HARRIS GIVEN AN INJUNCTION.

Further Publication of His Tucker Trial Review Is Barred by Court.

Boston, Jan. 16.—An injunction against the New England Publishing company, owner of Hearst's Boston American, restraining it from continuing the unauthorized publication of a review of the Tucker trial by Dr. Francis A. Harris, former medical examiner, was granted Dr. Harris by Judge Gaskill in the superior court yesterday.

Dr. Harris claimed exclusive property in the document, which he declared had been sent to James H. Vahy, counsel for Tucker, by mistake, to use in connection with an application for the commutation of Tucker's sentence. How the newspaper got possession of a copy of the doctor's manuscript did not appear. It did appear, however, that neither Dr. Harris nor Mr. Vahy care it or authorized anyone to give it a copy.

AGE IS NO BAR.

Pretty Girl 26 Weds Man 75 and Says Love Does Not Count Years.

Middleboro, Mass., Jan. 16.—A romantic courtship was brought to a close Monday evening, when Francis Parker Fletcher, aged 75, and Lillian Frances McKean, 26, were married at the home of the groom on Highland street in the Hook village, five miles from here. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Allen.

This is Mr. Fletcher's third marriage on the sea of matrimony. He has two daughters and several grandchildren. Thus the youthful bride of 26 will have standards older than her self, who have children of about her own age. She is good looking.

The groom does not look his age, and is as spry as a youth. He says a man is as young as he feels, and he is delighted that he has won the prettiest girl from the youths of the village.

Miss McKean says that she married Mr. Fletcher because she loved him, and age did not enter into the matter. They will reside on Highland street.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL BEATEN

In House Committee Aker Hard Fight

THE VOTE, EIGHT TO SEVEN

Members of the Committee Tried in Vain to Get Permission to Six Longer, But Their Plan Was Nipped.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—The struggle in the House committee on merchant marines between the advocates and opponents of ship subsidy, reached a climax yesterday.

After two hours of an intense committee session which began promptly at 10 o'clock, the result recorded was the defeat of the senate subsidy bill by a vote of 8 to 7. The Democratic members of the committee generally voted for the Senate bill and its defeat was accomplished by Republican members.

The Republicans intended to follow the defeat of the senate by a vote in support of the Groverver substitute, providing for subsidized mail lines to South American ports and for more assistance to the trans-Pacific lines before this vote could be taken, however, the hour of noon arrived and the point of order was raised that the committee was without authority to sit during the sessions of the House, and that consequently any action it might take after 12 o'clock would be invalid.

Representative Watson left the committee room at once and went to the house floor, where he was recognized by the speaker and asked that the committee might continue its sittings.

Representative Patterson of Tennessee left the room simultaneously with Mr. Watson and before the latter could secure recognition from the speaker, communicated with the minority floor leader, Mr. Williams, who presented the unanimous consent required by Mr. Watson.

In expressing his opposition Mr. Williams said, if allowed to sit the committee would report a ship subsidy bill to which he was opposed.

GATUN DAM BASE STABLE.

Chairman Shonts Presents Report on the Borings.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The report of borings on the site of the proposed dam at Gatun, for the Panama canal, which was called for by the Senate committee on interoceanic canals, has been received, and will be considered on Tuesday next.

Accompanying the report are maps which show that the foundation of indurated clay underneath rock is thin in many places and lies on a stratum of softer material which has been given its scientific names by the engineers who made the borings. Chairman Shonts of the canal commission has written a letter to Senator Millard, chairman of the Senate canal committee, declaring that there can be no doubt of the stability of the foundation for a dam at Gatun. Inasmuch as advocates of the sea level project question the suitability of indurated clay as a foundation for the great dam, it is said these senators will not be satisfied with a report showing that portions of the dam are to be built on a foundation of material softer than indurated clay.

TO CONFIRM CORTELYOU.

Committee Also Approves of the Nomination of Garfield.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The Senate committee on finance yesterday agreed to report favorably the nomination of Postmaster General Cortelyou to be secretary of the treasury and James R. Garfield, commissioner of corporations, to be secretary of the interior.

MRS. ROBERT WHITELEY

Mr. Robert Whiteley, of Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "My wife was subject to chronic stomach trouble and terrible nervousness; she was thin, and had a worn out look. Doctors, after great expense, all failed to help her. At last she tried Vinol, and soon the change in her condition seemed almost miraculous. She continued its use, and today she is in perfect health and gained 36 pounds—her friends hardly know her so great is the change. To Vinol we give all the praise, and everywhere I recommend your Vinol, as I have great faith in it. Vinol is successful in cases like this because it contains in a concentrated form all of the curative properties contained in cod liver oil, the useless oil eliminated and tonic for added. Try Vinol on our guarantee."

SCHOONER MISSING SIX MONTHS REACHES PORT

She Was Bound from Cape Breton for Chester, Pa., and Has Reached San Juan.

