Arthur W. Daley of Montpelier is a candidate for manager of the Intercity baseball team in the New Hampshire league. The directors will meet soon to settle upon the question. A recent visit of "Tommy" Ulice to Montpelier started the story that he would be a candidate for the place again, but that it not probable.

The Barre people who attended the performance of "The Chimes of Normandy" in the Montpelier opera house last night were disappointed not to see the advertised electric car for Barre afterwards. By a fortunate chance there was a special train bearing the Knights of Pythias home, and the theatre-goers were taken home on that.

The Eastern Estate Tea company has erected at the front of its store in the B. M. Averill building a rather unusual sign, consisting of two pillars with a double span across the top, forming an arch, all in read. This form of gateway, which is called a "thru", is used by the company as a trademark and has its origin in Japan, where entrances of this shape are used for temples and other buildings.

Eastern Estate Tea company's grand opening tomorrow. Souvenirs given with a purchase of 60c.

is an "old saw" by an old-time "hawker" at elections in the early 50's. We have elevated our goods—what remains of them—but have not our prices. In fact, if you will come up one flight over the rear of our old store we will "let you down easy." Our stock is not complete, as we intend to close out as fast as possible, and are selling the goods at an average below cost. Canned Paints and Colors cost from 10 to 20 per cent more this spring than last year, yet we are selling the same at much less than formerly. Standard makes of best Colors and Mixed Paints, Varnishes, etc. Groceries and Soaps below cost. Very best Teas, all kinds, at 40c per pound; best Java and Mocha Coffee, 30c per pound; best Pork, 10 pounds for $1.00; best Lard in pails at 12c per pound. Let us price you on anything you expect to need. Bring in your lists. We have most of the staple Groceries, Cereals, etc.; also high-grade Kerosene, Pennsylvania stock, at 15c per gallon, best Cooking Soda in bulk at 4c per pound, packages 5c, full pounds; best Starch at 5c per pound in bulk, 6c in pound packages.
