

WERE JOUNCED OUT OF BED

By Explosion of Powder Magazines at Maynard, Mass.

EARLY THIS MORNING

County for Ten Miles Around Was Jarr'd But Nobody Was Hurt--Flames Broke Out But Firemen Worked Bravely.

Maynard, Mass., June 7.—An explosion of two magazines at the mills of the American Powder company at about two o'clock this morning jarred the county for ten miles around. Nobody was hurt but the occupants of the near-by houses which were several yards away were jounced out of bed. Thousands of panes of glass were shattered. The mills immediately took fire but the firemen at a great risk put out the flames before they reached more explosive. The cause is unknown.

TRIED TO KILL HIM

Thinks Fred W. Bradley in Confirming Orchard's Story.

San Francisco, June 7.—The story of Fred W. Bradley in the Boise trial that he tried with poison and bomb to murder Fred W. Bradley, former manager of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines at Idaho in this city, is confirmed by Bradley. He says that the milk taster very bitter at one time. Soon after this the fat in which he lived was nearly demolished by an explosion, supposed to have been caused by gas.

TERRIBLE STRAIN TELLING ON ORCHARD

Chief Question in Boise Is Whether the Witness Can Stand the Ordeal He Is Now Undergoing.

Boise, Idaho, June 7.—The question in Boise today is can Orchard stand the strain of the terrible story he is telling. He clearly showed the effect of his examination when he was turned over yesterday afternoon to the counsel for the defense, and it was on this account mainly that Judge Wood adjourned court. While the cross-examination has gone only 21 minutes thus far, it is already indicated that the defense will try to prove that Orchard entered the Pinkerton detective agency immediately upon reaching the west and has been reporting to McPartland ever since.

SAILED ABOUT BOSTON IN BIG AIR SHIP

ton, June 7.—The breaking down of his motor, which allowed the airship to be navigating to drift out to sea, came near resulting in a fatality for Lincoln Beachy of Revere beach yesterday. Beachy had made a sensational journey from Revere Beach to Boston, sailing high over Boston's tallest structure, the Ames building, and passing over the people of the Park street church and the state house dome, finally landing on Boston common, where thousands of people were attracted by the unusual appearance.

Beachy delivered a message to the governor and then rose in his airship for a return trip. When the aeronaut was a mile or more off shore in Boston harbor, after leaving the city, his motor broke down and the airship was fast being blown out into the harbor. Beachy managed partially to fix up his engine so as to get back to the vicinity of Revere beach. Several hundred feet off shore the balloon settled. It looked as if Beachy would go into the water and become tangled beneath the airship. Men in row boats and launches nearby seized the aeronaut's drag rope and started for shore, towing the airship, which while the navigator was taken out in was finally beached without damage, the boat.

INDORSED KNOX FOR PRESIDENT

Pennsylvania Republican State Convention Also Has Several Good Words to Say for President.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 7.—The indorsement of United States Senator Knox for president; the nomination of John O. Sheatz, of Philadelphia for state treasurer, and the adoption of a platform indorsing the police and administration of President Roosevelt were the not results of yesterday's Republican state convention. Senator Knox was not present, leaving his interests in charge of his colleagues, Senator Penrose.

The platform adopted by the convention is a departure from those of previous state conventions, in that more than two-thirds of it is devoted to national affairs. President Roosevelt's administration is given high praise, the concluding paragraph of that part of the platform reading as follows: "This convention heartily renews the expression of confidence that has come so frequently, unobscuredly and directly from the Republicans of Pennsylvania, in the integrity, wisdom and devotion to the public good of Theodore Roosevelt. With equal heartiness we record our approval of the work of his administration and we pledge the Republican party of Pennsylvania to a loyal adherence to the policies inaugurated by the principle of equality of right and opportunity to all."

OBJECT TO MARBLE HAMMERED BY CONVICTS

International Marble Workers Raise Objection at Meeting Held in Boston Yesterday and Hear Report.

Boston, June 7.—That children of this city are being taught in schools built of prison finished marble, was the starting charge made by Boston delegates yesterday at the convention of the International Marble Workers' union, which is being held at Marble Workers' hall. It was further charged that the firm, which is doing the work on the new normal school building in the Back Bay, is using marble finished by prison labor of Vermont.

