The Daylight Store

REMNANT SALE

Friday and Saturday, August 30th and 31st, we are to put on our tables every kind of a Remnant or Short Length that has accumulated in our stock for the last six months

REMNANTS	REMNANTS	REMNANTS
Our old custom was to put onto our bargain table all Remnants as soon as made. Our new way is to lay these short lengths and odd pieces aside and only sell them twice each year, August and January, just before the new goods come in.	Prices on these remnants are but a part of their cost and not one piece will be sold until Friday morning. As soon as they are marked they will be laid aside until that day.	On these tables for this sale are Lawn Braids and Trimmings; also every odd piece that we cannot match up in other goods such as hamburgs and insertions.
As our fall business commences next Tuesday it gives us only Friday and Saturday to clean up all of these Remnants.	Here will be an opportunity to get good lots for children's school Dresses. In fact, there are kinds for all kinds of childrens outside and under garments.	Also odd sizes in Ladie's Silk Waists and odd Muslin Waists.
	There is something here that every housekeeper can use, such as crashes, cotton and other goods.	Odd pieces of Wash Goods in both white and colors, Waists and some pieces large enough for whole Suits.

THESE REMNANTS WILL BE ON TABLES BY THEMSELVES
