The Favored Chair - no matter where

After the day of sport or work nothing is more welcome than a rest on a shady porch or veranda. You will notice that almost unconsciously one chooses a HEYWOOD-WAKEFIELD Chair. That is because it is comfortable. It is light and easily moved to the coolest spot; yet it is strong enough to stand the wear and tear which outdoor furniture is bound to receive.

As in every other line, we handle only the best Reed and Rattan Furniture. Investigation and experience prove this to be the famous

Mr. Pape speaks enthusiastically of the prospects. He goes to St. Albans this afternoon, where he is to speak this evening.

The single-leaved car bar team added another to its unbroken string of victories when it took the scalp of the clerk's team at Intercity Park yesterday afternoon to the tune of 8 to 5. The clerks showed a lack of practice but undoubtedly will have a strong team before the season ends. Four hits and numerous errors gave the car barn men four runs in the first inning. After this the superb fielding of the clerks, saved Fisher from a more disastrous defeat. The game was called at the end of the 7th inning on account of darkness. The batteries were for the car barn, Scott and Shepard, for the clerks, McLean and Fisher.
