

1970 YARDS ELITE FIGURED BATISTE

A manufacturer recently came to us with this proposition: Of cleaning up for them practically two thousand yards of their Elite Batiste, a thin summer fabric which has sold all the season for eight cents a yard. This was his inducement: To sell us the entire lot at such a price that we could, if we would be satisfied with a very narrow margin of profit to sell them quick, sell them at

Six and One-Half Cents a Yard.

Just stop and think a minute! Batiste, coming in a very choice selection of figures, dots and flowered designs, 27 inches wide and so suitable for gowns, house dresses, children's dresses and dressing sacques, at less than the price of common, ordinary print today,

Six and One-Half Cents a Yard.

While the electric car going to Montpelier late Saturday afternoon was making the turn at the Pioneer, near the Central Vermont track, it left the iron, and the manner of its going was so abrupt that it hurled the conductor, Wright, from the car and up against a fence. Two women in the car added their screams to the general confusion. The conductor wasn't hurt and the car was replaced on the iron after a time.

A carload of horses, billed as "four horses more or less," was shipped from this city to Massachusetts last night. The peculiarity of the billing was perhaps due to the fact that three of the animals were horses and the other a shetland pony which was being sent by H. A. Bang for exhibition purposes. James Ahern sent his fancy driver to the Brookline, Mass., horse show, John Trow one of his string of combination park and W. A. Bradford a horse to the purchaser, a salem man.
