

CHAMPIONS OF THE WORLD Chicago Americans Won That Title

BY YESTERDAY'S VICTORY

Superior Batting Enabled Them to Take Their Fourth Game, the Score Being 8 to 3—Brown Was Knocked Out of the Box.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—The Chicago club of the American baseball league became the champions of the world by winning yesterday's game, 8 to 3, against the local club of the National league.

That the victory was fairly earned is shown not only by the fact that the Americans won four out of six games, but by the hits and runs. The Americans all told made 22 runs, compared with 18 by the Nationals. They made 39 base hits, as against 37 by the Nationals.

Among the expert critics of baseball, it is generally admitted that to the American pitchers most of the credit is due, despite the fact that they have but 26 strikeouts to their credit against 35 by the Nationals' pitchers.

Notwithstanding this, the American pitchers were effective when their bats were in play. On the other hand the Americans batted more strongly than their opponents, who during the season had done the heaviest batting in the National league.

In stealing bases the Nationals had a shade over the Americans. Kiling and Sullivan, who caught during the entire series, were both formidable, but of the total 13 bases stolen, the Nationals got eight.

A total of 14 hits, two of them doubles, tells the story of how yesterday's game was won. Captain Chase elected to place Mordecai Brown in the box, although Brown had pitched a hard game on Friday.

When the Americans assumed a lead of six runs, the National players were a grimly determined lot, but try as they would they could not solve the puzzling delivery of Dr. White.

The score by innings: Americans 3 4 4 5 6 7 8 9 Nationals 1 0 0 1 0 0 1 3

Hits, Nationals 7, American 14; errors, Americans 3, National 0; batteries, Americans, White and Sullivan; Nationals, Overall, Brown and Kiling; umpires, O'Loughlin and Johnstone.

HEAVY RAINS IN PANAMA. Another Obstacle to Making the Dirt Fly in the Ditch.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.—The very severe rainy season here caused inundations in the interior of the Republic of Panama, principally in the province of Los Santos, where heavy losses have been suffered.

The circuit happened to be crossed with the Mascosa electric light company line, containing 2000 volts. A slight groan from Gasset when he touched the live wire attracted the attention of Nelson Dupes, on the arm above Gasset, and he reached over and pulled Gasset up by the belt as he lay upon the wires.

Both of his hands are severely burned where he seized the wires, and across one of his feet a hole was burned as large as a man's thumb. There are sores all over his body caused by the electric current.

STEALING TEAM CHARGED. A "Doctor" Alleged to Have Stolen It at Brattleboro.

Newport, N. H., Oct. 15.—Just a few minutes before 9 o'clock Friday evening, Sheriff Gunnison received a telephone message from Howard & Yearly of Brattleboro, Vt., asking him to be on the lookout for a team that had been lost by them the night before.

The team was located almost immediately by Sheriff Gunnison in the stable owned by J. H. Glynn, and the owner had registered at the Newport house under the name of G. W. Gilbert, M. D., of Boston, Mass.

During the night he took a dose of four grains of morphine, but owing to the largeness of the dose it failed to work in the right direction, and late Saturday afternoon he had recovered from the effects of the drug.

On the arrival of Mr. Howard he easily identified the man. He saw Stanton and the latter agreed to return to Brattleboro as soon as he was able and settle the matter satisfactorily.

Mr. Howard then returned to Brattleboro with his team. Late in the day Stanton refused to accompany Gunnison to Vermont, and said that he would return to the city on his own.

HAD A CLOSE CALL. Telephone Workman Seized a Live Wire: Made Unconscious.

White River Junction, Oct. 15.—Paul Gasset, subcontractor of Oscar Gasset's telephone construction crew from Boston, who came here to transpire wires on the B. & N. E. telephone and telegraph system, narrowly escaped electrocution Tuesday.

The circuit happened to be crossed with the Mascosa electric light company line, containing 2000 volts. A slight groan from Gasset when he touched the live wire attracted the attention of Nelson Dupes, on the arm above Gasset, and he reached over and pulled Gasset up by the belt as he lay upon the wires.

MARTIN IS SELECTED

For United States District Judge

TO SUCCEED H. H. WHEELER

O. M. Barber of Bennington to Be the District Attorney for District of Vermont, to Succeed Martin.

Washington, Oct. 15.—The Vermont congressional delegation has recommended to the President the appointment of James L. Martin, U. S. district attorney for Vermont, as U. S. district judge in place of Judge H. H. Wheeler, who has announced his intention to retire after a continuous service of 29 years.

