

VALENTINES!

Come here to get your Valentines. We have a complete line to suit all tastes; also a complete line of Valentine Postals

Barre Book Store,

CARROLL W. MARTIN, Proprietor. Gordon Block, 140 No. Main St. SLEIGHS, HARNESS and ROBES

NOTICE.

Will Close the Balance of Our Sleighs at Cost. If you are tired of a cheap sleigh, come to me and let me sell you a good one. Carriage & Cartage Co. Sleigh, guaranteed wood, iron and paint, at a just right price. I also have in stock Sleigh Harness, second-hand Sleighs and Harness. Will exchange Sleighs for hay.

H. F. CUTLER'S STABLE. Telephone 1312. Pear of City Hotel. Barre, Vermont.

LUMBER

Rough or Dressed of all kinds. Dimension Timber. Orders Filled Promptly.

Satisfaction Guaranteed. Dry Sawdust. We solicit an opportunity to give prices.

SLOCUM LUMBER CO. Washington, Vt.

WOOD

The place to buy Wood. A large stock of all kinds at these prices: Block Wood, per cord, $2.75. Limb Wood, per load, 2.00. Chair Wood, per load, 2.80. Soft Wood Slabs, 1.75. Furnace and Shed Wood.

I am prepared to do all kinds of moving and jobbing at reasonable rates.

Coarse and fine Sand for sale in any quantity. Coarse Sand for cementing at my sandbank, Farwell St.

L. J. BOLSTER, Telephone 402-2.

383 North Main Street, Barre, Vt.

UPHOLSTERING AND FURNITURE REPAIRING

Hair Mattress Making and Renovating. Picture Framing and Mat Cutting. All work promptly done.

H. P. BALDWIN, Worthen Block. Telephone 432-21.

Here's a chance to install an Electrical Wiring System at reasonable cost. Don't let this exceptional opportunity pass by. Get our estimate upon the installation of an Electrical Wiring System today and you will be congratulating yourself tomorrow.

EDSON BROTHERS

Residence Telephone, 112-3. Business Telephone, 122-1. If one is busy call the other. Buzzell Block, Pearl St., Barre, Vt.

ELECTRIC WIRING

ELECTRIC HEATERS. ELECTRIC FIXTURES. ELECTRIC SUPPLIES.

STANDARD ELECTRIC CO.,

H. G. KENNEDY, 7. W. HICKOLS. 199 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

VINCITIA LODGE, No. 10, E. of P.

Castle Hall in Blanchard Block. Regular meetings on Tuesday evening at 8:00.

SAWS FILED.

Saws of all kinds filed and satisfaction guaranteed. Also circular saws, drag saws and cross cut saws, planed and reworked. Remember the place 100 Washington street, at end of electric railroad.

A. J. BALDWIN.

DECIDE YOURSELF

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Barre Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Barre endorsement. Read the statements of Barre citizens. And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it: Mrs. J. L. Cummings of 80 Elm street, Barre, Vt., says: 'About three years ago I began to have serious attacks of kidney trouble. The worst symptom was a sharp stitch just over my hips, and the effects would last for about three days. During these attacks I could not sleep nights and could hardly get about the house at all. If I caught cold it settled across my back and aggravated the trouble. I used a good many remedies, but nothing gave me so much relief as Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at E. A. Drown's drug store. They relieved the pain and strengthened my back and proved in every way a valuable kidney medicine. It is six months since I have had any backache and I am beginning to think that the cure is going to be permanent.'

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MARSHFIELD.

Ernest Douse visited his father in Peacham Sunday.

S. H. Unwin returned from his Canadian trip today.

Mrs. Marshall Bullock still remains in a very weak condition, yet is slowly gaining.

Mrs. Sadie Rosebrook is gaining slowly from her recent illness of bronchitis and grippe.

Mrs. Harriet Wells Whitcomb of Barre visited in the home of her brother, Herbert, over Sunday.

The Marshfield team beat the Eagles of Montpelier 39 to 30 at basket ball last Saturday evening.

Ernest Douse of Peacham has engaged to work for J. Berton Pike for one year, commencing January 1, 1907.

The second basket ball team vs. Cabot was defeated in the game at Cabot on Monday evening by a score of 24 to 12.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fallensbee of Montpelier visited Mrs. Fallensbee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Martin, last week.

Miss Annie Maekie underwent an operation for appendicitis and other ailments at Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington on Tuesday morning.

Next Saturday evening the local team and company of H. H. Montpelier will have a game of basket ball in the usual place and at the usual time—providing the company comes.

