

HARMONY IS ENTHRONED

Massachusetts Republicans Well In Hand

CONVENTION HELD TODAY

Gov. Guild Renominated Without Opposition--Platform Stands by Tariff and Opposes Government Ownership of Railroads

Boston, Oct. 5.—The Republican state convention assembled at Tremont Temple shortly after 10 o'clock today. The platform endorses the President's "Stand Pat" policy so far as the tariff question is concerned. While it approves of the action of the representatives in congress asking for a consideration of the law, it declares all revision should be by friends of the tariff with the principle of protection constantly in mind; it expresses sympathy with the Jews of Russia; it denounces the negro outrages and disenfranchisement in the South; it states opposition to government ownership of railroads; it favors a shipping subsidy.

The entire state ticket will be renominated by acclamation. Governor Guild's name was presented by Congressman John W. Weeks. Ex-Gov. John Bates was elected as permanent chairman.

MEETS WITH ENTHUSIASM.

Hearst Is Carrying Northern New York by Storm.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Unmistakable enthusiasm welcomed William Randolph Hearst, democratic and Independence League candidate for governor, last night in this city. While the farmers received him at Ponda Wednesday and Friday yesterday with interest and non-partisan friendliness rather than enthusiasm, the two large audiences before which he spoke Wednesday night gave him ringing and long continued cheers. Both audiences contained many women, and a large proportion of workmen.

Congressman Lamar of Florida and Clarence J. Shearn of New York spoke before Mr. Hearst arrived.

Mr. Hearst attributed the inequalities of the present day conditions to "our failure to put into practice the principles we profess." According to the American theory, our people should oppose their public officers, actually Mr. Hearst said, "candidates are nominated more and more by political machines, manipulated by bosses in the interest of corrupt corporations."

Both political machines are usually controlled by the corporation, Mr. Hearst declared, and candidates favorable to the corporations are nominated on both tickets.

Mr. Hearst reiterated his former personal declaration of principles—action, rather than words by public officers, impartial enforcement of law; equality of opportunity; purity of politics and fairness in the distribution of wealth.

Hearst Can Do No Wrong.

New York, Oct. 5.—"No matter what Mr. Hearst does, we are going to support him," said Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, last night when asked what attitude Tammany will assume in case the Independence League nominated candidates in this city for the various judicial, senatorial and assembly offices.

GOES TO SUPREME COURT.

Case of J. C. Reagan Who Kept a "Pharmacy."

St. Albans, Oct. 5.—In county court Thursday forenoon a State case was taken up, it being that of State vs. John C. Reagan, charged with keeping a store which he advertised to be a "pharmacy." The case was on a new information filed by the state's attorney, after the previous complaints had been held to be defective and been quashed. S. W. Finn demurred as before. The court held the new things to be good enough to warrant a jury trial, so a jury yesterday forenoon and a verdict of guilty was announced, after an absence of about 15 minutes. Reagan was fined $20 and costs. The case goes to the supreme court on an appeal.

PRESIDENT APPOINTS ROBB OF VERMONT

To Be Associate Justice of Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia—He Is a Bellows Falls Man.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—President Roosevelt appointed Charles H. Robb of Vermont, his assistant attorney general, to be associate justice of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

Bennington, Oct. 5.—At the convention of Women's federated clubs held yesterday afternoon these officers were elected: Mrs. Perley D. Hazen, St. Johnsbury, president; Mrs. M. O. Perkins, Windsor, vice pres.; Mrs. T. A. Davis, Rutland, rec. sec.; Miss Jennie A. Valentine, Bennington, treasurer; Miss Helen Norton, Bennington, state secretary for the general federation; Miss Sarah Balch, St. Johnsbury, auditor. The next meeting will be held in Bennington next season, and the next biennial session of the council will be held in Boston in the summer of 1908.

ASKED TO RESIGN.

Mayor Barney of Lynn Gets After the Water Board.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 5.—The water board implicated in the charges found by the commission, which investigated the scandal in the building of the $300,000 Walden pond, was asked to resign this morning by Mayor Barney.

COMMISSIONER COMING.

To Settle Tariff Disagreements With the German Nation.

Birmingham, Eng., Oct. 5.—The post says that Germany is sending a special commissioner to Washington to settle the tariff disagreement between the two nations. Both the governments are in a conciliatory mood.

IN HORRIBLE CONVULSIONS.

Salem Boy Died Today of Hydrophobia.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 5.—Ten-year-old Louis Moreland died in a horrible convulsion this morning from a bite by a dog received two months ago in Lynn. He was taken sick Wednesday and the case was diagnosed an indigestion.

RESISTED FORCIBLY TODAY.

