CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Do Not Endanger Life When a Barre Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, who allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy, or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Barre testimony:

F. A. Beede of East Barre, Vt., says: "I was bothered with a constant lameness across my back and kidneys. I was very restless at night and when I awoke mornings I felt more tired than when I went to bed. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended for such troubles and went to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. They proved to be just what I needed. It was not long before the lameness left my back and I could sleep well nights. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I shall always be glad to tell people of my experience with this remedy."

THE COOKBOOK.

When cooking anything that requires constant stirring, put it in a crock or granite pan, cover and place in the oven. It will cook without burning and save bending over a hot stove.

Bolled eggs to slice nicely should be put over the fire in cold water and should remain fifteen minutes after the water begins to boil and allowed to cool in the same water. If cooled by dropping into cold water they will not cut smoothly.

Scrambled eggs with tomatoes make an appetizing luncheon dish. Take two good sized tomatoes, peel and cut them in pieces and fry them in a little hot olive oil. When cooked drain off the liquid and take four eggs, well beaten, add some cream and scramble. Mix the tomatoes with the eggs, seasoning with salt and pepper to taste. Serve on this slices of toast.

Tuning Forks. If two tuning forks of the same pitch are placed facing each other, the one sounding, the other silent, in a few seconds the silent one will be giving out a distinctly audible note.

CABOT

Bert Lyford of south west hill lost his family horse last week. It ran its head against an iron rod which surrounded the silo puncturing the skull and lodging bone on the brain. It was 20 years old and had been in the family a long time.

School at Lower Cabot closed Friday with an exhibition in the evening consisting of speaking by the children assisted by Miss Judith Haines as organizer. A farce entitled "Wanted a Servant" by the teachers and pupils who did justice to the efforts which had been made by the teacher, Miss Smith of Hardwick.

Mrs. Mary Hall died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Miller, June 14th of lunacy, hemorrhages, aged 73 years. She was born in East Montpelier, the daughter of Thomas and Sarah Ainsworth and was the widow of M. J. Hall. Being in feeble health for several years she came to live with Mrs. Miller two years ago and during that time has been tenderly and faithfully cared for, bearing her sufferings patiently. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Samuel Meader of East Calais and Mrs. Charles Miller of Cabot west hill; beside three brothers, Charles C. and Alonzo M., of Middlesex, and Henry D., of Westboro, Mass. She was a genuine affectionate mother and will be missed by her children. Funeral services were held Sunday morning at her late home, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. Her remains were taken to Montpelier and laid to rest in Green Mount cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah Stone who died at the home of Justin Stone on southwest hill June 18th was born in Stratford, Vt., and had her life been spared until August would have been 75 years old. When a child she came to Marshfield with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Gove. Fifty-two years ago she came to Cabot and lived in several different families previous to her final coming to the home of Matthias Stone, 47 years ago, assuming the responsibility of stepmother in which capacity she proved faithful and kind and was ever ready to lend a helping hand to any neighbor in time of trouble. For several years she had suffered with heart trouble, always bearing it patiently without murmur or complaint. She had been a worthy member of the M. E. church for many years and was a constant attendant whenever health and opportunity permitted. During the past year she was suffering had only been patiently waiting to hear the summons "Come up higher," there to meet loved ones gone before. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. Her remains were buried beside those of her husband at Lower village cemetery.

ABYSSES OF OCEAN.

Extent of the Deep Waters and Their Tremendous Pressure. More than half the surface of the globe is hidden under water two miles deep. Seven million square miles lie at a depth of 18,000 feet or more. Many places have been found five miles and more in depth. The greatest depth yet sounded is 31,200 feet, near the island of Guam.

If Mount Everest, the world's highest mountain, were plucked from its seat and dropped into this spot the waves would still roll 2,000 feet above its crest.