S. H. Packer has engaged F. L. Duke to lay hardwood floors, paint, paper and otherwise repair and improve the buildings on the Beekley farm, which he recently purchased. Possession is given Mr. Packer March 1st.

Nellie, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Tibbets, was united in marriage to George Reed of Cabot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Reed, last Saturday evening by the Rev. F. E. Currier, in the M. E. parsonage in Cabot. Congratulations.

It is a fact that this town is much opposed to race suicide and has so proved it, but we take a back seat to one of our sister towns, who can boast a great grandfather with three small children, the youngest an infant of only a few weeks. Congratulations.

Mrs. Arthur Case and daughter, Eloise, went to Plainfield Monday. Mr. Case met them there, from whence they will move to Chelsea. The friends of the family regret that they move so far away, but Mr. Case's business is largely in that section of the country.

The family of George King has been stricken with sickness for four weeks, every member and the hired man having been more or less affected. Mr. King's mother had bronchitis and for a time her life was despaired of. Mrs. King has had pneumonia over three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spencer were called to Cabot the last of last week and this week by the illness and death of their mother, Mrs. John M. Fisher, who died Tuesday morning. Mrs. Fisher had many friends in this town who will mourn her loss and sincerely sympathize with the bereaved friends.

R. R. He has tendered the directors of the Marshfield creamery his resignation as second man. The management has this under consideration. It is not at all likely that Ralph will go if he can be persuaded to remain, as he has won the regard of all the patrons by his willingness and ready help.

Don't forget to attend the "Country school" tonight and Thursday evening. A good laugh is in store for you. Miss Davis, as teacher, will instruct about 30 pupils, among the most interesting being Emory Barton, Sarah Smith, Gertrude Smith, and E. A. Thomas as committee men. Old time costumes and methods will be advanced. In the M. E. church, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

At this writing all are convalescing. G. L. Dwinell met with a serious accident Monday afternoon, while sawing circular wood for Henry Blake. He was holding several pieces of wood on the table when the saw came in contact with his right hand, nearly severing the forefinger and badly cutting the middle finger. He went at once to the office of Dr. H. S. Carver, who amputated the forefinger and properly dressed the wound. Gilbert is gritty, but it aches, just the same. He is doing as well as can be expected.

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Pleasant to take, Powerful to Cure, And Effective in every form.

KIDNEY and LIVER cure. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is adapted to all ages and both sexes, affording relief in cases of Catarrh of the Bladder, Blood, such as Biliousness, Bladder and Liver Complaints, Gravel, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Neuritis, etc. It is a powerful purgative, and is sold in bottles of 50¢ and $1.00. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Kennedy, 207 N. Broadway, N. Y.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

THURSDAY, FEB. 7, 1907.

Our Balance Sheet Jan. 1, 1907.

shows gains during the last year: in income $335,969.22; interest $199,954.07; surplus $401,374.22; insurance in force $5,773,025. 58th year.

The National Life Insurance Company of Vermont (mutual). Organized in 1850. S. S. Ballard, General Agent. N. B. Ballard, Local Agent. Rooms 3 and 3, Miles Block, Barre, Vt.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

New spring patterns in wall papers in now at B. W. Hooker & Co's.

In the D. M. Miles block there is a tenement to rent; vacant February 1.

Old gold and silver wanted at refiners, prices in exchange for goods at F. E. Burr's.

L. P. Austin sells stone cutters' glasses, all kinds and prices. From 20c to $3.00 each.

Stone-cutters' glasses, 20c per pair. Lenses, per pair, 5c. F. E. Burr & Co., 85 North Main street.

Office up one flight in L. M. Averill's block; large center room with three large windows; to rent. L. M. Averill.

Anyone wishing postals of their residence from Boston Photo company at 60c per dozen may leave orders at Kendrick's drug store.

Save your pennies until you have twenty-three and come to the skidoo dance at the K. of C. hall Thursday evening, February 7.

The Ladies of the Macabees will give a drill and dance in the Woodmen's hall, Tuesday evening, February 13. Gilbertson's orchestra will furnish music.

The annual meeting of the Burns club for the payment of assessments will be held in Miles' hall, Friday evening at 7:30. Committee will meet half an hour earlier.

A. Giachino at 155 North Main street has received an $8 14-inch disc record from Milan, Italy, sung by today's world's greatest tenor, who is now singing at the Manhattan opera house in New York city.

A old piece in music. Sara dato an concerto dalla Commare, ladies of orchestra, Mercedesi sera, February 13, all opera house. L'orchestra a composta di soliste scritte da la migliore orchestra femminile nell'America. Prozzi 35, 50, e 75 soldi. Vendita alla Red Cross pharmacy Lunedì prossimo.