Cubans at Several Points Didn't Want to Give up Arms.

Havana, Oct. 5.—There was trouble at several points today over disarmament. The insurgents tried forcibly to resist the taking of their weapons away. General Finston has sent marines to Guinea the point of greatest difficulty.

TOOK HEROIC WORK.

To Get Out Bodies of the Entombed Miners.

Pocahontas, Va., Oct. 5.—Eighteen known dead and from thirty to forty men entombed, and doubtless all dead, is the situation at the West Fork mines of the Pocahontas collieries company, where the explosion occurred late Wednesday afternoon.

SCENES WERE PITIABLE

Following Rear-end Collision at Lansingburg, N. Y.

FIVE PERSONS ARE DEAD

And a Score Injured in Crash on Boston & Maine Railroad Last Evening—Engineer of Special Train Was Soon Arrested.

Lansingburg, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Five passengers were killed outright and a score of others seriously injured in a rear-end collision between a regular passenger train and a military special on the Boston and Maine railroad, three miles north of Troy, shortly before five o'clock yesterday.

The dead are: F. L. Block, Peoria, Ill. Mrs. Wallace E. Shaw, Bath, Me. Mrs. ———— Stevens, Boston, Mass. Mrs. J. W. Dacey, Arlington, Mass. Mrs. H. S. Poole, Concord, N. H.

The list of injured thus far obtainable follows:

W. Van Fassett and wife, Boston, seriously injured.

Frank Belcher, Medford, Mass., head cut and both legs fractured.

George D. Stevens, Winchester, Mass., compound fracture of ankle and arm smashed.

Miss Manson, Bath, Me., back badly sprained.

Miss Virginia Manson, three ribs broken.

E. T. Laloux, private, Fort Ethan Allen, arm smashed.

Louis Balch and wife, Newburyport, Mass., Mr. Balch cut about head.

Mr. Balch broken nose and severely bruised.

W. H. Seymour, Kenton, Ohio, scalp wounds.

Mrs. Frank Briard, Boston, Mass., cut badly about head and face and suffering from shock.

Mrs. F. L. Block, Peoria, Ill., fractured spine.

Miss Mason, Bath, Me., leg fractured.

Mrs. Randall, Bath, Me., head gashed.

Mrs. Bennett, Albany, severe shock.

F. A. Mitchell, Falmouth, Me., head and face cut.

Mrs. Frank Briard, Boston, Mass., badly cut about forehead.

The wreck occurred directly in front of the Lansingburg station, three miles from Troy, and at a point where the grade is one of the steepest on the line of the road.

The elevation is about twenty feet, with a steep embankment where the collision occurred.

The snorting of a locomotive just around the curve was the first intimation of the approaching special, which came thundering along with 18 cars on the steep grade and crashed into the rear of the passenger train, smashing the last two cars, which were Pullmans, like egg shells.

Both these cars rolled down the embankment into back yards of tenement houses. The engine of the special turned turtle, the tender telescoping into the car behind and telescoping it.

There was a sudden rush and then through the gathering dusk rose the cries of the injured and dying.

The special was carrying four troops of the 16th United States cavalry from Fort Eikan Allen to Newport News, where they were to embark for Cuba. The soldiers quickly began the work of rescue.

One man's grief was pitiable. His name was J. W. Dacey and he ran up and down the track crying for his wife. In a few minutes, when his lifeless form was identified, he collapsed. Later he said that he had been married Wednesday night at Arlington, Mass. The couple were on their honeymoon.

Engineer Thomas Holleran of the special, who lives in Troy, surrendered himself to the police. He was looked up. He would make no statement.

INJURED EXPECTED TO RECOVER.

Complete List of the Injured in Wreck Last Evening.

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 5.—A complete list of the injured in the collision last night on the troop train and a Boston special are: George D. Stevens of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Van Tassel and Mrs. Frank Briard of Boston, Frank Belcher of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Balch of Newburyport, M. J. Jaston of Hoffman's Corner, E. H. Butterfield of West Somerville, W. J. Cronin of Cambridge, all from Massachusetts; Miss Virginia Manson, Miss Ellen Manson, Miss Carrie Manson, Mrs. Charles Blair, Mrs. Florence Randall, Mrs. Jane Moulton, Mrs. B. W. Hathorne, Miss Jones of Bath, Me., and H. F. Mitchell of Falmouth, Me. All are expected to recover.

NEW FACTORY IN RUTLAND.