Senator Proctor was at the White House a few days ago and presented Mr. Martin's name to the President. Today Representative Foster called and told the President that Mr. Martin's appointment would be acceptable to the congressional delegation as well as the lawyers of the state, and the appointment will be made in a short time.

Mr. Martin will be succeeded as district attorney by O. M. Barber of Bennington, who has the endorsement of lawyer and is highly regarded. Judge Darling, formerly assistant secretary of the navy, was mentioned as the successor both to Judge Wheeler and Dist. Atty Martin, but Judge Darling has too lucrative a place as collector of customs at Burlington to care to relinquish it either for the bench or the district attorney's office.

The office of collector of customs at Burlington pays $12,000 a year, and is believed to be the highest paid federal office in the country with the exception of the presidency and the supreme court of the United States. The salary of district judge is $6000 a year and that of district attorney $3000.

Dist. Atty James L. Martin is a native of Landgrove, Vt., and was 40 years old Sept. 13. He worked his way through the academies at Landgrove and Marlow, N. H. and then studied law in Judge Wheeler's office in Jamaica. He was graduated from Albany law school in 1880 and was admitted to the bar that year.

He at once opened an office in Londonderry, Vt., and was there until 1888, when he came to Brattleboro. He represented Londonderry in the legislature in 1874, 1876, 1878, 1880 and 1882, and was speaker of the house the three terms last mentioned. Hereafter Brattleboro in 1892. He was appointed state tax commissioner in 1888, and again in 1892. He was appointed to his present position by President McKinley in 1897, and is serving his third term.

Through his aggressive work the illegal immigration of Chinamen over the Vermont border has been stopped. Orion M. Barber of Bennington was born in Jamaica in 1857, attended the district schools and Albany law school and was admitted to the bar in 1882, settling in Arlington. He represented the town in the legislature in 1894, and in the senate in 1894, chairman of committee on codifying laws in 1893, railroad commissioner from 1894 to 1896, and has held numerous local offices, including state attorney. He is an attorney of unusual diligence and learning and with special fitness for the office of district attorney.

UNIONS TO AVOID POLITICS. But Declare for the General Strike and Expropriation of Capital.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The trades union congress at its closing session at Amiens, France, Saturday defeated by 830 to 8 votes a motion to enter into permanent relations with the Socialists, and adopted a resolution to hold aloof and settle all disputes on the basis of the trades unions, for the present to the amelioration of the condition of the workmen, etc., but declaring the adherence of the congress to the principle of a general strike for the accomplishment of the final object of the trades unions, namely, the expropriation of capital and social reorganization on a basis by which the unions would ultimately become producers and distributors.

Corey to Wed Miss Gilman. Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.—The Washington Star says: "Mr. William Ellis Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, and Miss Mabelle Gilman, a former actress and singer, will be married next month in Paris, according to authoritative information."

"Mr. Corey has recently leased a most luxurious establishment in the French capital."

New York, Oct. 15.—"I am satisfied that we cannot be beaten if we are not overconfident," declared Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor of New York, upon the completion at Amsterdam, N. Y., Saturday night of his first upstate campaign tour.

Mr. Hughes made five speeches Saturday in as many different places, one of them being his first effort as a rear platform orator. This was at Fonda, where the candidate arrived in the afternoon. Previously he had spoken in the opera house at Little Falls, where he received the most enthusiastic welcome of his trip.

He had only 15 minutes to speak, but his address was the most spirited yet made, and nearly every sentence of it was applauded. From Fonda he went to Gloversville, then to Johnston and Amsterdam. He was warmly received everywhere. In his speeches Saturday, all of them delivered in industrial centers, Mr. Hughes made an especial appeal to the laboring men and made a more direct attack on William R. Hearst than in any of the speeches of his campaign.

Mr. Hughes set out Saturday a statement as to the results of his first trip through the state. He elaborated upon this Saturday night in another statement, in which he said in part: "The most significant feature of the trip has been the cordial support of which old-time Democrats have personally assured me. It is evident that there is a widespread revolt on the part of the members of the Democratic party in the interest of decency and order. I have not found indications of any serious defection from the Republican ranks, and the outlook is most encouraging. I am satisfied that we cannot be beaten if we are not overconfident. We want support not merely at meetings, but on registration day and on election day."

New York, Oct. 15.—William R. In the afternoon he spoke before a more typically rural meeting at Oswego, Tioga county. Mr. Hearst is considerably fatigued by his travel and speechmaking.

In beginning his speech at both meetings Saturday, Mr. Hearst alluded to Mr. Hughes' quoted references to "loose talk and attempts to focus attention upon alleged wrongs," and to the suggestion that Mr. Hearst should go home and go quietly about his business until the people demand his candidacy.