Into this terrific abyss the waters press down with a force more than 10,000 pounds to the square inch. The stanchest ship ever built would be crumpled under this awful pressure like an eggshell under a steam roller. A pine beam fifteen feet long which held open the mouth of a trawl used in making a cast at a depth of more than 18,000 feet was crushed flat as if it had been passed between rollers.

SECRETS OF SAVAGES.

Some Things That Baffle the Ingenuity of Civilized Man.

The head was no bigger than an orange, the black, bearded head, perfectly preserved, of a man of forty or so. "The Dyaks alone," said the ethnologist, "have the secret of taking an adult human head and reducing it, like this, to less than half its size. Their houses are ornamented profusely with these reduced heads of enemies slain in battle. No one knows how the reduction is accomplished. It is a marvelous secret that the Dyaks refuse to give up."

"Savages, degraded as they are beside us, possess a number of marvelous and unfathomable secrets. One of the making of fire by the rubbing of dry twigs. Only a savage can do that. "Another is the construction of fishskin suits. The natives of the Siberian coast make suits of fishskin that are softer, finer and far more waterproof than any fabric known to us. What could be so waterproof as fishskin?"

"A third is the secret of arrested life. There are aborigines in India who can die temporarily, can be buried a week or more and on being dug up come to life again."

"The best blankets, the best baskets, the best sinners and the best dyers are all made by savages."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Swans Defeat a Fox. A correspondent of the Colwyn Bay Herald describes a fierce fight between a fox and a number of swans. The fox, after hiding for awhile among some reeds, boldly swam toward a number of swans. The latter were on the alert, however, and when within a yard the biggest bird attacked him with wing and beak, entirely submerging him for two or three seconds. Nothing daunted, the fox made a final attack, but ignominious defeat awaited him, as all the swans arrayed themselves in single file and made a desperate attack on their assailant, which eventually landed at the south side of the lake, his blood covering the felt of heather at the far end. The swans appeared to have sustained no injury whatever.

The Dust. They were celebrating their engagement by dining at a swell cafe. "Do you believe," she queried as the conversation lagged, "that man is really made of dust?" "Well," he rejoined, glancing at the dinner check, "he wouldn't be able to travel far in your company if he wasn't."—Chicago News.

IN "UNKNOWN TONGUE"

Girl Stirs up Frenzy at 10 Days Camp Meeting

DELIVERS LONG ADDRESS

In Words of Mystery and Throws Mission Into State of Religious Fervor—She Is Now Looked Upon as a Wonder.

Sioux City, Ia., July 2.—Miss Ivy De Borde, a student at Morningside college, this city, who was recently converted in the Holiness mission here, caused great excitement at the ten days' Holiness camp meeting at Fairmont, Minn., where she delivered an address, one hour long, before an immense audience, in an "unknown tongue."

Mrs. L. H. Darling of this city declares that this young woman's performance was one of the most impressive of the meeting.

The "unknown" language was in itself impressive, and the girl's views in English, on what she believed the strange words meant, worked the hearers to a frenzy of religious fervor, Mrs. Darling says.

Miss De Borde was recently converted in the Open Door Mission here, conducted by Harry H. Booker, who also talks in an "unknown tongue."

Resolved, that we appreciate her worth and her christian character, always in her place in church, listening to the preaching of the word, which was her delight, and in the Sunday school, when possible, and often in class meeting, even in her ninety-first year.

Resolved, that we miss her cheeriness, unassuming ways, and her sturdy independence, which led her to care for herself and her home, till her last sickness, though somewhat enfeebled by her fourscore years and ten.

Resolved, that we feel the loss we have sustained, and will ever cherish the memory of her faithful life and seek to follow her as she followed Christ.

Resolved, that we sympathize with the sister in her bereavement and sorrow, and that we look to the same loving Father, that "Aunt Hannah" loved and served so faithfully for years before our eyes saw the light of day, for the peace and comfort that He alone can give, even in affection.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be placed on the records of the Sunday school, and a copy sent to the lonely sister.