Chester, Pa., Jan. 16.—One of the most remarkable cases of an overdue boat coming into port after she had been given up for lost is that of the rymasted schooner Hunt, which left St. Ann's, Cape Breton, six months ago, bound for this port, with a cargo of gypsum rock, and has just been reported as having put in at San Juan, Porto Rico, Monday. A new captain has gone to pilot the ship to this port. The Hunt left Boston July 15 last for St. Ann's. It is a four days' voyage, but the Hunt did not reach her destination for seven weeks. Her captain reported he had been blown 500 miles to sea.

GALE HALTS GOLD SEEKERS.

Machinery to Pump Out Sunken Treasure Ship Swept Away.

Guadalajara, Mexico, Jan. 16.—Hope of securing the gold buried in the bulk of the steamship Golden Gate, sunk on the Colima coast, is at an end for at least a year. The 250-foot pier built from the beach to the wreck and the boilers, centrifugal pumps, and other equipment built by the persons who undertook to regain the treasure were swept into the ocean in the storm which raged along the Pacific coast of Mexico last week.

B. M. Richardson of Philadelphia, J. E. Phillips of Denver, and S. M. Phillips of Danville, Ill., were interested in the expedition.

The Golden Gate was beached in 1861. She was on her way from San Francisco to New York and carried $1,500,000.

FRYE IN MAINE.

Re-elected to United States Senate by Easy Margin.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 16.—Ballots were cast in both branches of the legislature yesterday for United States senator and the result showed the re-election of Senator William P. Frye over the Democratic candidate, Sheriff William H. Pennell of Cumberland county. The result will be formally declared at a joint convention to be held today. The vote in the Senate gave Frye 23 and Pennell 6, and in the House gave Frye 86 and Pennell 60.

Senator Frye will soon be 70 years old and has served in Congress for almost thirty-six years. From 1874 to 1881 he was a member of the House of Representatives, being elected to the Senate in 1881 to succeed James G. Blaine, who had resigned to become secretary of state in President Garfield's cabinet. He has been re-elected four times, his term of service being one of the longest in the Senate.

ANOTHER TERM FOR BURNHAM.

Both Branches of New Hampshire Legislature Vote for Senator.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 16.—In the vote cast for United States senator in both branches of the legislature yesterday, Senator Henry E. Burnham, Republican, received 226 votes in the House and Nathan C. Jameson, Democrat, 117, and George B. Leighton, Republican, 11, in the Senate. Burnham received 15 and Jameson 6.

DEADLOCK IN RHODE ISLAND.

Neither Candidate for Senator Has Votes Enough to Elect.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 16.—A deadlock resulted from the first ballot taken in the Rhode Island legislature for the choice of a United States senator to succeed Senator George Peabody Wetmore. Fifty-six votes will be necessary for a choice when the election comes up in joint convention of the Senate and House, but the vote cast in the branches separately yesterday indicated that neither candidate will have sufficient support to insure his election. The total of the votes cast in the two houses was as follows: Colonel R. H. I. Goddard of Providence, 41 votes; Colonel Samuel Pomeroy Colt of Bristol, 39; Senator George Peabody Wetmore, 21. The House and Senate will meet in joint assembly today, but the prospect of an early break in the deadlock in view of yesterday's developments seems doubtful. In the Senate Colonel Colt had 17 votes, Senator Wetmore 14 and Colonel Goddard 8, Colonel Colt lacking three votes of the number necessary to give him a majority in this body. In the House the number of votes necessary for a choice was 27. Of this number Colonel Goddard had 37, Colonel Colt 22 and Senator Wetmore 17.

MINARD'S KING OF PAIN LINIMENT

Gives Instant Relief

Minard's Liniment was prescribed by Dr. Levi Minard in his private practice fifty years ago. It is the most effective, economical, and clean-to-use external application for rheumatism, neuralgia, pleurisy, stiff, twisted joints, sore, strained, or lame muscles, tired, aching feet, any pain or ache, as well as for throat and lung troubles and as a general family medicine. So pure and harmless, so powerful, penetrating, and soothing, Minard's Liniment has justly earned its title, King of Pain.

CURED THIS MAN

Will Cure You

"Accept my heartfelt thanks on behalf of my aged father, who for the past six months has been severely troubled with rheumatism in his left arm, so much so that he could no longer work at his tailoring profession, and after consulting the leading specialists of the city, and trying enough so-called remedies to sink a boat, we finally made our mind that he was a hopeless invalid. I can truthfully assert the fact that my father's paralyzed arm regained its full vigor and it is today as well as it ever was, after using Minard's Liniment.—Francis N. Spicola, 85 Penn St., Providence, R. I."

NO FOREIGN LOAN.

