TALK OF THE TOWN.

Roller skating today. Wrapper sale at Vaughan's. Only three more days of Abbott's clearance sale. Ladies' dress skirts at a great reduction at Perry's. B. W. Melton of Newport was in the city on business Saturday. Mrs. S. H. Unwin of Marshfield visited friends in the city Saturday. Read B. W. Hooker & Co.'s red tag sale advertisement on the 8th page. Where did you get that pretty fur and so reasonable? Why, at Perry's store! Furs at cost, winter coats at half price. Be sure and see our bargain counter. Veale & Knight. Dr. Duffy has moved his office from No. 1 South Main street to the corner of Main and Granite streets. Earl Smith finished work Saturday night at Reynolds' hardware store and has entered Goddard seminary. Robert O. McDonnell arrived in town last night from Quincy, Mass., and will remain for several days on business. Mrs. Isabelle Bonnyman, who has been confined to the house by sickness for the past two weeks is now on the gain. Don't miss inspecting our new display of box paperies and note prices and also quality. C. N. Kenyon & Co.'s Bargain Store. B. W. Hooker & Co. are sure that the public appreciate a genuine clearance sale by the number of sales made in the first half day. The Perrin Hill S. S. Home Department, instead of the sewing department, met at the home of Mrs. George Cassie last Friday evening. Miss Lena Tacey held the lucky coupon which drew the fur-lined coat at the Lorne Elwyn company's matinee Saturday afternoon; No. 5549 was the number. On account of the snow storm Saturday the ice races which were to have been held on the river at North Montpelier were postponed until Saturday, January 19. Miss Christina Hay, who has been visiting relatives in this city for the past four months, left this noon for Boston, where she will take passage for her home in Aberdeen, Scotland. A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday evening, January 16, at 6:30 o'clock in the church vestry. All the members are requested to be present promptly at 6:30. Tickets for the performance of "The Gingerbread Man" go on sale tonight at 7 o'clock. Orders by telephone will be taken, but will not be filled until the patrons who are lined up waiting to buy have been supplied. There will be a supper served in the vestry of the Universalist church on Friday evening. It will be the aim of those in charge to serve an especially nice supper, as this is the beginning of the work for the year. See menu tomorrow. Let us make blouses for your little boys and pajamas for your boys and girls. On our power machines we can make them much cheaper than you can make them at home and better than you can buy them. Mrs. J. E. Darling, manufacturer of the "Darling" waists for children, 8 Laurel street, Barre, Vt. Tel. 158-4. The Central Vermont shifting engine had a sinking spell Saturday, but had recovered enough yesterday so that a number of granite sheds received cars of rough stock. The engine met with a mishap while setting a car into the Harrison company's shed, the pony truck mounting the rail and then going off the iron. The board of deacons and trustees, with the consent of the session, respectfully call attention of the members and adherents of the Presbyterian church to the annual meeting on Wednesday evening, January 16th, at 7 o'clock sharp. It is earnestly hoped that a full attendance be present. All organizations will please have their several reports of church work with them that night. Avviso. Abbiamo il piacere di annunziare alla colonia Italiana di Barre e vicinanza che abbiamo impiegato nel nostro negozio il commesso Italiano, V. Cravello detto Crolla, il quale e popolarmente conosciuto da tutti, e non vi e dubbio che la clientela Italiana trovera nel nostro negozio un pronto servizio, merce di prima classe, a prezzi onesti ed alla portata di tutte le borse. Frank McWhorter Co., 20 and 22 North Main street, Barre, Vt. Di fianco all'Hooker. A very interesting game of basket ball was played Friday night in the Church street gymnasium when the middle girls of Spaulding high school won from the senior girls by a score of 10 to 5. The lineup was as follows: seniors, Ewen c., Bradford r. l., Cheney l. l., Hoar r. g., Stoughton and Carson l. r.; middle, Grigg c., Brown l. g., Miles and Laxon r. g., Knight l. l., Gladding r. l. ## THREE DAYS MORE OF OUR CLEARANCE SALE

Have these words, Clearance Sale, become an annoyance to you? If they have, you no doubt have got values at this sale so good that you will listen for a similar call next season.

STOCK TAKING	VERY NEAR	JUST A WORD.
Brings to our attention many odd pieces, some of them in small pieces, others larger than we would like to see. These all go onto our tables at prices that will make the story short. All Dress Goods in our stock at a discount until Thursday, January 17, then they will go back to old prices. There is no profit in them at any less. Our object is to reduce the stock. Buy a New Idea Pattern, then you won't need as much material.	The last days that you will have to stock up on Table Linen and Towels. No such sale again for one year at least and not then unless linens take a drop in cost of manufacture. Towels that we are selling you today for 12 1-2c will next cost you 20c or more. Towels that are now 19c will be poorer in quality at 25c. Crash that is all linen now at 9c will be 12 1-2c or more.	If you are in need of a Fur Coat for street or driving purposes you will never get a better assortment at this time of the year than now. We cut prices on these Coats Wednesday morning. If you get your size you will have to come at once. $25.00 Driving Coats now $17.50, $27.50 Coats for $19.00, $30.00 Coats for $20.00, $42.50 Coats for $27.50 and $55.00 Coon Coats now $37.50. Prices are made on Ladies' Fur Driving Coats to close them, as we are not going to carry them another season.

YOU SHOULD FOR A FEW DAYS WATCH OUR REMNANT TABLES VERY CLOSELY.
