"KILLED FOR REVENGE"

They Say That Governor Steunenberg Was Victim of Orchard Because Lately Wishes to Make Up for Loss of Property.

Boise Idaho, June 29.—Attorneys for William D. Hayward charged with killing ex-Gov. Steunenberg, continued yesterday to center their efforts upon discrediting the Orchard and establishing their assertion that Orchard killed Steunenberg in revenge for the loss of his interest in the Hercules mine.

W. E. Easterly, who, as a member of the famous Altman Union, No. 19, of Cripple Creek, was on the strike committee and who Orchard swore was one of the men with whom he made the arrangement for more than one crime, was on the stand again.

Easterly denied that he had talked with Orchard about the Independence depot explosion. He said Orchard mined a little and drank more at Cripple Creek in 1903 and 1904. He said the only man who had talked violence at the meetings of the Federation was a mine owner's agent, Moyer and Hayward always had counseled peace.

The Vermont base ball league to succeed the New Hampshire state league which fell by the base ball wayside a short time ago is scheduled to begin operations next week, with Barre-Montpelier, Plattsburgh, Burlington and Rutland in the running.

HOUSE INVASED BY HOST OF FRIENDS

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Chandler Returned From Automobile Ride Last Evening to Find Themselves Prisoners.

Little did Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Chandler suspect when they left last evening for a ride in F. D. Ladd's automobile that they would return to find their home in the possession of an invading force; but such was the case, their friends and neighbors, to the number of over 150 having arrived during their absence to remind them that it was 30 years since they were united in the bonds of wedlock.

Although taken altogether by surprise the doctor and Mrs. Chandler entered fully into the spirit of the occasion. During the evening the company was entertained by a solo by Mrs. Richard Bradley and reading by Miss Blanche J. Tilden.

The company, apparently thinking that the conventional 30 wants of the couple were being presented, had a handsome buffet and lutenburg cover, a beautiful six-piece silver service and seven pieces of china.

At the conclusion of the presentation refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee were served, after which the company broke up, leaving Dr. and Mrs. Chandler to recover from their surprise.
