Long Live the King!

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only safe cure. Guaranteed by Ricker & Wells of the Red Cross Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottle free.

TO SEEK SOUTH POLE IN AN AUTOMOBILE.

Lieut. Shackleton Taking Motor Car on His Antarctic Expedition. London, July 31.—The Endurance, originally a Newfoundland sealing vessel of 227 tons, but which has been refitted as a steam barkentine, sailed down the Thames today with the English South Pole expedition, commanded by Lieut. E. H. Shackleton, on board. Lieut. Shackleton was a member of the Discovery Antarctic Expedition under command of Capt. Scott.

Winter quarters for twelve persons, with provisions for two years, will be established on King Edward VII land, and an attempt will be made to reach the South Pole during the summer of 1908. The equipment on board the Endurance consists, among other things, of a motor car provided with different sets of runners for travel over surfaces of varying softness, twelve Siberian ponies, and twenty-four dogs.

IRISH LEADERS MEET DESPITE CONSTABLES.

The Government Tried to Prevent the Gathering in Roscommon County, but the Promoters Were Too Wise. London, July 31.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's government has proclaimed the first time a meeting convened under the auspices of the United Irish League. It was to have been held Monday at Bella, county Roscommon, Ireland, where there is a boycotted grazing ranch.

The government, suspecting that the meeting would lead to intimidation, notified the promoters, including Laurence Ginnell, M. P., for North Westmeath, that the police would prevent the gathering, using force if necessary.

A large number of police were sent to Bella. The meeting was nevertheless held at a place two miles distant. Mr. Ginnell told his hearers that the anti-grazing movement had the support and encouragement of the Irish parliamentary party, and urged its continuance.

IN LOCAL MARKETS

Eggs are Scarce and Higher in Price

BUTTER ALSO ADVANCED

Dressed Veal is Firm—Dressed Pork Holds at 7 3/4 @ 8c per Pound—Native Peas 7 5/8 @ 8 1/2 per Bushel

Barre, Vt., July 31, '07. Local markets are firm. Eggs scarce and higher.

Butter advances and dressed veals firm.

Wholesale prices are as follows: Dressed pork—firm at 7 3/4 @ 8c. Dressed veal, fancy—9c.

Fowls—16 @ 17c. Spring chickens—20 @ 25c. Butter—creamery, 26 @ 27c; fancy dairy, 23 @ 24c.

Spring lamb—23 @ 24c. Native peas—7 5/8 @ 8 1/2 per bushel.

RICKER'S ST. JOHNSBURY MARKET

Beef and Hogs Firmer—Veal Steady—Poultry Lower.

St. Johnsbury, July 31.—Beef and hogs are firm in price, veal is steady, while poultry is lower.

The receipts at W. A. Ricker's market for the week ending July 30 were: Poultry, 1,200 pounds, 8 @ 12c.

Lamb, 100, at 30 @ 6c. Hogs, 225, at 4 1/2 @ 5 1/2c. Cattle, 225, at 2 1/2 @ 3c. Calves, 225, at 2 1/2 @ 3c.

IN BOSTON MARKETS.

Butter Continues Dull and Weak and Rather Unsettled.

Boston, July 31.—Butter continues dull, weak and rather unsettled in the local market. Receipts are still heavy.

The proportions of fancy stock among the arrivals is smaller than it has been, but the offerings are considerably in excess of wants and prices favor buyers.

Fancy northern creamery butter sells in a small way at 23 1/2 @ 25c, and the best western stock for about 1 1/2 a pound less.

Cheese is quiet and easier. Supplies are fairly large, the demand is light and the weakness at outside centers also helps in the depression. It is hard to sell fancy York state twins at more than 12c, and for the best Vermont stock 13 1/2c is about the high mark.

The egg market is firm, particularly for stock that is free from the effects of the weather. Receipts are light and cold storage holdings last week were lessened by nearly 1,500 cases.

Quotations follow: Butter—creamery extra Vermont and New Hampshire 23 1/2c, northern New York 23 1/2c, western 23 1/2 @ 25 1/2c, eastern creamery best marks 24 1/2 @ 25c, fair to good 24c; dairy, fancy 24c, common to good 20 1/2 @ 22c; western imitation creamery 20 @ 22c, western ladies 19 1/2 @ 21c; packing stock 18 @ 19c; renovated butter 20 @ 22c; boxes and prints 20 @ 22c.

Cheese—New York twins, fancy 13c, fair to good 11 1/2 @ 12 1/2c, Vermont twins fancy 12 1/2c, fair to good 11 1/2 @ 12 1/2c. Eggs—Fancy henmy 27c, eastern fancy 25 @ 26c, common to good 18 @ 20c, western fancy 17 1/2 @ 18c, choice 19 @ 17c, common to good 14 1/2 @ 15 1/2c, dirties 11 @ 12c.

