copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

June is already disgracing herself.

Recently it has become Ed Henry Harriman instead of plain E. H.

A defeat now and then is better for the best of men—also base ball teams.

One by one the seared leaves fall; so do the scorched New Hampshire cities in the base ball league.

St. Albans carpenters are building their hopes about a nine-hour day. How many, pray, do they work now?

Nature is only faking now, Messrs. Roosevelt and Long. Don't call her a liar, but give it to the weather man.

To have the postmaster's salary increased indicates an increase in business. Hence, Barre is busier as well as better and bigger.

The Concord, N. H. Monitor remarks: "Thirteen per cent. of Vermont's highways have been improved to modern standard standards. This is where the thirteen hoodoo goes very much to the bad."

There is one way that Vermont is pretty well "unlabeled" and that is in school superintendence. Supt. of Education Stone ought to notice a great improvement by the end of another school year.

While various Vermont newspapers are indulging in the "smoking out" game why don't they "smoke out" Frank Greene of the St. Albans Messenger as to his intentions anent the secretary of the state job?

When all other scare head news falls there's the "missionaries massacred mercilessly" to fall back upon. The frequency of the occurrences makes it possible to keep the story in type with change of location now and then.

A woman has just taken the highest prize in the graduating class of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. There's only one way out of it, gentlemen, and that is to bar 'em out. Such lack of consideration for male brains is unpardonable.

Company A, Vermont National Guard, of Brattleboro better watch out, or it will go the way Company E of Barre, once the crack company in the regiment, and Company B of St. Albans, also one of the finest. Vermont's military arm needs sustaining to keep it in working order.

REVIVAL OF HORSE RACING.

Time was when Barre was a center for exhibitions of horses and their speed, but during recent years the interest in that kind of thing has been allowed to die out, there being many contributory causes. Now, however, an attempt is being made to revive the interest in horse trotting and an association has been formed by some of the leading business men and prominent horsemen of the city to carry out the project. With careful attention to management and more than that, with fair and square treatment of visiting horsemen, they ought to meet with success. There is a fine race course at their disposal, equipped for exhibitions of this sort. Outside of the agricultural fairs, which come late in the fall, there is little or no attempt in this vicinity to have horse exhibits, and for that reason the Barre races should receive a liberal patronage from the surrounding territory. Let the promoters of the enterprise give a judicious measure of publicity to what they propose to do, offering no more than they intend to give and then fulfilling all that they promised. There is nothing that leaves such a bad impression and renders future attempts futile as the start as unfulfilled promises. The Times can recommend the persons back of the present association as being trust-worthy, and it hopes that their efforts will meet with success. Barre people should co-operate with them as the success of the undertaking means a benefit to the city as a whole.

Two Great Victories.

Leipzig, a city of Saxony, has given its name to two great victories which were won in its immediate vicinity. The first was by Gustavus Adolphus over Tilly, the great French marshal. This battle was fought at Breitenfeld, a few miles from the city. The victory gained by the allies over Napoleon was won after a battle which raged not only in a cluster of villages near the city, but also in the streets of Leipzig itself.

JUNE MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SALE

Fine Qualities in Drawers Are Shown Here in an Abundance.

Ever See Our Line of Chemise $1 to $5 each? If Not You Should

Way long last September we bought one year's supply of Muslin Underwear, just before the time when manufacturers commenced to advance prices. Since then Cotton Fabrics of all kinds have soared around the high water mark. Laces and Embroideries as well as plain Cotton have taken a high C. This made the making of Underwear at the old prices well nigh impossible. First thing we knew manufacturers commenced to hedge on filling orders, but we insisted upon having our contracts filled and have just got our full quota. Fine lot of Undermuslins it is, too, on the whole the most attractive lot we ever handled.

Saved from 10 to 20 percent on every garment, which is a pretty big item when you stop to think of it, and especially when you are going to get the benefit of it.

Manufacturers said we had better mark old numbers up for in no instance would they supply old numbers at the same prices. Good business advice all right, but it doesn't coincide with this store's policy, which always has been and always will be to use the benefit of a lucky deal to keep the old customers pleased and get new ones. There's another thing that has always made Muslin Underwear selling here among the successful selling events of this store. Our style, fit and finish has always helped the thing along.

Never yet have we tried to see how cheap a cheap piece of cotton could be put together, with as little of it used as possible, for the sake of a price, and sensible women both in and out of town, have found this out until it has got to where the announcement of a Pope Store Muslin Underwear Sale is just as sure of being attended with success as night is sure to follow day, and this sale should be the greatest of all. Largest assortment and wider range of prices than ever. Splendid opportunity for the June bride and sweet girl graduate as well as the homekeeper. Special bargains listed below for your consideration:

First Bargain--Ten Dozen French Corset Covers, Hamburg and lace trimmed, 32 to 40, at 19c each. The first time we have ever offered a Cover like it for less than 25c each.

