bridwell started off with a single, followed by Tenney, who bunted safely. Brain then singled, scoring Bridwell and placing Capt. Tenney on third. Bates made the fourth successive bingle, which was a triple, causing Tenney and Brain to cross the rubber. Howard was next to face Fraser and he continued the good work by laying out a single, which brought in Bates. All this before anyone was out.

Howard then got ambitious and tried to steal second, failing in the attempt. Doan drew a pass, but O'Neil went out on a trip to Huggins and Strobel fanned.

In Cincinnati's second half fanned, but DeShazo singled. Siegle tied to Howard. Corcoran rapped out a double that brought in DeShazo. Then Schlei came to time with a home run drive, Corcoran trotting in ahead of him. Fraser was third out on a foul to Brain.

Both teams played fast ball in the field, the locals going without an error and the visitors making but one bungle.

AGAINST SUNDAY BALL PLAYING.

Justice Blanchard of New York Supreme Court Renders Important Decision.

New York, Aug. 1.—Justice Blanchard of the supreme court delivered an opinion Monday which it is believed will put an end to any further attempts at Sunday ball-playing in Brooklyn between professional or semi-professional teams. The case under consideration was that of several young semi-professional players, who had been arrested in test proceedings. A writ of certiorari was sued out, and in dismissing this Justice Blanchard holds that the fact that no charge was made for admission, but that voluntary contribution boxes were placed at the gate, does not take the case out of the jurisdiction of the penal code.

Fair Haven, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Charles W. Crippen, aged 39 years, of this place, was found dead on the floor, undressed, yesterday morning, by her husband. Death was due to either apoplexy or some other form of heart trouble. She had complained recently of a pain near her heart.

MURDERER HIMSELF KILLED.

Vengeance Moves Fast on a New York Italian.

New York, Aug. 1.—Vengeance for a murder he had committed was visited swiftly upon an Italian named Salvatore Slammoneo after he had shot and mortally wounded his countryman, Salvatore Carodone, on South street, near the Fulton market, yesterday. Hardly a minute after the shooting Slammoneo was stabbed in the heart and instantly killed by Giuseppe Tocco. All three are peddlers who were buying fish at the market.

Tocco and Carodone, who are brothers-in-law, were engaged in conversation, when they were joined by Slammoneo. In a quarrel which followed Slammoneo drew a revolver and fired at Carodone, who fell with a bullet wound near the heart. The assailant then fled, pursued by Giuseppe Tocco. A block or two away Tocco caught up with Slammoneo and closed with him. In the struggle Tocco pulled a long-bladed fish knife and plunged it into the other man's chest. The blade penetrated the heart and Slammoneo fell dead. The tragedy was witnessed by scores of marketmen and pedestrians who thronged the street, but it was enacted so swiftly that not a man could interfere. Tocco was arrested.

To several persons he expressed gratification over the outcome of the proceedings.

AT HIGH SPEED.

Woman Put Motorman Aside and Ran Trolley to Catch Train.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 1.—Passengers on a south-bound Halsted street car were panic-stricken Monday, when a woman pushed the motorman from the front platform and ran the car at high speed for nearly a mile.

No stops were made for passengers to get on or off and the car collided with coal wagons and other vehicles along the route. Several women in the car became hysterical and had to be restrained from leaping to the street.

The woman was Mrs. H. H. Childers, of Evergreen Park. She wanted to catch a Grand Trunk train at the Halsted and Thirty-ninth street station, and for that reason took possession of the car.

The conductor, assisted by several passengers, overpowered her and took her to a police station. She convinced the police that she was not insane, and was released.

LABOR IN "GOOD SHAPE" SAYS SPEAKER CANNON

Uses an "Extra Hard Word" by Way of Emphasis, and Then Has a Conscience Qualm.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—Speaker Cannon was here a few minutes yesterday, having stopped over while on his way from Rushville to his home in Illinois. He said he found Coney Island a very pleasant place. He referred to the alleged labor fight against him, but said the labor and capitalists were doing so well that neither would have any time to devote to campaign oratory. He said he was going to talk some and would begin about September 1.

"Now, as to the attacks of labor organizations on me," he continued, "I am in good shape; so is capital. In fact, my boy, both are doing so well that there won't be any job for newspaper men before long. Now, be careful about using that extra hard word that I put there in. Use it if you like, but let it be a little mild one, said in a gentle way. That's the way it was said. After all, people are not going to listen much to what we speakers say next fall, anyhow."

FRAUD ALLEGED.

Bryan Demands Resignation of National Committeeman Sullivan.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 1.—Judge Owen T. Thompson of Jacksonville, Ill., announced yesterday afternoon that in a letter dated July 17 William J. Bryan requested that the judge call upon Roger Sullivan with a message from Mr. Bryan requesting that Mr. Sullivan, "in the interest of harmony," at once resign as national committeeman from Illinois.

Judge Thompson says he saw Mr. Sullivan yesterday and delivered the message. Mr. Sullivan declined to resign. The judge thereupon made public a letter from Mr. Bryan declaring that National Committeeman Sullivan holds the office "by fraud."

ALL FOR HEARST.

Independence League State Committee Holds Meeting in New York.

New York, Aug. 1.—The members of the independence league state committee gathered at the Gilsey house early yesterday to prepare for the meeting of the committee in the afternoon. The preparations consisted largely of loud talking, outbursts of enthusiasm for W. H. Hearst and declarations that the league would go ahead and nominate Hearst for governor, without regard to the action of the regular Democratic convention.