Note.—The above quotations represent the prices obtained by receivers for wholesale lots, and are not jobbing prices.

RIIS-PHILLIPS.

Quiet Ceremony in Ipswich. Only Relatives Present. Ipswich, Mass., July 31.—Jacob A. Riis, the author and sociologist, and Miss Mary A. Phillips were married at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Ascension Memorial church. Only relatives of the persons concerned attended the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Reginald Pearce, the rector of the church. The simple services of the Protestant Episcopal church was read.

Mrs. Phillips, the bride's mother, who is a summer resident of this place; her daughters, the Misses Charlotte and Caroline; Ernest Smith of Boston, a former Harvard athlete and the fiancé of Miss Caroline Phillips; William Riis, the 13-year-old son of Mr. Riis; and Miss Elizabeth Wade of this place were the only persons in attendance. Miss Wade and Mr. Smith acted as witnesses of the ceremony.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Riis went down to the Ipswich river in a cab and there embarked on a large motor boat. They did not announce where they are to spend their honeymoon.

STRIKERS RETURNING.

Men at Shepard & Morse's Lumber Yards Go Back to Work. Burlington, July 31.—Many of the strikers at the Shepard & Morse lumber yards, who went out last Wednesday on the question of Saturday half holiday, are returning to work, the men not being able to get the concession desired from the company.

There are now 75 men employed at the yards, including 25 men who did not strike, about half of the 75 who went out and returned, the remainder being new hands. Operations were delayed for a few days, but it is expected that the full force of a hundred hands will be employed by the end of the week.

Will Get Appointment.

WICK BLUE FLAME OIL NEW PERFECTION

MANV MILLIONS HAVE BEEN FILCHED

By the Standard Oil Company—Forth-Coming Report Gives Startling Details.

Washington, D. C., July 31.—The public is paying a larger tribute than ever to the Standard Oil trust. The citizen who lights his household by a kerosene lamp is yielding to the trust a net profit of about 2 cents a gallon more than 61 years ago. The exactions are pronounced all along the line. The trust has in no sense benefited the consumer by its great organized efficiency, but, on the contrary, notwithstanding its boast of having reduced prices, has been taking more money from the consumer's pocket.

An army of special agents of the bureau of corporations has been investigating for many months the question of oil prices. An official of the department of commerce and labor, of which the bureau of corporations is a part, says today that the conclusions will astound the country. He says the Standard's iniquities in filching money from the people are most flagrant, and have been constantly on the increase. The margin of profit between crude oil and refined oil is larger than it ever was and the trust's average dividends are faster.

The bureau is understood to have in its possession extensive tables of figures, gathered from almost every state. These have been tested carefully, to eliminate the possibility of error. The informant says these tables prove beyond any question that the difference between the cost of crude oil to the trust and the cost of refining oil is approximately two cents a gallon more than 61 years ago.

The same statement applies in the manufacture of by-products and does not take into account trade and industrial conditions which further inure to the Standard's benefits. This increase would alone yield an enormous profit, but the trust's entire profit is about three times as much.

The bureau of corporations is preparing a report. If all the facts which the special agents have gathered are included, the report will deal the trust one of the heaviest blows it has ever had from the government. The conclusions of the agents make a most sweeping arraignment in every particular. These conclusions riddle the arguments the trust's officers have often reiterated and which were renewed recently in a statement put out after John D. Rockefeller had testified before Federal District Judge Landis at Chicago. Instead of using their efficient organization to the advantage of consumers, the trust officials have been constantly advancing the price of oil and other petroleum products, absolutely and relatively.

Commissioner Herbert Knox Smith is understood to have concluded that the users of illuminating oil, gasoline, etc., would have been much better off, had there been full and free competition during the last 60 years. He sees not a scintilla of truth in the Standard's contentions that it has been a public benefactor.

The inquiries by the government's agents have been most exhaustive. They have gone into the price history of crude oil and into the cost of manufacture at refineries. These have been compared year by year and locality by locality. Thereby the special agents have been able to compute with exactness what a generous profit would be. After allowing such a profit they find that the average price of illuminating oil per gallon is fully 2 cents more than it should be.

The last report by the bureau of corporations on the operations of the Standard Oil trust largely with transportation questions. It showed great advantages to the trusts in freight rates and great organized efficiency in excluding independent competitors from equal railroad facilities. The further investigations condemn in just as strong terms the Standard's methods in exacting many millions of dollars annually from consumers.
