Burt Keith got a hair singe yesterday without charge, when the gasoline torch which he was using flared up and damaged his hair and eyebrows some but his face was not seriously burned. One oak bar outfit, front and back, one mahogany bar outfit, front and back; also cash register, bottle cases, etc., for sale and immediate delivery. Inquire of H. A. Rugg, telephone 311-3. The officers and members taking part in the degree work of Bright Star Lodge, No. 18, are asked to be at Odd Fellows' hall on Monday evening, April 29, at 8 o'clock for practice. Mrs. F. W. Jackson, noble grand. Walter Lewis of South Barre, was quite seriously injured yesterday afternoon by falling off from a roof on which he was working. Although no bones were broken he was badly shaken and bruised and will be laid up for a week. The following officers were elected at the regular meeting of Seal Dow Lodge, I. O. G. T., last evening: C. T. J. O. Beckley; V. T. A. G. Lapoint; secretary, George Ford; financial secretary, Mrs. A. I. Skinner; treasurer, Mrs. L. H.; marshal, John Howe. The Montpelier Gun club's team competed with the team representing the Northfield Gun club at Northfield this afternoon. The match is for a silver cup and will be shot by a five-man team from each club, each man shooting at 100 birds. B. A. Eastman and Gale Bennett of this city are among those shooting with the Montpelier team. James Milne and Benjamin Woolhouse, two old offenders in city court, were arrested last evening on warrants for intoxication by Constable M. B. Nichols and Special Officer J. A. Dennis. In city court this morning both offenders pleaded guilty to the charge and several former ones. Judge Scott sentenced both to serve thirty days in the county jail. A small audience greeted the presentation of "Snug Harbor" at the opera house last evening. The play, which followed the lines of "Eton Holden" with a change of scene gives Henry Hoston, as Captain Dan, an excellent opportunity to show his ability as a character actor. The surrounding cast was nothing above the ordinary with the exception, perhaps, of Louise Hardenburg as Helen Langdon.