Russia Expects to Handle Deficit by Herself.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 16.—The deficit in the budget of 1907, will, if the expectations of Finance Minister Kokovsov are realized, be covered entirely from internal sources and without resort to a foreign loan. In an interview, yesterday, the minister said he hoped that a large part of the deficit of $121,500,000 would be balanced by the excess of income in 1907, and it would not be necessary to raise more than $70,000,000 by an internal loan. M. Kokovsov, who referred most optimistically to the financial and internal condition of Russia, said the issue of the loan would be due almost entirely to the settlement of outstanding war expenses and to the relief of the unusually severe famine conditions. He apparently regarded 1907 as being the last year of Russia's extreme financial perplexities. "While it is impossible to predict the future," he said, "I absolutely believe that we are justified in expecting a surplus income of from $50,000,000 to $70,000,000."

THINK HALVES ARE TOO SHORT.

Pennsylvania to Advocate Change in the Present Football Rules.

New York, Jan. 16.—Longer halves in football games will be urged by Pennsylvania at the next meeting of the Intercollegiate Football association. The Quakers feel that under the present playing rules, the game is not long enough to be satisfactory. Under the rules there were more no-score games between the big college teams last season than in the previous five years. "The playing time of the important football games was certainly much too short last year, and this fault should be corrected before we start another season," said Pennsylvania's head coach, Dr. Robert G. Torrey, in an interview Monday.

New England Governors in Behalf of Forests

TO CONFER WITH CANNON

Governor Floyd of New Hampshire Is Latest One to Announce His Purpose to Join the Movement Within Short Time.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 16.—Governor Charles M. Floyd, it is announced, will join the governors of other New England States or their representatives and the governors and representatives of several Southern States in Washington next Friday for a conference with Speaker Cannon of the National House of Representatives to urge the importance of the immediate consideration of the bill to create a forest reserve in the White Mountains. The bill has passed the Senate without dissent and has been unanimously reported to the House from the committee on Agriculture, and its final passage has been repeatedly urged by President Roosevelt. Speaker Cannon, it is said, has expressed the opinion that the bill would not be reached at this great manufacturing industry, which depends largely upon the water power that springs from the White Mountain water shed, is claimed to be seriously menaced by delay in stopping the stripping of the forestland slopes.

EMMA GOLDMAN AND BERKMAN SET FREE

Charges Against the Anarchists Are Dropped—They Had Been Arrested for Making Incendiary Speeches.

New York, Jan. 16.—Acting upon the recommendation of Assistant District Attorney Keogh, Magistrate Moss in the Essex Market court yesterday signed the discharge papers of Emma Goldman, the woman anarchist, and her companions, Alexander Berkman and John Corryell.

In asking for the discharge of the trio Mr. Keogh said he was influenced by the fact that the grand jury a few days ago had refused to indict Miss Goldman for making an alleged incendiary speech some time ago at the Manhattan Lyceum. He said the present case against the three defendants was of a similar character, and that he believed that it would be useless to further prosecute them.

OUTWITTED KEEPERS.

E. J. Russell Jumped Off Train—Was Recaptured.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 16.—E. J. Russell, the man who Monday was adjudged by Justice Traux of the supreme court of New York county to be insane, early yesterday escaped from the guards who were taking him to the Dannamora asylum for the criminal insane. The fact that he was slightly injured and left in a dazed condition by his fall from the train, made it a comparatively easy task to recapture him.

It was while the train was passing through Troy that Russell made his break for liberty. He pleaded illness and the lack of fresh air in the coach, and was allowed to go out upon the platform of the car without an attendant to watch him. Once outside the car he slipped his handcuffs and leaped from the train.

His absence was quickly discovered. That he had not fallen from the car, but had planned to break for freedom was shown by the fact that he left the handcuffs behind him. The train was quickly stopped and the guards hurried back along the track in search of their prisoner. He was found in the street not far from the railroad, wandering aimlessly, and too dazed by his fall to make any further attempt to escape.

MALONEY ON BASE STEALING.

Brooklyn Star Says Good Start is Everything in Running Bases.

"Billy" Maloney, the agile center fielder of the Brooklyn, who is known all over the country for his wonderful ability in stealing bases, has the following to say about the act: "There is one feature of the play that receives practically no attention in practice. It is well known that without a good start it is next to impossible to steal a base on the fine throwing catchers of today. Base stealing depends largely upon getting a good lead, and fooling the catcher as to when you intend to steal. The pitcher's duty is to hold the runner as closely to the base as he can, while the catcher keeps his eye on the runner and when he thinks he is going to steal, signals the pitcher for a shoulder high ball away from the plate, so he can make a quick throw to second in an effort to head the runner. The base runner should never attempt to steal when the battery is playing for him, that is to say, when the pitcher is wasting balls to give a catcher a better chance to throw. One of the best balls to get away is a slow in-shoot. If the runner had a good lead and started with the pitcher's arm the chances are all in his favor that he will beat the ball to second. The trouble with many runners is that they do not get away fast enough. It is a fact that a runner can greatly increase his speed by diligently practicing getting off the mark. How many bases have you seen lost by a fraction of a second? If the runner had known how to start, he probably would have gained the base for the advantage of a few feet would have beaten the throw from the catcher."
