Fair Co-eds at Northwestern University Rebel at the Segregation Edict.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 16.—Several hundred co-eds at Northwestern University, the great Methodist institution in Evanston, have about decided there is nothing in life after all.

Everything possible is being done by the faculty to discourage the co-eds from associating with male students.

No roses or chocolates from the men. No after-theatre cab rides from the railroad station to their homes.

No callers permitted to stay after 9:30 o'clock, and all lights out at 10 o'clock.

No spooning on college steps or courting on the college campus. No moonlight walks without a chaperon.

No boat rides on the lake unless in the company of a member of the United States life saving crew.

No sorority houses.

SOCIAL TRAGEDY

Women Who Brave Death for Social Honors.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The result was that she escaped the surgeon's knife and to-day is a well woman.

The derangement of the delicate female organism sets every nerve in the body quivering with pain. Headaches, backaches, torturing bearing down pains and dragging sensations make women nervous and hysterical.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my system and brought on extreme nervousness and hysteria. I could neither enjoy my meals nor sleep nights, became easily irritated and nervous and very despondent. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only medicine which helped me. After taking the third bottle, my general health began to improve. At the end of the fifth month I was well and could attend to my household and social duties and enjoy life.

Mrs. CURRY, 42 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Curry, whose portrait appears on the right, is the leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra. The following letter is from Miss Goode, President of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I tried many different remedies to try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unseasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. My mother is a great advocate of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it and in less than a month I was able to get out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since.

Miss CORA GOODE, 365 E. Chicago Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Pinkham's advice is free to all. Her address is Lynn, Mass.