S. and J. A. Steward Building a Tin Can Manufacturing Plant.

Rutland, Oct. 5.—A good example of prosperity in Rutland industrial circles is the beginning yesterday of a new home on recently purchased lands by L. & J. A. Steward, tin can manufacturers, one of the city's newest manufacturers. The new factory will be two stories high and 150 by 40 feet in dimensions. It is located on the railroad track, a feature lacking in the old plant.

Shelton, Oct. 5.—Dr. F. R. Stiles of St. Johnsbury, president of the state board of health, is here investigating a complaint concerning a sewer leading from the creamery.

St. Albans Man Bankrupt.

Burlington, Oct. 5.—A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday by Hermann Pfeiffer, a civil engineer of St. Albans. He has liabilities of $397 and no assets.

HAVE DELIGHTFUL EXHIBITS.

Odd Ladies Opened Their Fair in Miles' Hall Last Night.

The Odd Ladies opened their annual three nights fair in Miles' hall last evening, and it promises to be one of the most successful fairs that the ladies have ever held. There was a large attendance for the opening night, and nothing but words of praise could be heard on every side for the excellent preparations that they have made. The decorations of the booths is a treat to see. An unusual amount of work has been put into trimming this year, and the ladies are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts.

Without doubt the prettiest booth in the hall is the apron booth, which was especially designed and decorated by James Robertson of the Daylight store. It is a large booth with a proscenium-shaped front, and is most artistically decorated in green and white colors. The ladies have very pretty and desirable articles for sale at reasonable prices. At the candy booth there is delicious home-made candy. The ladies in charge of this booth are the Misses Marnie Roeside, Annie Stewart and Christine McKinzie. At the apron booth are Mrs. D. W. Faulkner, Mrs. John Taylor and Miss Katherine Mathison. The apron booth contains articles that are well worth your attention. The ladies in charge here are Mrs. Anna Morrison, Mrs. Clifford Cote, Mrs. Louise Clark. At the back of the hall in the right hand corner is a lower of cedar and pine concealed in which are untold mysteries. Mrs. Iva Gault, Mrs. Alex. Stewart and Mrs. Samuel McMurray are in charge.

The last booth at the right of the hall is the flower booth, where all kinds of flowers are for sale and also jellies and fruit. It is in charge of Mrs. Sarah Taylor, Mrs. Nellie Bianchi and Mrs. Isabelle Milne.

The ice cream tables are tended by Mrs. Kate Crowley, Mrs. Lizzie Davidson and Mrs. Geneva Bainbridge. Miss Stella Graham and Miss Lizzie Stephens have in charge of the lemonade stand.

At the beginning of the programme the program, in behalf of the Odd Ladies extended a hearty welcome to the people present. He stated that the Odd Ladies had been organized about four years and were one of the most prosperous ladies' orders in the city. They have now about 100 members. The entertainment was very enjoyable, consisting of a piano solo by Miss Maude Colburn, a vocal solo by William Sherrill, vocal solo by Miss Katherine Mathison, duet by William Oliver and Nicholas Veale. At the close of the programme the floor was cleared for dancing, music being furnished by Gilbert and the four pieces.

The ladies' committee which has the fair in charge is composed of Mrs. John Murray, Mrs. John Forbes, Mrs. Anna Morrison, Mrs. Clifford Cote, Mrs. Louise Clark, Miss Marnie Roeside, Miss Christine McKinzie, Mrs. B. W. Faulkner and Mrs. Margaret Stephens.

The programme for Saturday evening's entertainment is a vocal solo by William Robertson, a vocal solo by Mrs. R. W. Bealey, a fancy drill by the Odd Ladies' team. Miss Mary Walker is accompanist.

Programme for Tonight.

Schumann quartette, Emma J. Phillips, 1st soprano; Nellie L. Bradley, 2nd soprano; Mable N. Gale, 1st alto; Maudie E. Harris, 2nd alto.

"Love's Old Sweet Song," Smith. Quartette.

Song selected. Miss Emma J. Phillips.

"The Rose," Wein. Quartette.

Reading, selected. Miss Wright.

Echoes of the Hall, Housley, Quartette.

Miss Mary Walker, accompanist.

DICKIE SINGERS WITH BOSTON POLICE

Barre Wanders Are Held as Runaways To Await the Arrival of a Barre Policeman.

The Dickies, David and William, who are known for their wanderings as well as their singing, were taken in charge in Boston yesterday as told by the following from today's Globe: "Soon afterward David and William Dickie, brothers, whose home is in Barre, Vt., were brought in on the charge of being runaway children. They have been missing from home for some time and in their absence have been making a living by street singing. David has a sweet soprano voice and William is a tenor. After they had been registered they were put in a rear room, but hadn't been there long before they began singing, much to the consternation of those below, who were suffering for a long time to quench their thirst.