All the members of the committee declared that there was no cut-and-dried program. They said that they would not stand for machine methods. A few expressed the opinion that the committee should wait a while before calling the state convention, but a big majority declared that they would insist on immediate action.

The committee was called to order soon after 1 o'clock by Judge Selsky of the city court. Nearly all of the 150 members were present, and it is said that about one-third of them were Republicans. Among the latter were three editors of up-state newspapers.

No list of the Hearst state committee was given out, because, it was said, there was no official list yet. It would have to be made up at the meeting.

The Wife's Reproach.

In an address to a temperance society a lecturer told how drink had once caused the downfall of a brave soldier.

"In the course of the sad story he said: 'Sometimes, after a debauch, the man would be repentant, humble. He would promise his wife to do better. But, alas, the years taught her the barrenness of all such promises. And one night, when he was getting to be an old man, a prematurely old man, thin limbed, stoop shouldered, with red rimmed eyes, he said to his wife sadly: 'You're a clever woman, Jenny, a courageous, active, good woman. You should have married a better man than I am, dear.'

"She looked at him, and, thinking of what he had once been, she answered in a quiet voice: 'I did, James.'"

MRS. THAW MAKES DENIAL

No Ill-Feeling Between Her and Her Mother-in-Law

NEW WITNESSES HEARD

One of Them a Woman Who Once Nursed Evelyn Nesbit Thaw When She Was in a Sanatorium—Wife of Prisoner Appears Pleased.

New York, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of Harry K. Thaw, denied yesterday that any trouble had arisen between her mother-in-law and herself.

Young Mrs. Thaw reached the toms at 10:45 o'clock yesterday morning. She was attired in a blue tailor-made dress, with a white straw hat and belt, and seemed to be very much pleased with affairs in general. She was accompanied by Detective Roger O'Mara of Pittsburgh. Asked whether she had quarreled with her mother-in-law, Mrs. William Thaw, she replied:

"There is absolutely nothing in the story. It is an infamous lie. We are the very best of friends, and are both working hard for Harry's interests. I cannot understand why newspapers can print such stories."

Mrs. William Thaw did not visit her son yesterday. Three witnesses, who had volunteered to tell what they knew about the Thaw case, were examined yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Garvan. One of them is said to be a nurse employed in a sanatorium in this city, where Evelyn Nesbit was a patient, and where Harry K. Thaw and Stanford White are said to have visited her.

DODGES BIG CLAIM.

German Insurance Company Denies Fire Liability.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—The Transatlantic fire insurance company of Hamburg, Germany, has refused to pay San Francisco insurance claims amounting to $4,000,000. The following statement was given out Monday night by the local officers of the company: "The Transatlantic fire insurance company denies liability upon the ground that the losses arose from an overwhelming catastrophe, due to a visitation of providence, for indemnity against the consequences of which the policy never was intended to provide and does not provide. Moreover, the attitude of the re-insuring companies at home compels the Transatlantic to assume this position.

Peanut Trade Secrets.

Some peanuts that are bought ready roasted are of a light yellow color. Others, however, are pronounced brutes. There is a reason for this. The great American peanut will remain crisp only a day or two after roasting and in damp weather only a few hours. It absorbs moisture rapidly, so that two days after roasting the finest nuts lose their crispness and are to all intents and purposes as though they had never been cooked. The Italian and Greek peanut men freshen up their stocks by roasting again and re-roasting. When the process has been repeated three or four times, though, the peanut begins to take on a tawny hue, which is considered objectionable by those who have stands in the better parts of town.

These much roasted goobers are therefore sold at a discount in Greek and Italian who have stands near railroad stations and the cheaper resorts, who can roast, re-roast and re-roast them indefinitely until they are finally sold.

Whistler Saved Him.

A certain famous English poet whose name the reader must be left to fill in for himself was once threatened with expulsion from a swell London club for dancing a fandango upon the silk hats of other members. James MacNeill Whistler, however, interposed and saved him with his eloquence. One man of genius, Mr. Whistler urged, was worth any number of silk hats, seeing that silk hats could be replaced and men of genius could not. They and not till then the irate committee reconsidered its decision and accepted the apology which was tendered.

WARSHIPS COLLIDE

Alabama and Illinois, Battleships, Crashed in Fog

NO SERIOUS INJURY DONE

Other Ships of Division Stood by, but Their Assistance Was Not Needed—One Man Reported Killed.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 1.—A collision between the battleships Alabama and Illinois of the second division of the Atlantic battleship fleet, in a thick fog Monday night, was reported yesterday by Rear-Admiral Charles H. Davis.

The squadron was making for this harbor when the Alabama, under the command of Capt. Samuel B. Conly, crashed into the Illinois, which is commanded by Capt. Gottfried Blockinger.

The other vessels constituting the second division—the Indiana and Iowa—stood by, but their assistance was not required.

The report received here was to the effect that neither ship was injured below the water line. Nothing was stated as to the extent of the damage sustained by either warship.

Our Foolish Alphabet.

Why, think of it! We've not even a reputable alphabet. The letters are all tangled up. J is J when it isn't Y, and more than half the time Y is doing duty for I. S is sometimes Z. G is J, and poor C is always either S or K. We've got four distinct ways to express the N sound—gn, pn, kn and j; four ways to write the terminal syllable "er"—er, ar, or and ir; five ways to sound the letters "ough"—uff, awf, ow, oo and o. And there are no rules. Each of the myriad cases must be separately hammered into a student's head. And this is work for babes!—Mary Bronson Hartt in Woman's Home Companion.