Business Agent James H. Rehill of the Boston Marble Workers' union, reported that R. Clippson Skorga, chairman of the commission, stated that the firm in question had agreed not to use any more marble finished by convict labor. Delegates from Vermont presented a report made by a commission appointed by Governor Bell recently to investigate charges against the management of state institutions. The report states that convict labor is used to prepare marble.

12TH VICTORY FOR B-M TEAM

Wiped Out Previous Defeat at Hands of Manchester

BY THE SCORE OF 5 TO 1

Wherry Pitched Fine Game of Ball and Received Good Support in Game Played at Manchester--Burlington Beat Laconia.

Manchester, June 7.—Wherry pitched excellent ball for Barre-Montpelier yesterday afternoon and his team won the postponed game with Manchester by the score of 5 to 1. McCarthy and Harmon were the only local players who could find the first victim and they got two hits each. Finn also pitched a good game allowing but six hits. The league leaders bunched their few hits to advantage.

The visitors scored twice in the first inning. Murphy drew a pass and Monahan got a safe hit on an attempted sacrifice. Murphy then stole third and went home on Harris' single, Monahan going to third, Harris scoring, and Monahan died at home trying to score on the throw to stop Harris. Cotter's single scored Harris. Ball and Clemms were easy outs.

Manchester scored her only run in the same inning on McCarthy's safe drive and Harris' error in throwing the ball to the bleachers on McLaughlin's ground-out. McLaughlin went to third where he died as Sing died to Cotter and Wherry disposed of Davis and Jennings on strikes.

Barre-Montpelier got two in the third when Murphy again drew a pass. Monahan again tried to sacrifice and got first, this time through an error by Locke. Harris scratched a hit, filling the bases. Cotter hit to McLaughlin and Murphy was nailed at the plate, and Monahan died at the same point on Ball's grounder to McCarthy. Clemms put the ball out of the reach of the fielders and Harris and Cotter scored. Lynch went out to McLaughlin.

The visitors' fifth score was made in the seventh on Shea's single, Wherry's sacrifice, Murphy's out at first and a passed ball. Monahan walked and stole second, but Harris struck out. The score: Barre-Montpelier, ab r bh po a e

VERMONT CLERGYMAN WARS ON OFFICERS

Threatens to Have Them Removed From Office on The Ground They Have Failed in Their Duties.

Brandon, June 7.—Rev. G. A. Cooke of Brandon is making a determined effort to enforce the Sunday law. He is not content to have Sunday games, fishing and ordinary business stopped entirely, but if he had his way, even the postoffice, news stands, drug stores and livestables would close Sundays. Furthermore he is endeavoring to have removed from office all officers who will not enforce to the letter the Sunday laws.

Rev. Mr. Cooke started the campaign with an Italian fruit stand. After long notification on the part of Mr. Cooke the town officials asked the keeper to close his place of business on Sunday and he did. After he had succeeded in his initial step the clergyman asked the selectmen to put all the constables out of business and select new ones in their places but the reply was made that these officers were chosen by the people and the selectmen had no authority to remove them from office, so the clergyman wrote each constable and deputy sheriff a letter asking them to resign or else stand prosecution for non-performance of their duties. No attention was paid to the letters and the officers are still in office. But Mr. Cooke has by no means given up the fight.

NO OVERTIME PAY ALLOWED

But Judge Scott Has to Put In Extra Time

TO DISPOSE OF THE CASES

Record of Seven Drunk and One Tramping Prosecutions Handled in City Court This Morning--Six Men Go to Jail.

The city court worked overtime with no extra pay today in disposing of seven drunk cases and one tramp. This number is a record breaker for the court. All but two of the eight were strangers who had evidently strayed into the city on account of the special attraction afforded in their line. None of them hesitated in saying he had been drunk and six also said they were "broke" and will work for Sheriff Tracy at the county jail for the next twenty days. The following is the list as they were milled out by the court.

Frank L. Gauthier of Montpelier arrested two weeks ago by Officer Gamble, at which time he entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of a second offense of intoxication, this morning appeared before the court and changed his plea to guilty. He was assessed $21 and paid.

Peter Coyle was arrested yesterday by officer Hamel and was arraigned on the charge of being a tramp. Coyle pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the county jail for 60 days. He had been arrested only ten days ago for being drunk and since that time he is said to have been "bumming" it about the city.

Thomas Brady, who said he was a shoe-maker from Brockton, Mass., was taken into custody by Officer Hamel, and pleading guilty to a first offense and went to jail for 30 days.

