THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

TUESDAY, JAN. 22, 1907.

Weather Prediction.

Snow tonight and colder in west portion. Wednesday fair and much colder; fresh easterly to southerly winds, becoming light westerly by tonight and Wednesday.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Local Happenings Tensely Told for Busy Readers.

New spring shirt waists at Perry's. Special price on allover laces at The Vaughan store.

See how well we back our advertisements. Moore & Owens.

A new line of local postal cards in leather at Dodge's jewelry store.

A few applications of Kondrick's Corn Cure will remove the deepest-rooted corns. Warranted. 25c.

C. A. Badger, who scored 96 out of possible 100 points at the Burlington dairy exhibit, has put his butter on sale in Smith & Cummings' store, and asks people to try it.

Miss Alice Mercer has returned to her home in this city. She has been working in Montreal for the past three months as a stenographer and returns home because of poor health.

Firm alarm inspector Henry Hodgdon today replaced box 32 on Washington street, so that it is now in working order. The old box was smashed by a runaway team a short time ago.

The train which is supposed to leave Barre for Williamstown at 1:20 was cancelled yesterday afternoon because of an indisposition of the locomotive to do its duty. The disabled engine was left here to recuperate.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Roller skating this afternoon and evening.

Albert Abbott is able to be out after his recent illness.

Remember the big sale of ladies' furs at Perry's. Don't miss this opportunity.

Frank Andross of Baldwinville, Mass., is in the city on business for a few days.

Frank Millman returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit with friends in Bellows Falls.

J. Stanlake of Durkee place resumed work yesterday after a two weeks' illness with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilman of Claremont, N. H., are visiting Mrs. Gilman's parents, Mayor and Mrs. Bately.

Rocco Marchesi and family left this morning for New York, and will take passage tomorrow for Italy, where they will reside.

Comi Brothers will give a wonderful exhibition in Pavilion hall, January 25. They carry nothing but films and the latest and newest ones. Your attention will surely be struck when the beautiful colored films by the title Pigeon Fairy, Living Flowers and Fairy of the Spring, will run through the cinematograph.

A twenty-dollar bill (real money) laid in the road in front of the City hall yesterday afternoon for an hour and nobody picked it up until the owner, Almon Downing, came back looking for the lost treasure and found it. Mr. Downing paid a little bill and in counting out the money let the $20 bill, tightly wrapped, slip through his fingers. He went from there to several stores and finally missed the bill. He then beat a hasty retreat over his line of march, being lucky enough to find the money just where he dropped it.
