A Barre boy is the premier pitcher on the Youkers team in the Hudson river league and nothing is too good for Brown if the newspaper reports can be judged. One paper says: "In Brown, Manager Lawler has certainly unearthed a pitching 'find.' This is not Brown's first experience in league ball. He hails from Vermont, where leagues are as thick as flies in the good old summer time. Even the Cincinnati's could not hit Brown's cross-fire. We predict a winning season for this slab artist."

"No Mother to Guide Her" is the most satisfying play that has been written for a number of years and ranks with all the great human interest productions of the past decade. It will be presented at the opera house next Saturday. Crowded houses have greeted the production in other cities and there will probably be no exception to the rule here. The play tells a story of a great wrong which is finally righted and is tinged with sufficient comedy to provoke laughter with tears. The company and production are of the highest class.

AFTER ELEVEN YEARS.

Called at Burlington Clerk's Office For Marriage Certificate.

Burlington, June 12.—T. A. Williams of Springfield, Mass., called at the office of City Clerk M. C. Grandy yesterday and asked for his marriage certificate which he secured 11 years ago in Burlington. Mr. Williams was united in marriage with Miss Mary Sanborn by Rev. J. H. Metcalf, pastor of the Unitarian church, September 9, 1896, at Burlington, Mass. Under the law then, the marriage license obtained at the city clerk's office, afterward endorsed by the clergyman or justice who performed the ceremony, was returned to the clerk's office, and from there it was sent to the parties. Mr. and Mrs. Williams, however, did not leave their address and the certificate was never sent to them. It has been filed away these eleven years until Mr. Williams, who was in town yesterday on business called for it.