Fred Brassaw, a painter in this city, arrested by Officer Carle, pleaded guilty to a second offense and was fined $15 with costs of $6. He said he could pay.

DEMANDS DAMAGES FOR HIS PROSECUTION

Harry Morton of Randolph Sues E. A. Fitts of Brookfield--Case Growing Out of The "Iodine Initiation."

Chelsea, June 7.—The first orange county case to be tried by Judge Cheney court case to be tried by Judge Cheney this term is an action in which Harry Morton of Randolph sues to recover damages for an alleged illegal prosecution by E. A. Fitts of Brookfield. This case is the outgrowth of a suit brought a year ago last fall by Edward A. Fitts against Harry Morton and three other boys from Randolph for hazing his son, Andrew Fitts, under the auspices of a so-called "iodine club" which was made up of members of the high school, of which the five boys were members. But Mr. Morton, the plaintiff in the present suit, protested his innocence and refusing to join the other boys in the settlement of the original case, brought the present suit to recover damages for the alleged illegal prosecution. J. D. Deaulon of Randolph and R. M. Harvey of Montpelier are counsel for Morton and Darling and Wilson of Chelsea are counsel for Fitts.

NEW DENIAL BY DR. DUFFY

Did Not Assume Responsibility for Certificates ISSUED BY DR. G. W. MILLER

Informed Letter That He Would Take Care of Holders of Certificates at the Usual Practitioner's Rates for Medicine.

Dr. P. S. Duffy, city physician, who has become unwillingly embroiled in a discussion with Dr. G. W. Miller, one of the managers of the old Emergency hospital, in regard to the free medical care of purchasers of hospital certificates bought from Dr. Miller for one dollar each prior to his departure for Covington, Indiana, makes emphatic denial today that he agreed with Dr. Miller to assume responsibility as reiterated by Dr. Miller in a communication to The Times yesterday.

Dr. Duffy states that he did have a conversation with Dr. Miller about taking over his fraternal order practice and incidentally the latter said he would turn over the hospital certificates, but he (Dr. Duffy) did not agree to treat those cases free but in consideration of medical charges, as he, a young physician, was not in a financial position to undertake the philanthropic treatment of several hundred people.

He explains his position in the unfortunate situation as follows: "While it is distasteful to me to enter into any newspaper controversy I feel that I must reply to the article in yesterday's Times in order to place myself in the proper light before the people of Barre.

"Before Dr. Miller went away he came to me asking if I would take charge of the lodges that he was treating. I told him I would be glad to do so. Before leaving me he incidentally mentioned the certificates he had given to the Emergency hospital stating that he would turn them over to me also and that I would be paid by the patient for any medicine that I would give him. This is the only agreement (if such could be called an agreement) that I ever had with Dr. Miller regarding the hospital certificates cases.

"I understand that Dr. Miller has issued between 1,000 and 2,000 of these certificates for $1.00 each and I want to make it plain to the public that I never received one cent from Dr. Miller; therefore it cannot be expected that I should give medical advice and medicine without being paid for it except in charitable cases.

"Now Dr. Miller states in his article that he would not have closed out the Emergency hospital if he had not found some one capable of taking his place. It seems strange to me that Dr. Miller should make that statement as I had never had any talk with him whatever until three days before he left. In fact he was practically unknown to me until that time.

"I hope this explanation will be sufficient to convince your readers that I have none of the people's money for which they have not had value received.

WAS RESPECTED BY ALL.

Funeral of Late Gilbert Sales Carver in Marshfield.

Marshfield, June 7.—The funeral of the late Gilbert Sales Carver was held from the home of his only son, Dr. Herbert S. Carver, yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev. S. G. Lewis of Hardwick officiating.

"Grandpa" Carver was one of the oldest citizens of this town, highly respected by all. He came here in 1890 from his home in Calais after the death of his wife. Mr. Carver was born in Calais in 1817.

He leaves to cherish his memory, besides his son and wife, an only grandchild, J. Ward Carver of Barre City, and many friends, both old and young, who extend sympathy to those who have so tenderly cared for him in these falling years, especially so, in the thirty weeks he has been confined to his bed.

Among those who came to attend the funeral were a sister, Mrs. George Burnham, Orson Putnam, Warren Goodale and Alonzo Sumner of South Woodbury.