Bargain No. 2--Corset Covers at 25c, lace and embroidery trimmed, French styles, just showing you how good a one we can give you for the money, that's all. Twenty dozen Soiled Corset Covers at half price. About a dozen 50c kind, 25c; 75c kind 37 1/2c; $1.00 kind 50c; $1.25 kind 63c.

Bargain No. 3--20 Dozen Drawers, hem stitched ruffles, at 25c per pair. The regular number, but pretty hard to produce a garment as full, well made at the present price of cottons. Sizes 23, 25, 27 and 29.

Bargain No. 4--Drawers at 45c Per Pair, from our stock of 50c, 59c up to 75c per pair. Odd lots, etc. Every pair merits your attention from a saving point of view if for no other. Our object is to clear the stock and keep things on the go.

Bargain No. 5--Night Robes for 50c Each. Why, the cotton would cost that at the present time. Then, when you stop to think of their being trimmed and well made, it won't take you long to make up your mind that this is the place to leave your 50c and that now is the time.

Bargain No. 6--Ladies' Night Robes. One hundred Night Robes at 69c each, high neck, long sleeve, extra full tucked yoke, Hamburg and hemstitched ruffles finished as good as any dollar Robe sold, and worth it, but made a special by us at 87c and never sold here before for less. Sale price only 69c each. Positively the best Night Robe bargains we've offered here. Sizes 14, 15 and 16.

Bargain No. 7--Night Robes at 98c Each. Gone through the stock pretty thoroughly where we have found one slightly mused or too many. The $1.25, 1.50 and 1.69 kind we have thrown out for this sale, making that an excuse for the sake of giving you a genuine bargain, bargains so good that you have got to admit them as such. In some instances they are less than cost to us, which we charge up to advertising. On the whole it's the best 98c value in Night Robes this store has ever offered.

Bargain No. 8--The New Robes. The New Robes are as pretty as you could ask for, well made as they could be and made of as good material as it's possible to buy. Plain lace and embroidery trimmed, short and long sleeves, V, square, high and low neck gowns, extra full. Made of best long cloths, cambries and nainsooks. The line is nothing short of a treat for anyone to see. Prices $1.98, 2.25, 2.50, 2.75, 3.00, 3.50, 4.00, 4.50, 5.00, 6.00 and 7.50.

Bargain No. 9--Long White Skirts at 50c Each. It's just the buying of them a long time ago that makes a Skirt like the one we offer at this sale possible, for the price asked for it, finished with hemstitched tucks, extra full. Only 50 of them, so be on hand early.

Bargain No. 10--Long White Skirt at 79c. Fuller and better than the 50c ones. Made of little better material and more work on them. It's a good number. Most any woman would want 79c for making it and you'll say so when you see it, and be sure and see it. Only 50 of these also.

Bargain No. 11--Petticoats. Nothing like our 98c $1.25 and 1.50 values in White Petticoats for the money for fullness, way they are made and trimmed. No fair minded person can help wondering how we do it. Quantity we use is one of the things that helps us out, then, to we have a decided inclination to sell for as little profit as possible.

Bargain No. 12--Better Petticoats. Here's where we are specially strong. No place can you spend 1.98, 2.50, 3.00, 3.50, 4.00, 5.00 or 6.00 for a White Skirt and realize more for your money. If you don't believe it, try it.

THE PERLEY E. POPE CO.

A live boy can get more fun out of one broken down skate than a man can "getting a perfect skate on." Here's the new style Boy's Suit that skates into popularity at one stroke—the three button coat and full knee pants. A ball and bat with each Suit.

—Des Moines Register.

Beaside the shore they sat and fished
And watched the ships career.
He showed her schooner, bark and sloop
And brig and barkentine.
All kinds of vessels he described;
Just one he found to lack.
So quickly kissed her, "There, my love—
A little fishing snack."
—Woman's Home Companion.

Soaking the Public.

"THE BLUE DANUBE"
Odd Way in Which the Beautiful Waltz Was Written.

It was a linen cuff and the quick thought of the woman who wore it that gave us one of the prettiest of the tuneful Strauss waltzes. Johann Strauss and his wife were one day enjoying a stroll in the park at Schonau when suddenly the composer exclaimed: "My dear, I have a waltz in my head. Quick—give me a scrap of paper or an old envelope. I must write it down before I forget it." Alas, after much rummaging of pockets it was found that neither of them had a letter, not even a tradesman's bill. Johann Strauss' music is considered light, but it weighed as heavy as lead on his brain until he could transfer it to paper. His despair was pathetic. At last a happy thought struck Franz Strauss. She had on a snowy cuff. The composer clutched it eagerly, and in two minutes that cuff was manuscript. Its mate followed. Still the inspiration was incomplete. Strauss was frantic and was about to make a wild dash for home with the third part of his waltz ringing uncertainly in his head. His own knee was limp, colored calico. Suddenly his frau bethought herself of her collar, and in an instant the remaining bars of "The Blue Danube" decorated its surface.

Fine Writing.
Charlotte Bronte's writing seemed to have been traced with a cambric needle, and Thackeray's writing, while marvelously neat and precise, was so small that the best of eyes were needed to read it.
