The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

4,490

Delayed in transmission—today's remainder of the good old winter time.

The first wave of the seismic disturbance is now being felt in the United States in the shortage of Jamaica rum.

Resignation to fight of them, resignation to left of them, resignation in front of them, volleyed and thundered. But what reeked the city council of resignations?

The Vermont maple trees are running rich sap, but the brown sugar mills got to work on the production of genuine maple sugar some weeks ahead of them.—Providence, B. L. Bulletin.

The above "goak" is getting to be as stale as some of the samples of sugar which the Rhode Islanders are chewing. But it is a trifle premature this season as the maples are still frozen stiff and are not "bleeding at every pore," as one imaginative editor in Massachusetts puts it.

A GOOD SIGN IN VERMONT.

More than usual, it seems to the Times, is the call being heard in various towns about the state for more tenement and cottage houses. One could name half a dozen towns, offhand, from which come reports of the need for more tenements. In some instances the demand is so keen that fifty apartments could be filled, if we may judge by the newspaper reports which are sent out. But whether or not the report may be over-exaggerated, it is certain that a number of Vermont communities are experiencing an awakening.

A necessity for more tenements means that families are moving into the towns.

Baker's Extracts

COMPLY WITH ALL FOOD LAWS

There are on the market many concoctions labeled "Extracts" of which this cannot be said—in fact many of them do not contain a particle of the fruit whose name they bear. Knowing this difference, which do you prefer?

IS DEVELOPING WELL.

University of Vermont Baseball Team Is Playing Indoors.

Burlington, March 20.—Manager Shaw of the university of Vermont baseball team announces the following schedule for this spring:

- April 6, Harvard at Cambridge.
- April 27, Williams at Williamstown.
- April 30, Colby at Burlington.
- May 1, Colby at Burlington.
- May 2, Colgate at Burlington.
- May 4, Dartmouth at Hanover.
- May 7, Holy Cross at Burlington.
- May 10 and 11, Tufts at Burlington.

May 21, Norwich at Burlington.
 May 16 and 17, Massachusetts State at Burlington.
 May 22, Amherst at Amherst.
 May 23, Holy Cross at Worcester.
 May 25, Brown at Providence.
 May 26, Middlebury at Burlington.
 May 31, Norwich at Northfield.
 June 1, Harvard college at Burlington.

June 6 and 7, Alabama at Burlington. In addition to this schedule, negotiations are under way for a game here with Dartmouth. Another New England trip is also possible, which will include a game with Wesleyan.

It will be seen there are arranged thirteen home games and seven games away. Some of the teams are new here, but are fully as strong as the teams that have played here before. For instance, Colby won the championship of Maine last year, and will take the place of the usual Bowdoin games.

The baseball squad has been reduced and these men are retained for regular practice: Whitney, captain, Williams, medical, Gardner, Collins, Grow, Watkins, Beard, Hunt, Burrington, White, Scott, Partridge, Davis and Williams. The team is developing finely, and coach Hayes is enthusiastic over the prospect for a successful season.

RUBE'S STAR PITCHING.

Is Doing Splendid Work for the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Philadelphia Press said Monday about Vickers' pitching for the Athletics Sunday against Dallas, Texas: "Rube" took up the work in the fifth, and, being in great form, he shot them across with so much speed that half the time Dallas representatives with the wagon tongue were fanning at the ball while it was in the catcher's glove. Ten men went the air-line route in five innings, and but two hits were made off him. Vickers has wonderful speed, and control, and he often struck out men when they had three balls and one strike. He is a valuable addition to Mack's pitching staff, and should be a fixture this season if the form now shown by him can be kept up during the championship campaign.

COLLEGE MEN'S IMPETUOSITY.

International politics are nothing compared with intercollegiate politics in the United States. The latter are balanced to a nicety; that is remarkable, and the least filly of wind disarranges the balance and cause a dip and a rise that are dangerous to relations. No nation goes about with a bigger chip on its shoulder than does the average American college of today. It all results from the grinding competition over athletics. Envy, jealousy and consequent bad manners rule, unfortunately. Harvard and the university of Pennsylvania threaten to dissolve relations over the alleged fact that the former sends the latter a postcard. Princeton and Yale have a little tiff over eligibility and at once the curtain rings down on their friendly meetings. Now the smaller colleges get the bellicose spirit. A member of the Dartmouth basket ball team flattens his opponent on the floor with a "well-directed" blow. The aggrieved Williams college students rush on the basket ball arena and make threatening advances. The game ends and the scene of the contest changes to the pages of the newspapers with costly printers' ink for a weapon. And finally before cool heads prevail Dartmouth votes to "sever all relation" with Williams. Verily, intercollegiate politics need older heads than students'. Give us a few collegiate Bismarcks.

COTTONS!

This time of the year we always sell a great many Cottons, and while they are not as cheap as they were last year at this time the wise woman will take advantage of our anticipation and save from 10 to 20 per cent over what we can buy standard well-known brands for today. Any kind of Plain Cottons, Lawns and the made-up kinds we have to offer you. Even though the price is more than it was six months ago, any woman who has these things to buy, and does it now, is going to save enough to make it well worth while.

What is true of our Cotton stock is true of our Linen stock also.