Roller skating race, Thursday evening, by four young men of Barre at the Pavilion; 1st prize $2, 2d $1 in gold. Pavilion open at 7 p. m., race begins at 7:15, closes at 7:45. After the race skating until 10 p. m. Admission with use of skates 25c. Admission 15c ladies free. No skating allowed on the floor until after the race. Price for use of skates in the hall 15c to those not holding tickets.

The latest improved and correct methods for testing the eye for all errors of refraction and fitting them with properly ground lenses; also properly adjusted frames. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. Prices very reasonable. If you have headache or eye strain of any kind, give me a call at my optical parlors, room 9, Morse block. T. L. Taylor, doctor of optics. Office hours 9 a. m. to 12 m., 1:30 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m., Monday and Tuesday of each week.

Rising from the Grave.

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Farwell of Lucerne, N. C. relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease in the diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications, which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at Red Cross pharmacy. Price only 30c.

A CARD.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded.

REN CROSS PHARMACY, E. A. DROWN, C. H. REDBURN & CO., D. F. DAVIS, E. A. AINSWORTH, J. C. McARTHUR, W. B. MILLS & CO., MICHAELSON, D. C. HOWARD, J. A. CUMMINS, J. W. FARMENTER.

BURIED UNDER BRICKS.

Marvelous Escape of ex-President Comstock in Earthquake at Kingston.

St. Johnsbury, Feb. 7.—The first news has just been received here from David V. Comstock concerning his marvelous escape from death in the Kingston earthquake in a letter from his brother, Daniel E. Comstock, who left New York for the island as soon as he heard of the disaster. The injured man was one of the best known educators in New England, having taught at Phillips Andover, the Hotchkiss school in Connecticut and been principal of St. Johnsbury academy from 1896 to the end of the academy year in June, 1906. Daniel Comstock writes:

"You have already heard of the terrible catastrophe which, in connection with the attendant conflagration, has laid Kingston in ruins; caused a loss of life as yet unknown, but estimated at from 1,200 to 2,500, and left 40,000 people homeless."

"On the morning of the 14th my brother accompanied by a friend, came to Kingston from Chester Vale, arriving here about one o'clock. At 2:30 without any premonition came the catastrophe. My brother was at the time on one of the many 'trolley cars' of the city engaged in conversation with an acquaintance. He had just uttered the words 'good bye' when the shock came. His acquaintance was killed instantly, while he himself was buried beneath a mass of brick and timbers. He remained in this condition until unconsciousness of an hour before rescued. The spot was soon swept by flames. Blood poisoning developed, but owing to skillful surgical care and excellent nursing danger from this source has passed and he is making very satisfactory progress."

"You can see a present are indistinct and will be determined by my brother's ability to be moved. His trunk and such of his personal effects, papers, clothing, etc., as were stored in Kingston have been destroyed by fire."

Nellie Matthews vs. Frank Tracy et al. In Chancery, Washington Co. Mar. Term, 1907.

Whereas, Nellie Matthews of the City of Barre in the county of Washington, Vermont, by this day filed in the office of the clerk of the court of chancery of the county of Washington her bill of complaint against Frank Tracy and T. J. Deavitt of Montpelier in the county of Washington, Henry F. Matthews, formerly of Berlin in said county, Geo. E. Bales of Wilton in the state of New Hampshire, and George Emerson of Berlin, state of Vermont, and S. P. Gale of Gale, N. Y., setting forth in substance: That the oratrix was lawfully joined in marriage with the said Henry F. Matthews, that he owns a farm in the town of Berlin and the buildings thereon, and other personal property to the value of forty-five hundred dollars, and that he has large sums of money deposited in certain other banks in Detroit and elsewhere; that she lived and resided on said farm in said town of Berlin with the said defendant, Matthews; that while absent from said farm, securing medical assistance, she said Matthews rented said farm as he claims to the said George Emerson, and then said Matthews absconded from the place and has secluded himself so that process could not be served upon him either within or without the state, and whereas, the said defendant, Matthews, left the oratrix destitute and unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist her in any way, and that he would sell or dispose of his property so that the oratrix would be unable to take care of herself, that on the day of August, 1902, she brought her petition returnable to the next term of the Washington county court, for divorce, praying therein for temporary and permanent alimony, and she said case is now pending in said court; that the defendant, Matthews, so secreted himself that notice of several motions for temporary alimony could not be served upon him; that he also gave out in words and speeches that he would not support the oratrix, nor assist