

FOUR BIG VALUES IN WOMEN'S SUITS

At $12.50 Suits in a nice variety of mixtures and plain cloths, Suits that are every one new, as carefully designed as Suits of the bigger prices and every one a much better value than the price indicates.

At $15.00 Here are a few odd numbers, all different, Pony and Eton styles, mostly in pretty mixtures. These are among the best values we have ever shown for $15.00.

At $20.00 Here every one is a winner, including mixtures and plain cloths. For styles, Etons, Pony and Two-button Cutaway. We wouldn't want you to compare these with others at the same price. Compare them with others, if you like, at $25.00 or $27.50. This will be a good way to realize the value in these at $20.00.

At $30.00 Some of the best Suits we have shown this season. Beautiful materials, beautifully trimmed. See these at $30.00 then think of those you have seen at $35.00 and $40.00. They will compare favorably.

Thurman W. Dix of the university of Vermont has recently been initiated into the Boulder society of that college. This is an honorary senior society, the members of which are elected during the latter part of their junior year. Mr. Dix is a graduate of Spaulding high school in the class of 1904, and since that time has been a strong student and prominent in college affairs.

Remember the Shakespearean recital to be given at the Universalist church Thursday evening, May 23. Miss McQuester is a reader and impersonator of rare gift and accomplishment. She was awarded for a number of years such Prof. Moses True Brown, the great interpreter of Dickens, in his Boston School of Oratory. Since leaving that institution she has been connected with the New England Conservatory of Music and the Emerson College of Oratory, where her recitals in the latter course of concerts are among the notable events of the year. The characters in her romances and classic dramas are made by subtle art, living, breathing realities, while homely folk stories and child poems are given with such sympathetic naturalness that their charm is irresistible. Be sure to hear her. Tickets are 25 cents each and can be bought from F. L. Potter at the seminary or at the door.

EAST BARRE.

Through these lines I wish to bid adieu for a time at least to my many patients and especially those who have so faithfully stood by me. I feel sorry to quit work at a time when it seems as if I was just really beginning to learn the rudimentary knowledge of medical practice.

I also wish at this time to introduce my successor for the present at the old stand, Dr. N. E. Avery, now of Warren, a man in whom I have great confidence. I do not expect my patrons to risk their lives, but to give him a fair and even chance, and I believe they will not be disappointed.

J. H. McArthur.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

"A Dutchman's Honeymoon" is rightfully classed among the really brilliant successes in the field of farce comedy. No production in its class has attained such instantaneous popularity or won so great a measure of critical approbation as has been accorded this delightfully clever mixture of mirth and melody.

"A Dutchman's Honeymoon" will be seen at the opera house this evening.

SOUTH RYEGATE

Axel Anderson has had several men working on his lot the past week, breaking ground for his house and we expect to see the house up.

Charles Miller is very busy these days, being short of help on his farm and having many branches of business to attend to all the village.

William Thompson and his men are operating the road machine and doing good work in and about this section, repairing our bridges and fixing up the much-needed repairs generally.

Henry Morrel and wife, who live on E. Miller's lower farm, were called to East St. Johnsbury last week by the illness of their son, Frank, who, it was said, was very sick with typhoid pneumonia.

Robert Butson, who has been a patient sufferer for months at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. H. James, had his foot amputated on Saturday last. Drs. Lee of Wells River and Hatch of Groton performed the operation and Mr. Butson is reported as doing as well as possible at this time.

Our stone cutters are all smiles these days, having plenty of orders and the granite is commencing to come in much more plentiful. George Crow and M. H. Gibson are each running two teams and Ira Aldrich is on deck with a good four-horse team and things are commencing to come our way. Some Groton granite is also coming here by Martin McRae's team.

The special train over the M. & W. R. R. had 52 passengers on the return trip out of Woodville at the close of the entertainment and banquet given by the Holbrook Grocery Co. and the Worcester Salt Co. on Friday of last week. Several from Montpelier and Barre were on the train and some from all along the road.

M. H. Gibson has started a paper, headed by himself with a liberal subscription; said paper petitioning the residents of this village to subscribe funds to build a permanent sidewalk and to build a certain amount each and every year until the whole village is equipped with good walks, composed of curbing filled with granite chips. Such a walk would last for ages and not be needing repairs every year. This petition should be liberally signed by all who traverse our streets.

Lawyers R. M. Harvey of Montpelier and Dennett of St. Johnsbury were in town last Saturday and were endeavoring to enlighten the heirs of the Talsey estate, who have not had the same view of the matters and things in the division and distribution of the said Talsey property. Mr. Dennett is also interested in endeavoring to remove an injunction which has lately been served by the Fraser heirs on the members of the Gray Granite Co., who were building a much-needed road leading from their quarry to this village, said road running across the dumping ground of the Fraser quarry. The Gray Granite Co. is composed of the Rosa Bros. and L. H. Hooker, our station agent.
