

P. N. CORSETS

Some of the good features of the P. N. Practical Side Corsets. The extra side pieces make the breaking down of the Corset impossible. These side pieces can be removed from the pockets where they are set and reversed from time to time, insuring permanent shapeliness to the Corsets and adding to the lease of service. The cork steel protector used in all P. N. Corsets will keep the front steel from breaking and rusting. We recommend that you try a pair of P. N. Corsets. Prices: 50c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.

SIRENS AND SONS.

If you want to kill a man politically, says former Governor Black of New York, continually refer to him as "old."

Belfast claims the oldest printer in Maine in Martin C. Dilworth, who began at his trade in 1842, when a boy of thirteen.

For the first time on record there are brothers in the Maine legislature at the same time. George W. Irving represents Caribou in the senate, and Athol E. Irving represents Presque Isle in the lower house.

President Roosevelt is having made a full length portrait of himself which is to be put in the peace palace at The Hague. The gift will be from a group of friends in Europe who are pledged to the peace movement.

Augustus Heinz's advent into banking in New York was celebrated with a dinner at the Waldorf, with covers laid for ninety. They say he carries into the new field the enthusiasm that marked his copper warfare.

Roscoe J. Stiles of Anderson, Ind., formerly president of Green River college, Kentucky, is at present conducting a blacksmith shop in his home city. He says, "I would rather be a strong."

healthy blacksmith than a tired, worn-out college president with the grave yawning for me."

Orders have been issued to Rear Admiral Willard H. Brownson, commanding the Asiatic station, to take charge of the bureau of navigation, navy department, on April 20. Admiral Brownson, who will succeed Rear Admiral Converse, will thus round out a long and distinguished service in the line of the navy with a term at the head of the most important of the staff bureaus.

Francis Emory Warren, elected for the fourth time to represent Wyoming in the senate, is a native of New England. At the age of seventeen he was wearing the uniform of a private in the Forty-ninth Massachusetts volunteers. He took part in the siege of Fort Hudson and was one of the band of volunteers of the "forlorn hope" that charged the Confederate works at that siege. Now he is one of the most extensive stock raisers in his state.

Farquhar's Scold. Farquhar, the dramatist, thought he was marrying a rich, talented and amiable girl and when asked about her declared that he had got "a scold, who carried her wealth on her back and her intellect on her tongue."
