

It's Not Too Early to Buy Dress Goods!

It may be too early to wear the dainty Muslins, light Woolens and the wonderful New Cottons, but the forerhand woman knows that it's not too early to have them made up.

Many of these quiet days can be spent planning the Summer Wardrobe and getting the Summer sewing out of the way before the days are too warm and the dressmakers too busy.

TODAY WE RECEIVED

The first showing of Spring Wool Dress Goods, and a very important one it is, too, for it includes values that cannot possibly be duplicated again this year.

FINE CRISP FRENCH VOILS, CHECKED MOHAIRS, STRIPED SUITINGS, PLAIN MOHAIRS, MELROSE, CRISPINE, ALMON CLOTH AND NUN'S VEILINGS.

Come in and see them. We will be delighted to show them to you. Prices sharply clipped on all odds and ends of Winter Goods. Splendid investments for you because we must sacrifice them to make room for Spring Goods.

Barre Democrats are inclined to be skeptical about the assertion from Belows Falls that William J. Bryan has been secured to give one of his Vermont addresses in that village. They still think that there is good prospect of securing Bryan for an address in Barre.

The September term of Washington county court has this week been formally adjourned by Sice Judges Wells and Winch. It was continued in anticipation that Judge Powers would be able to return to Montpelier and finish up some of the docket, but various causes interfered. The March term of the court will convene March 12.

Charles Clark was given a genuine surprise party last evening at his home on Elmore street by a few of his friends who called on him unexpectedly to remind him of his birthday. After spending a very enjoyable evening the party presented Mr. Clark a signet ring as a reminder of the occasion and wished him many happy returns of the day.

The Rev. and Mrs. George W. Winch arrived in the city last evening to take up their residence in the home recently purchased by them, on Trow hill, near the place of Judge C. M. Winch. Mr. Winch has retired from the ministry for the time being at least, on account of ill health. He recently resigned the pastorate of the Holyoke Congregational church after eighteen years' service there.
